King City Notes

Group Committee
Nominations are now being received by the First King Scout Troop Group Committee before the executive is elected for the coming year.

Meetings are being resumed the first Thursday evening each month at All Saints' Anglican Church. Mr. S. Allen Cooke has been chairman for the past year.

New Post For Akela
Mrs. Arnold E. Bamford of King City has been appointed district cubmaster for Thornhill Area of York Summit District, after several years' experience in leading Cub packs.

Her new assignment will mean visiting about a dozen packs to make sure they are operating correctly, and to organize training sessions for new leaders.

Mrs. Hinton has been Akela of King City's Seconee Pack for the past 5 years. Previously she was assistant cubmaster in Richmond Hill for one year.

Become Scouts
Several local lads became Scouts in the past few days.

During a "going up" ceremony held by Iroquois Troop, retiring Akela Mrs. Arnold Bamford led Cubs graduating from Seconee Pack, Jeff Poulin, Bruce McPhee, Bruce O'Brien, Gary Walker, Keith Glass, Michael James and Craig Honey.

Mrs. Bamford also "took up" Cubs Bobby Roots, Douglas Anderson and Glen Orser as the Huron Troop welcomed the new Scouts in a "going up" ceremony at All Saints' Church.

Akela Mr. Bert Agnew trained "A" Pack Cubs John Glass, Vincent Alaglia and Danny Ward, who joined the Iroquois Troop.

From "A" Pack, Philip Lacey and Bruce Ferguson and a new resident, Bob Brodeur from Midland, were welcomed as new Hurons.

Scouting Organized
New appointments have been made among leaders of Scout and Cub groups now meeting each week at All Saints' Anglican Church.

Rover Leader Fred Lynn is now in charge of the Iroquois Scout Troop which meets Tuesday evenings.

Mr. George Knight is the new Scoutmaster for the Hurons, who meet at the church Wednesday evenings. Mr. Knight was an assistant Scoutmaster last season.

Mr. A. E. Hinton, who gained experience as assistant, is the newly-appointed Akela of Seconee Cub Pack during Thursday evening sessions. Carolyn Lynn and Wayne Riddick are assistants.

Mr. Bert Agnew continues to lead "A" Cub Pack Thursdays, aided by Mrs. Judy Payne and Mr. Charles Ormsby.

Mr. William Long of King City, who has been helping King City area Scouts, is continuing his job of district scoutmaster.

Latest word is the boys' groups are "all filled up". Cub packs still have a waiting list.

Evening Branch W.A.
Rev. E. H. Costigan gave an informal talk on the Anglican World Congress at the opening meeting of the evening branch W.A. at All Saints' Church. He spoke hopefully of the trend toward the uniting of Christian faiths.

Mrs. George W. O'Hara presided temporarily, succeeding Mrs. William B. Cook, who moved in July to Weston.

Elections were scheduled for the November meeting.

Members agreed they would accept Mrs. Cook's invitation to meet in her new home next month.

Meetings will be held the third Wednesday evening each month.

Return To Ireland
Mr. and Mrs. George W. O'Hara and their three-year-old son, Neil, of Clearview Heights are planning to move this fall to Dublin, where they holidayed this summer.

Mrs. O'Hara and Neil spent a week with friends in Devon and Cornwall, then seven weeks in Ireland, where they were joined by Mr. O'Hara.

Mrs. O'Hara was born in Ireland and her English-born husband spent several years there.

Plan Classes
When the King City United Church Sunday school is settled in the new church it is estimated 345 children will be fitting into the new routine.

Scheduled for 11 a.m., a kindergarten class for four and five year-olds will be part of the regular Sunday school, accommodated in a separate classroom. The primary department will have lessons in separate quarters.

The juniors and intermediates will be meeting as a group the first part of the period, before dividing into classes.

During regular church service, starting at 10 a.m., younger children will be looked after in another part of the building. For the entire service, mothers will take turns assisting in the nursery for babies up to three-year-olds.

The junior congregation of four to seven-year-olds may remain with parents until it is time for the sermon.

Assisting the superintendent in the Sunday school is Mr. Jack Parsons. Mrs. Verdun Gordon is secretary-treasurer.

Badminton Starting
Teen-agers and adults are invited to join King Badminton Club, launched another season October 2 at King City Composite School.

The club had "a good financial year last year".

Mrs. Gamble Kingcrafts Head, Membership 190

Several changes in the operation of Kingcrafts were introduced at the 13th birthday meeting held at "Kingswood", home of the founder, Lady Flavell.

It was decided to discontinue the practice of having associate members. Current membership was reported as 138 active members and 52 life members.

A new departure will be the opening of Kingcrafts House every Friday between 11 a.m. and four for the demonstration and sale of different crafts. Groups will alternate in taking charge of the centre after it opens to the public October 11.

Eighty members turning out for the meeting learned the extension to Kingcrafts House should be completed by October 15, allowing more space for group meetings and storage. Proceeds from the large spring sale are making possible the addition and cost of expert instruction.

Silk-Screen Class
A new group is being started this fall. Mr. Allen Sneath, who recently moved from King City to Aurora, will be instructing in silk screening.

Mrs. Robert Rowland presented a resume of the annual reports.

Mrs. Gerald Gamble was elected president, to head the organization for the next two years. Executive includes honorary President Lady Flavell; Immediate Past President Mrs. Gage Love; First Vice-President Mrs. Ian Gilchrist; Second Vice-President Mrs. Arnold Peter; Recording Secretary

St. Paul's United Church
About 60 children received pins for perfect attendance at St. Paul's United Church Sunday school September 22, when rally day was held.

Fifteen children received 1st year pins for one year's perfect attendance; 15 received gold wreaths for two year's perfect attendance; seven received 3rd year bars for three year's perfect attendance; six received 4th year bars for four year's perfect attendance; 20 received 5 year bars for five year's perfect attendance.

Promotion Sunday is September 29, and I understand some of the children will be receiving their pins on that day.

St. Paul's U.C.W. will hold a rummage sale October 5 in the church basement, 1:30-3:30, with lots of good, clean used clothing, being put up for sale. Most of the clothes will be for the winter, and they are all clean, and mended if needed. Tea will be available for the shoppers.

The annual UCW bazaar will be held November 2, and this year will be called "Christmas Carol Bazaar."

Hospital Meeting
A meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Lena Woolley, South Rd., with nine of the 15 members of the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary.

At the meeting last Tuesday, discussions were held on the uniforms for auxiliary members, which will be coral, on the gift shop and carts, on the work which will be done by auxiliary members before the hospital opens as well as after the opening scheduled for the first of December.

Work meetings are to be held starting in October and will be held at the home of Mrs. Findlay, King City, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on the first Monday, the second Tuesday, third Wednesday and fourth Thursday. Volunteers are needed to sew on labels, package articles and price them, and I'm sure many other things will need doing before the opening of the hospital. If you attend any of the work sessions, would you please take along a lunch if you are going to stay from ten to three.

A meeting of our local branch will take place at Mrs. Woolley's home on November 4, for making scrap books, which is a project for this branch.

More registered nurses and nurses assistants are needed for the hospital which is being built in Richmond Hill.

On October 28, 29, and 30 there is to be a convention at the Royal York Hotel in Toronto, to familiarize all auxiliary members in their duties, suggestions and ideas for the gift shop, and the many other phases of hospital work.

Local Girl Performs In Dressage
Miss Christalot Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hanson, South Road, has been named as one of the members of Canada's equestrian team for the coming season and will perform in dressage in Washington.

At the eastern Canadian horse trials which were held recently at the Eldersberry Farm, Aurora, with approximately 1,500 people watching from the natural amphitheatre, Miss Hanson performed over a course identical to that used at the Olympic games and was named eastern Canadian dressage champion.

During the summer, Christalot has competed in Detroit in the junior and open class and was awarded a silver medal, which will entitle her to compete at the end of the year for the possible award of North American dressage champion and with an eye on the future, eventually to the 1964 Olympics to be held in Tokyo, we will feel confident that this young lady, by past performances, will bring Canada a gold medal in the future.

In the near future, Christalot will be performing in dressage at the Royal Winter Fair, as well as representing Canada in Washington.

Guide News
First Lake Wilcox Guides held a corn roast recently and during the evening they presented their lieutenant, Mrs. Viola Windsor with a crib quilt which they had embroidered during the summer. Each of the girls sewed a square on their own and then it was put together.

At Monday night's meeting Dianne Kirst and Ruth Duke-low were welcomed to the group.

First Oak Ridges Guides will be enjoying a hike on October 5, meeting at 10 a.m. at St. Paul's United Church, South Road. Mrs. Lloyd Anderson is assisting with Guides and Brownies.

Both groups will be holding fly-ups, so please give me a call.

About People
A stork shower was held at the home of Mrs. Anne Collins, Moray Ave, September 23, with Mrs. Viola Windsor assisting. Guest of honor was Mrs. Margaret Ferris, and the 12 attending showered her with gifts for the new arrival.

Birthday wishes are extended to Cindy Lou Lavigne, six years old last week, Richard Orton, 14 years old September 26 and to Richard Kennedy, six years old September 30. Wayne Forster, thirteen on September 23 and to both Mr. and Mrs. Barry Willis, Rosemary Avenue who celebrate their birthday together September 28. Dawn Willis and Jade Seager both voted for this first time in the recent elections.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Scappatello, (nee Linda Kerr) who were married September 21. Mr. Scappatello, formerly of Port Colborne, and his bride who lived with her parents on the South Rd., will reside locally.

The community extends sympathy to the many bereaved families who have suffered the loss of loved ones recently. Deceased are Mr. Charles Bennett, North Road; John William Holman, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Holman, Lakeland Ave.; Mr. Sam Raphael, South Road; Mr. Murray Duncan, brother of Robert Duncan, South Road, who died very suddenly as the result of a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warden, Aubrey Ave., attended the funeral of George H. Thomas, Westhill, husband of Mr. Warden's only sister, Dorothy, whose death occurred recently as the result of an accident at Delaware, near London.

Corn Roast
A large group of boys and girls got together last week, and enjoyed a corn and Weiner roast in the backyard of the Nicholls family, Bayview Ave. The kids danced to records and sang and of course ate during the evening.

Three special guests were Johnny, Gail and Douglas Nicholls.

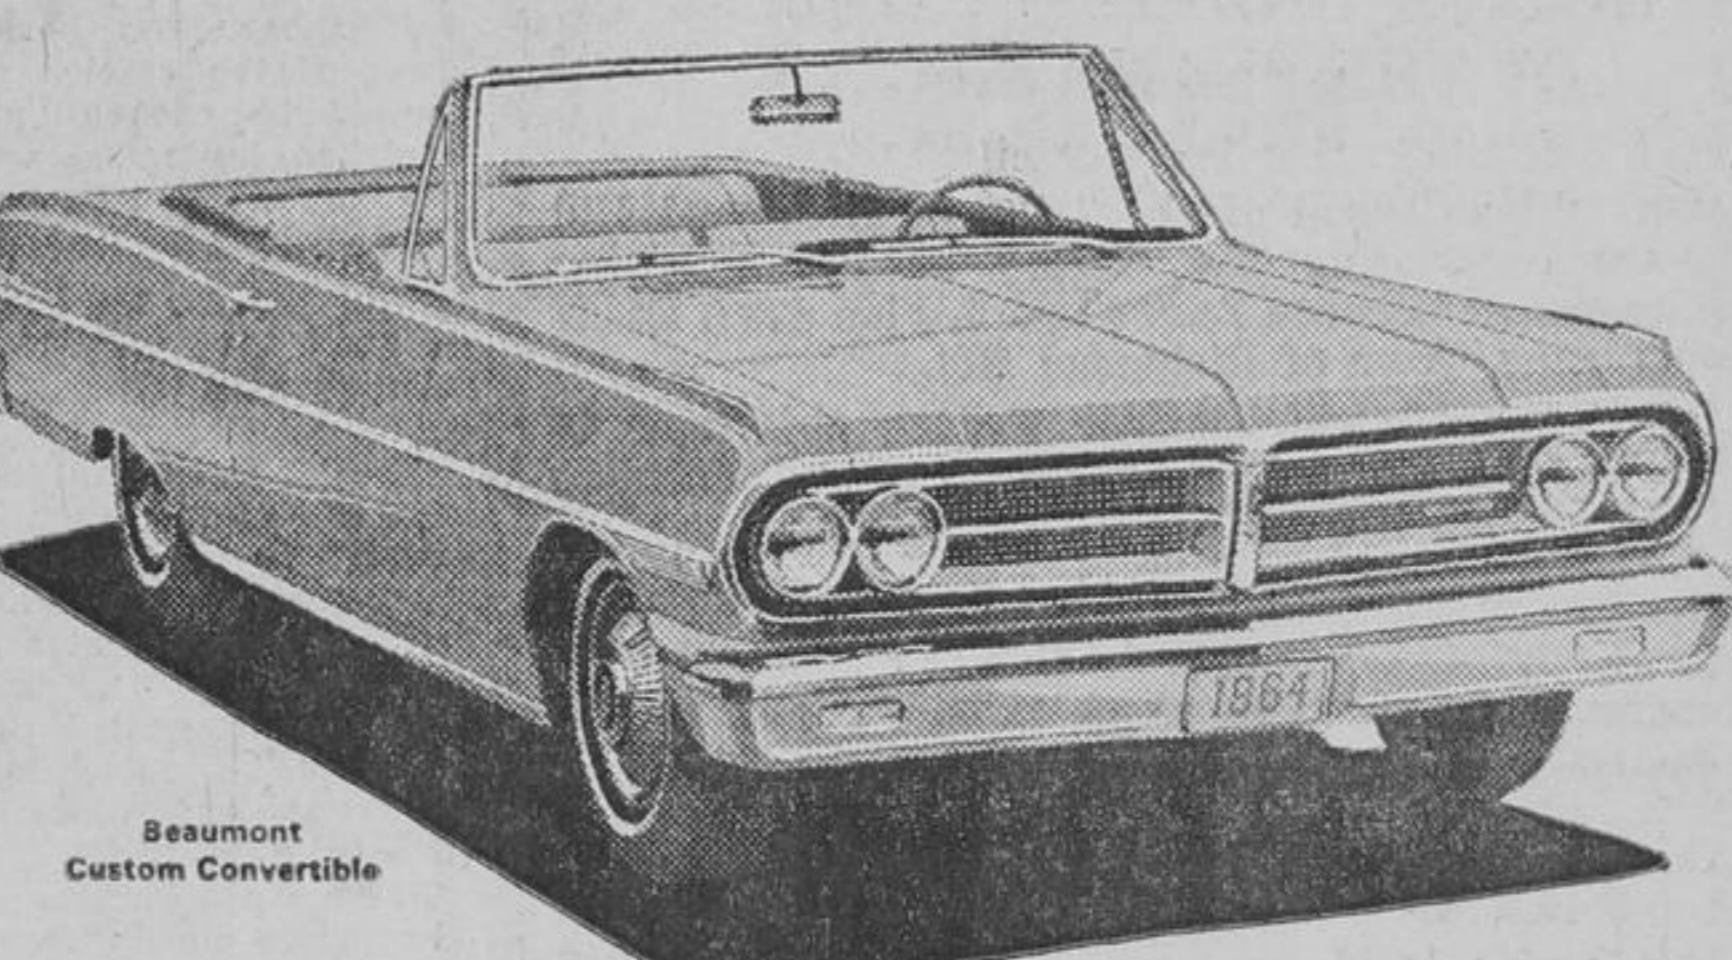

Mr. and Mrs. C. Binning and Norma, Toronto visited the Orton family for Sunday dinner and the day.

Need Piano(s) For Sunday School At King Church

The Sunday school staff of King City United Church has already been making plans to move into larger quarters when the new church is opened in mid-October.

Now that classes will be able to meet in separate rooms, an absolute need is at least two pianos. We could use three, Superintendent Mr. Glen Ferguson told "The Liberal."

Mr. Jack Hamilton, leader of the Bible class, which will be resuming shortly, suggested an appeal be made in King City area for pianos, since a similar call in Newmarket some time ago resulted in a church being well supplied.

STOFFVILLE: Council was advised that 1,300 feet of sidewalk had been rebuilt this fall. Deputy-reeve Ken Lassway, chairman of the Stoffville council's roads and walks committee, said there were considerable more walks to do but due to frost damage it was not expected work would be extended past the present month.
