King City Notes

Nine local Guides had a week's holiday at Camp Adelaide, Haliburton, where it rained every day except one. Captain Mrs. Ray Rumney was in charge of the group, assisted by Brown Owl Mrs. Kenneth Lawson. Taking along their camp kits were Jan Cargill, Susan Cargill, Linda Loughran, Susan McLaughlin, Kendra Lawson, Brenda Chesney, Christine Loney, Joan Pawliw and Kathy Curran. In spite of the weather the girls managed to sleep out most of the week, spending only one night in the drier comfort of the main lodge. Christine Loney, Linda Loughran and Jan Cargill worked towards their pioneer's badge, which they earn when they pass the final test of sewing canvas. They must be able to patch a hole in a tent, sew a rip and re-sew a seam. Four Guides managed to pass the test for swimming, Kendra Lawson, the Cargill sisters and

Susan McLaughlin rating their badge. As more families learn about the busy schedule of activities that are fun for children, attendance increases at Richilda-day camp at Kettleby. During the two-week camp period ending last Friday, 215 girls and boys were enrolled. Among the youngsters from King City area attending during August were Joanne Hardy, Jane Phorsen, Sheila Hardy, Bruce Leavens, Kenneth

Orl, Alec Duncan, Brian Agnew, Mary Agnew, Sherry Agnew, John Agnew, Vivian Love, Glen Love, Brian Love, Robert Turley and Peter Darrach. To Be, Not To Be Garbage . . . That Is To be garbage or not to be garbage? That is the question. Posing it is Ollie Pellett who operates the Whit-church Township garbage truck which collects refuse at Musselman's Lake. Mr. Pellett complained to council recently that his last nine garbage forays have produced items he feels don't come up to garbage standards. Case in point: 138 bushels of grass, 23 miscellaneous beds, refrigerators and chairs, 13 wagons and 122 stoves, car parts and tires. It's not that Mr. Pellett is narrow minded about sticking to just garbage. He just wants an extra $10 a week for "the other stuff."

Several relatives and friends helped Mrs. William Derrick to celebrate her birthday. She and her husband drove to Gifford Beach, Lake Simcoe, for the celebration at the summer cottage of her sister, Mrs. Rudy Stockert of Thornhill. Two decorated cakes had been baked for the occasion, one bearing birthday greetings to Mrs. Derrick and the other with an American flag and, "Welcome you all" for a visiting couple from Georgia. A buffet supper featured turkey and salads. During the evening the guests made a tape recording for relatives in England. Mrs. Derrick received several gifts from the gathering. Guests included her mother, Mrs. Flora O'Brien of Cookville; Mr. and Mrs. Jack McDowell and son, Bill, from Walkerton; Mrs. Ray Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Brien and their baby daughter, Lorraine, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crewson, Mr. and Mrs. Ron Smith and children, and Mrs. William Sutton, all from Toronto; Miss Valerie Stockert of Thornhill and Mr. and Mrs. Henry O'Brien of Doncaster. A King City neighbour, Mrs. Alex Currie of William Street, entertained a few friends at afternoon tea in honor of Mrs. Derrick.

Starting Off In Double Harness

A zany and fun way to begin married life followed the King City United Church wedding last Saturday of Miss Margaret Anne Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson of King and Mr. Kenneth Dimma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dimma, also of King. A member of the wedding party showers the groom with confetti while pony driver Arthur Morning of Aurora gathers in the reins for a ride to the reception. Note the groom holds a silver horseshoe for good luck; handy if one of the ponies "breaks down" en route.

School Board Secretary Mr. Raymond Burt told "The Liberal" the number of grade 1 children starting school was indefinite. "Since the census was taken in May there have been many changes with families moving in and out of the village", he commented. The board is interested in having more occasional teachers available. In the last few days Eva L. Dennis School has been having the exterior renovated, all the window frames and trim being painted white. Enrolment of 70 Ten children will be going to school for the first time next Tuesday at Kinghorn. A minimum enrolment of 70 in the two classrooms is expected by Principal Miss Evelyn Courtney, who will teach the four senior grades, and Mr. John Arnott, who will again have the four junior grades. We would like to add our congratulations to this very nice couple. Mock Wedding A mock wedding was staged for the entertainment of the patients at the Willows Nursing Home in Oak Ridges August 16 with many of the patients and some of the staff making up the wedding party. Many of the patients are well in the eighties and one gentleman is over ninety. The wedding party consisted of the bride, Mrs. Enid Lacey, groom, Mr. Howe; matron of honour, Mrs. Morgan; bridesmaids: Mrs. Smale, Mrs. Elliot, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Baker. The best man was Mr. Brown, (who by the way is Mr. Donald Plaxton's grandfather). Theodore Crittendon gave the bride away. Music was supplied by records. Guests were Mr. Carling, Mr. Payne, Mrs. Birch.

The mock wedding ceremony was read by Mrs. Alice Ashby. The reception was held in the lounge after the wedding breakfast consisting of a fish dinner, with all the trimmings, and wedding cake was served to those attending. I am told, from a very reliable source, that the groom immediately applied for a divorce. Championship On a recent weekend trip, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Taylor and Linda, Yonge St., enjoyed a full and happy time, visiting Fort Henry and enjoying the Thousand Islands cruise. Mrs. Taylor entered her Shetland, "Gin and Tonic" in a kennel club show at Three Rivers, Quebec. Gin and Tonic only needed one point to complete her championship, but won four points by winning first in open female, winners female and best of winners, thus gaining her championship. Another entry, Hew-Mae's "Little Tempter" captured best of breed and best Canadian breed and breed. Gladioli Exhibitor Mr. Len Dion, South Road, recently won 12 ribbons, for his 14 entries of gladioli entered at the Canadian Gladioli Society, held in the Canadian National Exhibition Coliseum August 17-3. Mr. Dion was rather disappointed in the showing this year, as due to very adverse weather conditions, it was rather less than in other years, although his entries did win, one first, five seconds, and six thirds. Mrs. Dion was unable to enter in the novice class this year as she has won the required number of ribbons to class her as a novice for the gladioli. Mr. Dion hopes to enter another showing Saturday in Hamilton. Birthday wishes are extended to Danny Lahey, Ferguson Ave. younger son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lahey, who celebrated his 14th birthday, August 28 and would like to wish the following belated birthday wishes, to Mr. Dick Evans, Wildwood Ave., and Barbara Williams, who was three years old, whose birthdays were both Aug. 12. We also missed the birthday of Donna Susan Williams, who is now four weeks old. Miss Shirley Eglin, Yonge St., celebrated her 13th birthday August 17, and entertained some of her friends, namely Susan Peterson, Ruth Crossman, Carol Orton, Sharon Craig, Dianne Larabee and her two sisters Martha and Mary. Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Dave Lahay, Yonge St., for a week were Mrs. Lahay's brother and family, Cpl. and Mrs.

Schuu, from Camp Borden. Mr. and Mrs. Horst Fendrich and Petra, recently of Ferguson Avenue, are now residing in their new home on Ottawa Cres., Aurora Heights. Mrs. Irene Goddard of Toronto spent a couple of days recently visiting her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Lacey, and spent some time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Good, with whom Irene lived before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Goddard formerly lived on Wildwood Avenue. Mr. and Mrs. George Burt, and Sharon, Wildwood Avenue, enjoyed some time in the clouds last Sunday when the trio travelled to Belleville, via the air, stopping off there to visit relatives. Mr. Burt then transferred from his plane to another, owned by his cousin, and continued a flight to Kingston, with his cousin doing the piloting. Birthdays Birthday wishes are extended to George Good, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Good, North August 24, and also to Mr. George Burt, Wildwood Ave., who also had a birthday the same day. Wildcats Win 3 Out Of 5 Lake Wilcox Wildcats have successfully defeated the first team of their playoff opponents with a third game won in Vanderford last week by the score of 17-3. The Wilcox team lost the third game of the series when they were defeated by a score of 8-7 by the Vanderford team. In that game, Gary Comfort hit a triple, bringing Les Simms in, to break a 4-4 tie. Dave Roberts hit a home run for the Wildcats but they were unable to make it three straight wins, when the Vanderford team edged the Lake by the one run margin. Best of luck boys for the rest of the series. You were close to the top last year, so all your fans wish you on the top of the heap this year. STOUFFVILLE: Stouffville Public Utilities Commission has acknowledged a recent report from the Ontario Water Resources Commission calling for a complete covering of the town water reservoirs but has advised the OWRC it is the opinion of the local commission that such a cover is not necessary. The water supply is quite satisfactory and the fence erected around the reservoir quite ample to keep out animals, Chairman Ed. Neville said.
