

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mrs. Harold Monks, Wood-lane, left on Wednesday for a week's holiday in New York.

Susan Gillard, at present on the staff of the New York Presbyterian Hospital, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Gillard, at their home on Church Street.

The "Interest Sundays" at the Church of St. Gabriel have proved a great success.

Next Sunday, will be the 4th in this series and will show the work of the Boy Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies.

A date to remember! Saturday, November 2 — the Holly-herry Fair at the Church of St. Gabriel.

There will be many varied booths — home baking, candy, aprons, dolls clothes, Christmas novelties, handicrafts, white elephant and tea court, and for the younger set — a kiddies' corner and a happy tree.

Keep our columns up to date with your news — the service is free — just call the social editor, Margot Crack, at TU. 4-1105, or drop in personally to 63 Yonge Street South, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

At recent baptismal services held in the Richmond Hill United Church the following children were received: Mark Earle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gary J. Chaffield; Brenda Helen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Leech; Elizabeth Jane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. F. Fayle; John Andrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Douglas Booth; Sandra Lucille, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Cockwell; Faith Mildred Dorothy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Errol Cressor; Penny Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Greer; Karen Isabel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hunter; Judith Kathryn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas W. Johnson; Bruce James, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. MacPherson; William Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Reid; Sharon Fern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas S. Smith; Kenneth Paul, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher K. Stokes, and James Randall, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Carson Whelen.

Brian Cates, six month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cates, Markham Road, returned home this week from Sick Children's Hospital, Toronto, where he has been a patient for the past ten days with bronchial pneumonia.

Mrs. J. Arnold Price was the guest speaker at Trinity Church, Aurora, on Saturday last.

The occasion was the Little Helpers' party, when Mrs. Price spoke to the mothers on the use of flannelgraph for Christian teaching in the home.

Mrs. John Postlethwaite (Mrs. John of Eatons) returned on Thursday from a four day business trip to New York.

During her stay, combining business with pleasure, Mrs. Postlethwaite attended the Broadway production of "Luther" starring English actor Albert Finney.

Mrs. Jack Thomas was the guest of honour at a neighbourhood farewell party, held last week at the home of Mrs. K. N. Wallington, 235 Harrygan Crescent.

Mrs. Thomas, with her husband and children, David and Barbara, will be sailing on October 27, aboard the "S.S. Rotterdam" for Brussels, Belgium, where Mr. Thomas, who is employed by Standard Oil, has been transferred.

The family, who have been residents of the Hill for the past three years, will be greatly missed by their many friends, who wish them every success in their new home.

The Church of St. Gabriel was filled to capacity for the 3rd "Interest Sunday".

The ladies of the church are to be congratulated on their participation in the service and for the display of their various efforts to help in the work of the church.

Three parts of the W.A. were represented under the direction of their leaders, Mrs. Pat King, president of the W.A.; Mrs. Dorothy Price, president of the Friendship Circle, and Mrs. Vi Haggart, leader of the Junior Auxiliary. Mrs. Hilda Smith, president of the Chancel Guild, displayed the church embroidery on which the ladies are working.

At Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church on Sunday, October 20, Marion Christine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Macaulay, 81 Centre Street E. received the sacrament of baptism. She was also presented with a New Testament from the Sunday school.

A large number of relatives and friends attended the service, including several from Ireland who are visiting Richmond Hill.

A feature of the third annual fall bazaar of Our Lady Queen of the World Roman Catholic Church, was the very popular tea court. Winners of the three prizes were (1) 151, (2) 184, (3) 258. Holders of these tickets are Mrs. R. Carter, TU. 4-7150, or calling at 439 South Taylor Mills Drive.

The Church of St. Gabriel is very pleased to announce that the film "Martin Luther" will be shown at their church, next Sunday evening, October 27, at 7:15 p.m., as a joint endeavour by the Anglican and Lutheran congregations.

Everyone has heard of this film classic and will remember the long successful run it had in Toronto.

All people are welcome to come and join with them for a most enjoyable and beneficial evening.

Weekend visitors? Holidaying? Celebrating? Guests from overseas? These are the news items that comprise "Life in the Hill" — the service is free — just phone the social editor, Margot Crack, at TU. 4-1105, drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South, or call in personally, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

The Little Helpers of the Church of St. Gabriel held their annual party on Saturday last. The service preceding the party was most impressive, when 100 children ranging in age from young babies to seven years old, brought in their mite boxes and presented them in church.

Mrs. Alice O'Neil, Little Helpers' secretary, is to be commended for her work with the group, and the organization of their party.

Dr. Leslie Robb and Mrs. Robb of Toronto, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rabinowitch, Kerrybrook Drive, on Saturday last, later attending the Curtain Club production of "Angels in Love" and the Green Room party following the performance.

Mrs. Charles Bell, from Mid Calder, near Edinburgh, Scotland, left on Monday for New Brunswick, following a short stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Straumann, Bent Crescent.

During her holiday in Canada, Mrs. Bell is renewing many friendships — made before the war as an exchange teacher in Canada, and during the war years as a popular entertainer for Canadian troops.

A group of hungry and champagne-thirsty Dynes ballplayers found an oasis — not in the desert but at Peter Dines' restaurant on Yonge Street.

The Metro Major Fastball title in Richmond Hill. The boys, their wives and/or girlfriends, received free cokes and coffees and delicious hamburgers.

This was all courtesy of Gus Kleon, owner of Pete's restaurant, who believes in rewarding people for a job pretty well done. The champagne was pretty good, too. Thanks from the ball team goes out to Gus and his staff.

A small but very keenly interested group of volunteers met Thursday, October 17th, at Wrixon Hall, St. Mary's Anglican Church to discuss Richmond Hill's new White Cross Centre.

Dr. C. H. Jackson, psychiatrist of Oshawa White Cross Centre, and his wife, Katie, gave a very informal orientation of the work to be done. Afterwards many questions of the volunteers were answered by this engaging couple. A social hour followed with coffee being served.

This White Cross Centre is being sponsored by Canadian Mental Health Association, York County Branch.

Mrs. Victoria Wallace left on Monday to visit her grand-daughter Mrs. Nicholas Ignatoff (nee Cecilia Anderson) in Ottawa, where her husband is attached to the Dept. of Northern Affairs.

The many friends of Mr. Jack Shepherd, Elgin Mills Sideroad West, will be sorry to hear that he is in St. Michael's Hospital as a result of a coronary suffered last week.

Dr. Cameron Cowan, well known local physician who resides at Church Street North, is in Toronto General Hospital where he will undergo surgery. He was admitted Saturday.

Two young members of the Curtain Club, although not receiving public applause following performances of "Angels in Love" at the Curtain Club Theatre, were applauded verbally by director, cast and stage crew for their professional and efficient approach in handling stage props during rehearsals and run of the play.

Take a bow — Louise Monks and Sally Trot!

Numerous prizes and favours have been kindly donated by local merchants for the forthcoming annual dessert bridge and euchre, being held next Thursday, October 31, in the library auditorium, starting at 1:30 p.m. Proceeds will go to the special hospital fund.

Memo to members — the W.I. Area Convention is being held at the Royal York Hotel on November 6, 7 and 8, and Richmond Hill delegates Mrs. Ethel Hardwick and Mrs. Grace Sayers, would like as many members as possible to attend any or all of the sessions, commencing daily at 9:30 a.m.

The Jaycees Light Bulb campaign last Saturday was most successful, with full cooperation from the weather, the public, and canvassers.

Mr. Eric Clarke, chairman of the campaign, thanks the many residents of Richmond Hill for their wonderful support, and in addition, anyone not approached by the Jaycees who would like to purchase some of the bulbs, may call him at TU. 4-7020, and he will arrange for a representative to call.

Sixteen members of St. Mary's Evening Guild attended the October meeting in Wrixon Hall.

The meeting opened with prayer led by president, Marni Twidale. Business followed with secretary Elizabeth Hillia reading past minutes, and the constitution.

A nominating committee will meet this week to prepare a slate of officers to be presented at the November meeting. Discussion took place regarding the guild catering for a dinner in Wrixon Hall on October 22.

Plans for the bridge and euchre evening in Wrixon Hall on October 29 were finalized, prizes discussed and refreshments organized. The meeting was then adjourned and refreshments served.

The month of October has been a busy one indeed for members of Delta Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi.

They started the month with their fall rushing party, then on October 8th, a model meeting was held for the new pledges at the home of Mrs. Elsie Herdridge, 326 Paliser Crescent. The programme, "Environment, Health, Work and Play" was presented by Mrs. Bridie Killean and Mrs. Libby Henson in the form of a skit and was thoughtfully enjoyed by all.

On October 19th, members invited their husbands to the David Dunlap Observatory after which they returned to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Herridge for a cup of coffee and a piece of "anniversary cake". Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Smith celebrated their first wedding anniversary with them.

On October 20th, Delta Lambda held their preferential tea at the home of Mrs. Callie Israel, programme director, at 46 Crosby Street. Mrs. Jean Thomson, social sponsor and international honorary member of Beta Sigma Phi, poured tea.

At Monday's general meeting of the Curtain Club, held in the theatre at 25 Yonge Street North, under the chairmanship of President Dennis Stainer, the production crew of the last play to be presented, "Angels in Love", reported to the meeting on the great success of the play and its run.

A large turnout of club members was highly entertained by the guest speaker of the evening, Mrs. Dora Matthews, herself an accomplished actress, who, by means of beautifully photographed colour slides, taken by herself, conducted the meeting through a recently completed tour of the Soviet Union.

The meeting closed with a presentation of roses to Mrs. Matthews by Ernest Redelmeier, for her enjoyable and instructive description of her tour.

Refreshments were conveyed by Roz Anderson and Dorothy Brierley.

Mrs. Mary Lowe returned to her home in Kapuskasing on Monday following several weeks' convalescence at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Coughlin, Kerrybrook Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Maxwell, Kerrybrook Drive, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bert Garfield of Downsview, attended the Saturday evening performance of "The Girl Who Came to Supper" at the O'Keefe Centre.

Following the show they dined at the Ports of Call.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Walker, Kerrybrook Drive, were the guests of their sons, Brian and Bruce, on Tuesday when, in honour of their wedding anniversary, a surprise celebration was held at the Ports of Call. Mr. and Mrs. Walker were married 25 years ago on October 22nd.

"Birthday on Thursday" — "father's treat on Friday" (family of four to dinner at Yangtze Pagoda) — and "birthday party on Saturday" — provided a happy anniversary for Shelley Hutcheson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hutcheson, Leisure Lane. Shelley, who was eight years of age on October 17, had as party guests to a noon lunch on Saturday Elaine Rice, Kiera McNichol, Lynda Perdicaris, Colleen Wilson, (Anne Miner unable to be present), and brother Guy Hutcheson, who is aged six.

The lunch, complete with party favours and pink iced birthday cake, was enjoyed by all and was followed by the group being taken to the matinee showing of Walt Disney's "Horse With The Flying Tail".

With a busy season ahead, the Curtain Club Theatre is always a hive of activity — on Sunday morning, following the final curtain of "Angels in Love", the set was struck, stage props removed, dressing rooms cleared, and chairs stacked. During the afternoon, members were rehearsing for a studio performance, and in the evening, the November play "Ten Little Indians" was in full rehearsal.

For the next month, many eerie sounds may be heard emanating from the theatre — "Ten Little Indians" being a superlative mystery thriller, with suspense gaining momentum until the final curtain.

Directing the play is Dagmar Matyas, and sharing the lead roles are Elisabeth Jackson and a newcomer to the club — but not to the theatre — Derrick Miller.

Two prominent members of the Richmond Hill W. I. are at present on the sick list, and their many friends in the Hill wish them both a satisfactory convalescence.

Mrs. C. H. Sanderson, Centre Street East, is progressing favourably following surgery last week at Branson Hospital, and Mrs. Ethel Thompson, Richmond Street, is continuing to make good progress at East General Hospital.

The second meeting of the Allenbrae Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary was held last evening at the home of Mrs. G. W. Shaw.

Plans for the bazaar and bake sale to be held at the Allencourt Shopping Centre on November 29 were discussed at the short business meeting. Members then displayed various articles on which they have been working for this bazaar and for the hospital gift shop.

The next executive meeting will be an open meeting to be held in the United Church Hall at 8 p.m. on November 14 and all members are invited to attend.

The next meeting will be held on November 11 at the home of Mrs. G. Royston, 443 Bent Cres.

Last Saturday evening, Donna Cattermole, Ann Ross and Rosemary Ross threw a party in the form of a scavenger hunt. Winners of the hunt were Penny Wilson and David Smith, Lynn Jackson and John Madill.

Richmond Hill students made up most of the forty guests, but there were several from the rival school — Thornhill Secondary.

A bonfire in the garden, a dance on the driveway and an unsuccessful bunny hop down Yonge Street added to the fun.

Hot dogs, doughnuts and cider were enjoyed by all. Humour was supplied by John Perkins and Peter Hiscott.

"Route to Rhythm" — are dances held every second Saturday night — in the Lions Hall, conducted by a group of students attending Richmond Hill High School and Bayview Secondary School.

Their opening dance on October 12 proved a great success, highlighted by a popular group of singers known as "Count Five".

The next dance promoted by this group is scheduled for this Saturday, October 26, when a local group of entertainers — "Anthony and the Apollos" — will be featured.

These dances are open to the public, admission is $1.25 per person, and membership cards are available.

"Country Store" At Bazaar

One of the busiest spots at the annual bazaar held last Saturday in Our Lady, Queen of the World Roman Catholic Church on Bayview Avenue was the "country store" run by Mrs. P. Fraser and her staff. Here "The Liberal" camera caught Mrs. Anne Francis and Mrs. P. Loftus of Arnold Avenue making a stop for merchandise. It is the first bazaar held in the newly opened church building.
