Treasure Mart Corner

Mrs. Jean Langton (left) convenor and Mrs. Susan Baker review and arrange some of the interesting articles offered for sale at the treasure mart and "French Room" to be held September 27 at 8:00 p.m. in Wrixon Hall, St. Mary's Anglican Church. The evening women's auxiliary is sponsoring this popular annual event.

The annual rummage sale of the W.A. of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church last Saturday was very successful. Good weather brought out a large crowd of shoppers.

Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Bennett entertained members of the Richmond Hill Lions Club and their wives, at a corn roast held on Saturday at their home in Elgin Mills.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. Donald Plaxton, Sugar Maple Lane, on the death of his grandfather, Mr. Michael Brown, who passed away on September 23rd. in his 88th year.

Bob Manning Jr., returned to University College, University of Toronto this weekend, where he is enrolled in second year Physics and Chemistry.

Rotary Club
Monday evening Richmond Hill Rotary Club had as guest speaker Dr. Tom DeGeer, a veterinarian in practice on Eglington Avenue, Toronto. He is the son of Rotarian Walter DeGeer.

Dr. DeGeer gave a most interesting and timely talk on "Rabies", illustrating his remarks with an excellent film. He stressed the fact that rabies is prevalent in this area to a high degree, and even though it is not compulsory, all animal owners, should have their pets vaccinated. This is quite painless and can mean the difference between life and death if the pet comes in contact with rabid wild life.

Dr. DeGeer's talk was followed by a stimulating question and answer period.

The Elgin Park Ratepayers Association held their general organization meeting on Monday evening at Beverley Acres School, when election of officers was held, and a discussion of their aims and procedures discussed.

Elected to office were: president, Ivan Mansbridge; vice-president, Ed Wells; treasurer, John McGaffney; secretary, Mrs. Lillian Conway; entertainment chairman, Gary Greenwood; executive committee of five, A. Herrler, J. Conway, L. Ryan, T. Baker, E. Crittendon.

Goes To Algeria

Dr. David van der Bent sailed from New York City on September 18 on board the M.S. Berlin for two years of voluntary service in Algeria under the Mennonite Central Committee.

His orientation program will take him to Germany and Switzerland. After a three month period of language study, he will begin to practice medicine in Constantine, Algeria.

Dr. van der Bent is the son of Rev. and Mrs. William van der Bent, 54 Harding Blvd., Richmond Hill and a member of the Heise Hill Brethren in Christ Church.

Elaine Rice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Rice, Leisure Lane, entertained on Saturday last on the occasion of her 8th birthday.

Miss Mary Lowe from Kapuskasing is at present recuperating at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coughlin, Kerrybrook Drive, following surgery at Branson Hospital.

Lawrence Clarke, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Clarke, Rosemar Gardens, left recently for Oak Park, Chicago, where he is attending Emmaus Bible College.

Lawrence is a graduate of Bayview Secondary School.

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church this Friday, September 27 at 8 p.m. a pre-convention service will be held.

There will be a reception of new members into the church fellowship, to be followed by a social hour with members of the women's association providing refreshments.

The Inner Wheel of the Rotary Club held their first fall meeting at the home of Mrs. Gordon McIntyre on September 17th.

Mrs. De Geer has accepted the office of secretary on the resignation of Mrs. Ron Ryland. A series of dessert bridges will take the place of the fall tea and bake sale. These will begin on October 23rd at the home of Mrs. Don Beaumont. Please contact the convenor, Mrs. A. Veysiere at TU. 4-5560.

95 Years Young
A family dinner at her home will be held September 26 in honour of the 95th birthday of Mrs. Thomas Moore, 9372 Yonge Street.

A resident of the Richmond Hill area for 40 years, Mrs. Moore still retains an interest in everything that pertains to life in this community. She has served as president of the Richmond Hill Women's Institute and of women's organizations of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church in which she still plays an active part. She is very alert, has an excellent memory and enjoys life to its fullest.

"The Liberal" joins with her many friends, her five daughters, 11 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren in extending the warmest birthday greetings to Mrs. Moore, with the wish that she will enjoy many more such happy occasions.

Mr. Ernest Lowin, 453 Lynett Crescent, is now in residence at Wycliffe College, University of Toronto, where he is taking a four year course in preparation for the ministry of the Anglican Church in Canada.

Attending the opening production of the Canadian Opera Company, "Der Rosenkavalier" at the O'Keefe Centre on Saturday night were Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier, Mrs. G. Dearden, Mr. and Mrs. D. Douglas-Crampton, Mrs. M. Appleton and Mr. and Mrs. G. Holland.

They joined the many guests at a certain time party in the foyer, and then proceeded to the lower lobby where a buffet was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lynett, Starlight Crescent returned this weekend following a months motor trip to the West coast.

Travelling via the Trans-Canada Highway, and in passing through Alberta, they stayed with their daughter, Miss Margaret Lynett in Calgary on both outward and return journeys.

During their stay on the Pacific coast, visits were made to Vancouver and Victoria. B. C., where friendships were renewed with the Yerex family, former residents of the Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Kingston returned to their Centre Street West home last week following a three month trip to Europe and Great Britain.

A meeting of the convenors for the 3rd annual fall bazaar for Our Lady Queen of the World Parish was held on September 15th. The bazaar this year will take place on October 19th.

Mrs. J. McArthur is the general convenor and each booth is being co-convened by two members.

Among those attending grand chapter sessions of the Order of the Eastern Star, held in Windsor, last week, from Richmond Hill Chapter No. 302, were Mrs. Eleanor Gales, worthy matron; Mrs. Alma Hill, past matron; and Mrs. Violet Birrell, Richmond Hill, Mrs. Cora Magee, associate matron and Mrs. Nan Simmons, conductress, Maple.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Kingston, Centre Street West, left on Tuesday for Montreal to meet their son John David, who arrived on Wednesday aboard the S.S. Franconia.

During his stay abroad, John worked for eighteen months in London, England, and spent six months touring Europe.

Richmond Hill Senior Citizens are very grateful to Mrs. Audrey Sykes, who, although not a "senior", is contributing her musical talents on the guitar to the newly formed rhythm band, "The Liberal" members, that she was not identified properly in last week's issue.

York Central Hospital administrator G. J. Chaffield, and Trustees James R. Reynolds and J. E. Smith attended a regional Hospital Association meeting at Wasaga Beach last Wednesday.

Guest speakers included R. R. Jessup of Sudbury and W. S. Martin of Toronto, president and secretary of the Ontario Hospital Association.

Long-time resident of Richmond Hill Morley Beynon, has been hospitalized at York County Hospital, Newmarket, since September 7 and expects to be confined to bed there for at least another month.

Although Mr. Beynon is not permitted visitors, we know he would like to hear from his many friends during his hospital stay. The address is room 143, York County Hospital, Newmarket.

The monthly meeting of the C.W.L. of Our Lady Queen of the World Parish was held on September 18th in the church hall. Mrs. H. O'Toole presided.

Mrs. R. Carter, membership convenor, reported that the annual membership drive would begin on September 22nd, and continue for two weeks with members of the C.W.L. visiting every home in the parish. After several more reports, the remainder of the meeting was taken up with discussion of the bazaar, to be held on October 19th.

Lunch was under the direction of Mrs. C. Parke, social convenor.

Seventeen members and guests of St. Paul's Lutheran Church Women met on Wednesday evening last at the home of Mrs. Erika Kuznicki, 263 Alsace Road, for their first regular meeting since June.

The program was a Bible study led by Mrs. Ev. Miller, on the 1st and 2nd chapters of the book of Colossians. A discussion followed the question and answer period.

The business was then conducted, and L.C.W. President Betty Harvey, presented Mrs. Sophie Kovacs with a "Descending Dove" pin as a farewell gift in appreciation of her years of service. Mrs. Kovacs is moving from the Hill to Oakville, and will be greatly missed by the members.

The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Erna Moebus, 243 Zaida Crescent, and the Bible study program will be held by Pastor Albert E. Myers.

Mrs. Douglas Allan of New York spent the greater part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wagner of Richmond Street.

On Friday last she was joined by her husband and on Sunday evening they both left by plane for home.

Marylyn Clarke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Clarke, 227 Rosemar Gardens, is attending the MacDonald Institute in Guelph, where she is taking a home economics course.

Marylyn is a graduate of Thornhill High School, and an Ontario scholarship winner.

As part of the Rally Day of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church Sunday School, teachers and officers attended the morning church service in a group. Rev. J. N. Hepburn conducted a service of dedication, assisted by Sunday School Superintendent George Francis and members of the session.

The Couples Club of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church will hold a corn and wiener roast as its first meeting of the season Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hill, 25 Bridgeford Street. This social group meets the fourth Saturday of each month from September to May. Mr. and Mrs. James McAlister are this year's presidents.

With the fall season fast approaching, various community, social and bridge clubs are holding their organizational meetings. "Life in the Hill" is always pleased to receive news items regarding your club activities — the service is free — just call the social editor, Margot Crack, at TU. 4-1105, or drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South.

Audley W. Kirchen, O.D., was among 30 Canadian optometrists awarded the "Doctor of Optometry" degree at a recent convocation at the College of Optometry, St. George Street, Toronto.

Requirements for the degree included successful completion of two years of graduate study, together with annual attendance at college clinics. Mr. Kirchen has been practicing for a number of years at 31 Yonge Street North.

Delta Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi celebrated "Beginning Day" on September 8, with a luncheon at the home of Mrs. M. F. Thomson, international honorary member and social sponsor of Richmond Hill Chapter. The husbands of the members were also invited for this occasion.

On September 10th the first meeting of the season was held at the home of Mrs. Alice Smith. Mrs. Jean Perdieris convened the programme for the evening on the topic of "Happiness", and what it means to the individual.

During the discussion which followed, Mrs. Thomson felt that to obtain true happiness it was necessary to follow the quotation "To Thine Ownself Be True".

They are both in this country doing post graduate work at the University of New Brunswick and were in Ontario to attend the centennial meeting of the Entomological Society of Canada.

The Couple's Club of St. Mary's Anglican Church will open the season with a corn roast and sing-along at the Atkinson Farm on Yonge St., at 8:30 p.m., Saturday, September 28th.

There was an excellent attendance at the University Women's Club's first meeting of the year - a dessert and coffee party - held on Monday evening at the Newmarket home of Mrs. Keith Norris.

Guest speaker was Mrs. M. J. Sabia of St. Catharines, first vice president of the C.F.U.W. Attending from the Hill were President Edna Izzard, Dr. Lillian Langstaff, Mrs. F. A. Lindars, Mrs. J. Langstaff and Mrs. D. C. F. Fayle.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom. J. M. Birrell, Baker Avenue, were very happily surprised last Sunday afternoon when Mr. and Mrs. Robert Birrell and Mr. and Mrs. Tom. Birrell Jr. held a reception and family dinner at the Summit View Gardens Restaurant in honour of their parents 40th. wedding anniversary September 26th.

It was an especially happy occasion as among those present were five of Mr. Birrell's sisters, Mrs. D. Cox, Mrs. K. Thorpe and Mr. Thorpe of London, Ont. Mrs. Birrell and Mr. Birrell, Windsor, Mrs. R. Annable and Mr. Annable, Lambeth and Mrs. N. House and Mr. House, Toronto, his brother Mr. James Birrell and Mrs. Birrell, London. Also present were Mrs. Birrell's sister Mrs. J. Henderson and Mr. Henderson, Lambeth and two sisters-in-law Mrs. W. H. Brett and Mrs. J. McGugan and Mr. McGugan, London.

Later in the afternoon the guests were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Birrell, Tyneview Lane, when the guests of honour were presented with several beautiful gifts.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr. P. A. Limpert, South Taylor Mills Drive, on the sudden death of his mother, Mrs. John Limpert, who passed away on September 15th in Tillsonburg.

The AOTS Men's Club of the Richmond Hill United Church will be holding a dinner meeting on October 16th, with Mr. J. Beatty as guest speaker. His topic will be "Christianity in Business - A Lawyer's Viewpoint."

Mrs. M. Appleton left by air on Wednesday for London, England, following an extended stay with her daughter, Mrs. D. Douglas-Crampton, at her home in Maple.

Members of the W. A. of the Church of St. Gabriel are busy with preparations for their fall rummage sale, to be held on Saturday, October 5th, at 10 a.m. at the church. Plan to attend, bargains for everyone!

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Carson of Richmond Hill entertained Mrs. Carson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Burr on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary September 21. The party was a surprise for Mr. and Mrs. Burr and included 15 family members. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Grainger and Janice, Mrs. John Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Rowntree, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Allen, Mr. Cline Burr, Mr. Murray Carson, Mr. N. Burr and Miss Sandra Burr.

Approximately 100 people attended the Monday evening meeting of the Pleasantville Home and School Association. The candidates for York North were invited to present their "Views on Education". Mr. Donald Plaxton and Mr. Robert McVey attended in person, while Mrs. M. Comession, chairman of the Newmarket Public School Board, spoke on behalf of Major Lex Mackenzie.

The next meeting at Pleasantville will be October 21st. Guest speaker at this time will be Dr. E. Wyborn who will speak on "Education With A World Wide Outlook."

Twenty five years ago on September 21st, Ross Stephenson and Laura McConnell were married in a quiet ceremony at the McConnell home on Bathurst Street.

On Thursday, September 19th, friends and neighbours gathered at the home of Mrs. B. R. Hook to celebrate the occasion and make a presentation.

During the weekend out of town friends and relatives called on the couple to congratulate and wish them well.

Next Sunday evening at St. Mary's Anglican Church is Students Night.

At Evensong at 7 p.m. college and high school students will take part in the service. Afterwards the youth council of the parish will sponsor a special speaker, Dr. S. E. Jensen, director of the York County Mental Health Clinic. He will show a film and lead a discussion on the subject of "Sex, Christianity and the Atomic Age".

All young people of the parish are invited.
