Forty Years The Old Order Mennonites are holding a worship service in the Edgeley Mennonite Church next Sunday, the first in 40

The service begins at 2:30 p.m. In 1824, Allen Smith's great-grandfather donated the land on which the church now stands and the Mennonite congregation erected their house of worship. Services were held once month until about 1890 when the order split into two branches and each held separate services until 1908. It wasn't until 1915 they were resumed on a twice-monthly basis with the late Rev. Baldwell ed until the present.
