Double-Ring Ceremony Unites Couple In King
Garden gladioli and zinnias in assorted shades decorated King City United Church for the wedding of Miss Margaret Ann Richardson, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Richardson of King City, to Mr. Kenneth Howard Dimma, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dimma of Markham. The double-ring ceremony was conducted by Rev. Martin R. Jenkinson. Mr. Hugh McCafferty from Toronto was soloist, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Ewart Patton. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a lovely white bouffant organza gown, trimmed with lace at the hem. Sequins and lace edged the boat neckline and the long sleeves ended in traditional style of points at the wrist. Three satin bows gathered the skirt fullness at the back. Her veil of net fell waist-length from a headband of five organza roses touched with pearls and sequins. In addition to her bouquet of white carnations and peach roses, the bride had a good luck memento from her father's relatives in England, fastened to her right wrist was a horse shoe with black cat design and a red rose. Mrs. Robert Hickson of Aurora was matron of honor for her sister and bridesmaids were Mrs. Kent Terry of King and Miss Gladys Adolph of Downsview. They were dressed alike in shrimp taffeta sheath dresses. Each overskirt of organza had a centre panel of rose petals in deeper shade. They wore pert pillbox hats with veiling and slippers in matching shrimp color with bouquets of white and tinted carnations. The groom's sister, six-year-old Dianne Dimma, was flower girl dressed in white organza, accented with a sash in shrimp shade. Flowers trimmed her white headband and she carried a basket of mixed carnations. The bride's nephew, four-year-old Donnie Hickson, dressed in long grey trousers with navy blazer, carried the two rings on a white satin cushion. Mr. Robert Hickson of Aurora was best man and ushers were Mr. Graeme Bales of Richmond Hill and the groom's brother, Mr. Bryan Dimma, of Markham. The bride's mother wore a sheath dress of lace over taffeta, with yellow hat and corsage of yellow carnations. The groom's mother was in a blue lace gown with blue-trimmed white hat and corsage of white carnations. Pony Cart Tour As the young couple left the church, they delighted the 100 guests and bystanders by stepping into a pony cart led by Shetland ponies, Donnie and Penny. Coachman Art Morning of King Township, holder of C.N.E. prizes for his pet ponies, had dressed for the occasion in grey suit and top hat. With buggy whip in hand he led the bridal procession of cars on a tour of King City. Returning to the church, the bride and groom entered their own car and were driven by the best man to the reception at Teston United Church. Out of Town Guests Wedding guests included the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Ruby Brown of King City; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Streatfield with their daughter, Dimity, from Glendale, California; Mr. and Mrs. Howard Graston from New Brunswick; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Reed of Port Hope; Mrs. Ruby Dimma with her daughter, Mary Lou, and son, John, from Peterborough; Mr. and Mrs. Lester Brown of Cobourg; Mr. and Mrs. George Perry, Toronto. Others came from Downsview, Newmarket and Richmond Hill. For travelling the bride had chosen a red double knit suit with beige accessories and corsage of red and white carnations. After driving to Northern Ontario, the couple visited an aunt at St. Joseph, Michigan, and friends of the groom in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Dimma are making their first home in the apartment over the hardware store on King Street. Born in Peterborough, the groom has lived in Markham since a child. He is employed at Superior Propane in Maple. The bride was born in Toronto and came to King City to attend the public school and Aurora and District High School.

King City Student Awarded U.S. Eng. Scholarship
A King City youth, Frank Heaps of Heritage Park, has been awarded a Canadian foundation scholarship at one of the top-rated engineering colleges in the United States. He is home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Heaps, and family until Sunday, when he returns to Michigan College of Mining and Technology. The school is considered in the leading two per cent of engineering schools in the states. Last fall Frank entered the second year of a four-year civil engineering course and was rewarded with three A's and three B's in spring exams. His family and friends feel he has made remarkable progress, for a lad who did not finish Grade 13 at Aurora and District High School. He left at Easter, missing final graduation exams in June, 1959. He entered the Provincial Institute of Mining at Haileybury and in 1962 graduated with honors, standing third in the graduation class of about sixty students. Working his way through college, Frank spent summer in Labrador, employed by the Iron Ore Company of Canada. His ambition? To launch his career with a master's degree at the University of Toronto when he completes his present course at Michigan.

"We needed it now, the bank said yes, so..."

Many a household purchase like this, starts with a bank loan. People find that the simple, natural thing to do is to borrow where they save—at the local bank. In fact the chartered banks are the largest single source of consumer credit loans, both in number and value. Through the years the chartered banks have made it increasingly easy for people to borrow, at reasonable rates, for almost any worthwhile purpose: the purchase of a car... a new home heating system... a son's or daughter's education... a family vacation...

Three out of four bank loans are to individuals for their personal credit needs. And the total amount of such loans has almost doubled in the past five years... further evidence of the way bank customers are relying more and more on their local branches for borrowing as well as for all other financial services.
