

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Robin Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Beresford Anderson, Centre Street West, was presented as an Ontario Scholar at the Admission of Scholars ceremony held on Wednesday at Trinity College, Toronto.

It's difficult to realize that Christmas is only eight weeks away! Have you ordered your Christmas cards yet? Mrs. George Sweeney, 70 Highland Lane, (TU. 4-1273) once again has a full range of UNICEF cards and calendars on hand — help the world's less fortunate children this Christmas — call today!

The Couples Club of Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church held their October meeting in the form of a Halloween party in the church hall, which was decorated to suit the occasion. Everyone came in costume, with prizes awarded to Rosemary Bennett, Bob Shaw, Alex Russell and Art Broad. A variety of games was enjoyed under the leadership of Len and Helen Nesbit.

A short business meeting followed and lunch was served. The next meeting will be held on November 23, bowling at ABC Bowling Alley at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. D. Stephenson, Mrs. D. Plaxton, Mrs. Frank Southwell, Mrs. E. Plaxton Sr. and Mrs. Fred Hare, members of the York North Liberal Women's Association, attended the National Liberal Women's Association Convention held this week at the Chateau Laurier in Ottawa.

Highlights of the convention were, Monday, a luncheon held at the hotel with the Hon. Judy LaMarsh, Minister of National Health and Welfare as guest speaker; Mrs. Lester Pearson receiving members of the convention at her Ottawa home, and John Addison, member from York North, and Mrs. Addison entertaining the York North contingent at dinner in the Parliamentary Dining Room. Tuesday, a civic reception and luncheon held in the city hall, and Prime Minister Lester Pearson addressing the convention at a dinner at the Chateau Laurier. Wednesday, a luncheon held at the hotel, with Senator John Connolly Q.C. as guest speaker.

Also attending the convention were delegates Mrs. Ray Norton and Mrs. G. Kelly, from the Stouffville-Buttonville branch; Mrs. Brian Bailey, president of the Richvale branch, and two members of the York North Liberal Women's Association from Aurora, President Mrs. L. Kirkwood, and Mrs. Frank Underhill.

Mrs. Kate Aitken is the guiding force behind the Halloween UNICEF drive, and it's fantastic how the pennies add up.

Be sure to have some on hand on Halloween night, the children are so keen to help! Mrs. J. Bayley, Yonge Street North, who underwent surgery at Toronto General Hospital last week, is making good progress and is expected home very shortly.

His many friends in the Hill extend best wishes for a quick recovery.

Mrs. E. Redelmeier and Mrs. G. Walter, were the Y.C.H.A. delegates at the Ontario Hospital Auxiliaries Convention held this week at the Royal York Hotel.

Mrs. W. Finlay, gift shop convenor, displayed the many beautiful handmade articles that will be on sale in the York Central Hospital gift shop.

The ladies of Richmond Hill Curling Club held their opening luncheon October 24 at the club. New members were introduced and made welcome by the one hundred ladies present. Social Convenor Marguerite Moore and her committee received many compliments on the delicious smorgasbord served. An outline of the club's agenda was given by executive members.

On October 21, eleven members of the Presbyterian Church W.A. executive met at the home of the president Mrs. G. Carmichael, Driscoll Rd. Plans were discussed for the many booths at the annual bazaar to be held on November 23. There will be a fish pond to amuse the children while other shops, then everyone can relax in the tea-room where as an added attraction the pretty aprons worn by the waitresses will be sold.

The October meeting of the ladies section of the Progressive Conservative Association of Richmond Hill was held at 108 Leventdale Dr. on October 23.

Mrs. S. Lucas opened the meeting and then requested Mrs. Jean Moffat, vice-president of York North Riding to occupy the chair during the election of officers for the year 1963-64. The following officers were subsequently elected: Mrs. Sadie Lucas, president; Mrs. Ellen Capotosto, vice-president; Mrs. Terry Boreham, secretary; Mrs. Jane Williams, treasurer; Convenors, Mrs. Bertha E. Bettles, publicity; Mrs. Florence Davis, social; Mrs. Madeline Jarvis, sunshine and Mrs. Alice O'Neil, membership.

Mrs. V. Forsstrom, Elgin Mills, left last week for a five week holiday in Finland.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Wright, Robert and Marilyn returned from Lindsay, Ontario, where they attended the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. Wright's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Wright.

The bride and groom of 50 years were honoured by a large gathering of friends and relatives at an "open house" held in their home.

The W. A. of the Church of St. Gabriel met on October 22 with twenty-four members present. Mrs. Pat King presided, and it was decided to hold elections for officers on November 12.

All hands were busy on the last stages of finishing off articles for the Hollyberry Fair which will be held on November 2.

The Library Club of Richmond Hill High School and the Richmond Hill Films for children are presenting their second program of the 1963-64 series on Saturday at 10 a.m. in the Richmond Hill High School Auditorium.

The feature film "Trapped by the Terror" is an adventure story set against the background of the French Revolution. This is one of the few costume films made by the Children's Film Foundation — the theme being "family affection." Children will enjoy the historical reconstruction, and 6-12 year olds will find nothing frightening in this film. Also the second episode of the serial "Mystery in the Mine".

Season tickets will be available at the door. For non-ticket holders 25c admission.

C.G.I.T. News

At the October 16 meeting of the C.G.I.T., four new leaders were welcomed into the group. They were, Mrs. A. Bales, Mrs. W. Lekx, Miss E. Bain and Mrs. B. Armstrong.

On Wednesday the junior girls were given their C.G.I.T. pins in an initiation ceremony held in the chapel. The executive were given their maple leaves, symbolizing the office they hold. The presidents, secretaries and treasurers of the individual groups also received maple leaves. The groups which accomplished all necessary assignments for last year received a chevron.

After the ceremony, the senior girls served refreshments to the mothers.

At the Richmond Hill United Church tea and bake sale held this Saturday, the C.G.I.T. girls will be selling calendars and assisting in the cloakroom.

The Charles Howitt School Association held a Halloween dance on Friday last in the Lion's Hall.

There were about 180 people present in a variety of clever, funny and elaborate costumes. Among the winners of costume prizes were: 1st, Art and Betty Jellieco from Newmarket — Green Martians; 2nd, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hall and party — Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs; 3rd, George and Eileen Hislop — Red Riding Hood and the Wolf; 4th, Herb and Glad Curtin — Little Lord Fauntleroy and partner.

Music was supplied by the Continentals, a local dance band, and through the auspices of Dagmar Matyas, the Curtain Club presented skits at intermission.

The excellent decorations were done by a committee headed by Bill Draper, Michael Matyas and Bill Poole. The grade 8 students from Charles Howitt contributed some cut-outs. The dance committee was Bill Draper, Keith Hall, Norm Mabey and Michael Matyas. Prizes were donated by local merchants for prizes and spot dances.

The Duffert family will be among the first nighters this Friday attending the Avant-Garde Players production of "A Night of Farce" in the basement theatre of St. Mary's Anglican Church.

Next Sunday, November 3, there will be two special family services at the Church of St. Gabriel — 9:30 a.m. for parents and children of the senior church school, and 11 a.m. for the parents and children of the junior church school.

The 4th Richmond Hill Cub and Scout Mothers Auxiliary held their first meeting of the fall season at the home of Mrs. Ruth Binkley, Mill Street on October 15.

After a short business meeting, all present enjoyed taking part in a penny auction. Coffee was served by the hostess.

Witches, pirates, goblins and ghosts are but a few of the frightening characters around the streets on Halloween — many make this day an excuse for partying, using their loot as part of the refreshments. Let us know about your Halloween celebrations, give us a call at TU. 4-1105, drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South, or drop in personally, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

Guest speaker at the October meeting of the University Women's Club held at Kingcraft House, King City, on Monday evening was Mrs. Kay Riddell of Toronto. Mrs. Riddell heads a service known as friendly relations with overseas students. Sponsored by the University of Toronto, it enables Canadian students there to meet students from other countries for lunch, discussions and social get-togethers.

The Inner Wheel of the Richmond Hill Rotary Club held their first fall bridge on Wednesday last, at the home of Mrs. Don Beaumont, 332 Richmond Street.

There were prizes for each table, also a lucky draw for the bridge, won by Thelma Long. The raffle prize, a beautiful pin, donated by Mrs. Beaumont, was won by Helen Parr.

The next bridge in the series will be held on November 27 at the same address.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Huntley, Judge Court, Mr. Fred Simpson, Lorne Avenue, Miss Anne Smellie, Anzac Crescent and Mr. Bill Gerry of Weston were among guests at the Aurora Armouries' officers' mess last Friday to meet the Queen's York Rangers commanding officer, Lt. Col. John I. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston of King.

The party later attended a Halloween dance at the Graystones restaurant.

Last Sunday was the scene of a huge gathering at the Church of St. Gabriel for the showing of the film "Martin Luther".

This was a joint endeavour with the Lutheran and Anglican congregation, and the response was far beyond expectations as every available space in the church was taken.

Everyone departed feeling they had not only spent an enjoyable evening, but learned a great deal about the background of their church.

The "Friends and Books" club was recently entertained at a dessert luncheon by Mrs. Mayne D. McTaggart, 375 Tynewine Lane.

Miss Ina McCauley reviewed two books by R. Braithwaite — "Paid Servant" involving his difficulties as a colored teacher in an East London school, and "To Serve With Love" as a welfare worker among colored children.

He is now lecturing in Paris, and engaged in writing his first novel.

Mary Ingles, hair stylist, is now on a staff of Chez Pauline House of Beauty.

Visiting around town last week was Robert Munroe, a former student of Richmond Hill High School, now living in London.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Paton, Driscoll Road, are Mrs. Paton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. Grosvalet from Montreal.

Also visiting over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. John Baatz from Niagara Falls.

The 4th "Interest Sunday" at the Church of St. Gabriel, featured the Boy Scouts, Cubs, Guides and Brownies, who paraded to church for the 11 a.m. service.

The special speaker was District Scout Commissioner R. W. Southorp.

The AOTS Men's Club of the Richmond Hill United Church will be holding a supper meeting on November 20. The speaker will be Mr. K. Komuro, Consul of Japan, topic of address "The New Japan".

The next communion service at the Richmond Hill United Church will be held on December 1st.

Anyone who is not a member of the congregation is invited to transfer or to join on profession of faith.

Moving into the Hill on November 1st, is a branch of the National Conservatory of Music, who will have studios at 87 Yonge Street North. They will specialize in the teaching of keyboard and string instruments.

The transaction was handled by T. Murphy, Realtor.

The following children received the sacrament of baptism at services held recently at the Richmond Hill United Church.

Judith Kathryn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kurt L. Jeppesen; Lori Kim, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas W. Johnson; Sharon Fern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Russell, and Scott Hamilton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas S. Smith.

EDWARD D. HILL

Opens Law Office

Mr. Hill has announced the opening of a law office at 15 Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill. He is a member of one of Richmond Hill's old families and is the son of Mrs. Jean Hill and the late Lloyd Hill. Mr. Hill is a graduate of local public and high schools.

The enterprising members of the Aurora Drama Workshop are planning yet another fund raising evening in aid of their new theatre.

On November 22, a dance is being held at the Greystones in Aurora, Paul Kemp and his Orchestra supplying the music. Tickets at $3.50 per couple and $2 single, may be obtained by calling 884-4355.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. F. Martin, Oak Ave., Richvale, are happy to announce the engagement of their daughter, Margaret Helen, to Mr. William Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hunter, 136 Hope St., Toronto. Date of wedding to be announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harley Smith of Stouffville wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Irene, to Mr. Ernest James Abraham, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Ernest Abraham of Stouffville. The marriage will take place on Saturday, November 23rd, in the Stouffville United Church at 4 p.m. *1w18

Mr. and Mrs. David Boyd of 6 Lancer Drive, Maple, Ont., take pleasure in announcing the engagement of their daughter, Sandra Diane Jean, to Walter Winkler, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Winkler, of Maple, Ont.

An Irish folk dancing group is being formed - anyone interested in joining, please call Tu. 4-3802 after 6 p.m.

A group of members from the Richmond Hill W.I. attended the annual bazaar and tea held last Saturday at the Thornhaven School for Retarded Children.

"We dye for our customers" — what better service could you get! So reads the signs outside "Barth's Cleaners" in Aurora. We hope its applicable to the Richmond Hill store too!

Welcome to new residents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Berry, who have recently moved from Bridlebrook Farm, Concord, and have taken up residence at 26 Elgin Mills Sideroad.

Country Commissioner Floyd Perkins and Mrs. Perkins, and the Hon. Judge George Sweeney and Mrs. Sweeney, will be among the head table guests at the York County Warden's banquet, this Friday at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto.

The many friends of Dr. Cameron Cowan, Church Street North, will be pleased to hear that he is making good progress following surgery on Monday at the Toronto General Hospital.

Dr. Cowan thanks all who have sent cards and flowers to the hospital, and for the kindness extended to Mrs. Cowan.

The Sunday school conducted by the Christian and Missionary Alliance, held at 202 Zeldia Crescent, is now in its second year, with increasing membership proving the initial challenge.

The Christian and Missionary Alliance Church is an Evangelical fellowship with over three quarters of a century of world service.

At last Thursday's meeting of the Friendship Circle of the Church of St. Gabriel, exercises were conducted by Jean Carter, and a new member Mrs. R. Green and children, were welcomed to the group. Bazaar novelties are nearing completion, and it is hoped that the drapes will soon be ready for the church bazaar.

Prizewinners at the most successful annual bazaar Saturday in aid of Thornhaven School for Retarded Children, included rug, Mrs. James Pollard, 55 Church Street, Richmond Hill; cake, Mrs. B. Barrett, Concord; doll and wardrobe, Miss Heather Morby, 50 Cartier Crescent; tea court door prizes, Mrs. J.D. McGhee of Thornhill, G. Gunter of Willowdale, Mrs. Violet Watts of 24 Elka Drive and Mrs. N. Mele of Thornhill.

Next Sunday at St. Mary's Anglican Church the rector will dedicate the "Intention Cards" signed by those who responded to the visitation-in-reverse. By meetings, mailing and visiting, parishioners have been asked to support the expansion programme of the parish. All those who have not yet responded are asked to do so by Sunday. A progress report will also be given.

York Central Hospital Board of Trustees was well represented at the annual convention of the Ontario Hospital Association in Toronto this week.

Among those in attendance were chairman of the board Douglas H. Storms, trustees Mrs. F. C. Jackson, Don C. Stewart, James Reyercraft, Dr. H. Hethrington, auxiliary president Mrs. Ruth Miller and Administrator G. J. Chaffield.

The rector of St. Mary's Anglican Church, the Rev. James O'Neil and his family moved this week into the new rectory at 100 Arnold Street.

This is the first major step in the long range building programme of this active parish. The plans call for the new church to be erected on the site of the old rectory with the old church remaining as chapel and children's church.

The October meeting of the Richmond Hill Chapter of the I.O.O.F. was held at the home of Mrs. J. Ashworth.

Mr. Williams of the St. John Ambulance gave a most interesting talk and demonstrated some methods of life saving.

The Richmond Hill Chapter took great pleasure in presenting two book awards - to Roxanne Louw of Bayview Secondary School, and to Barry Aldred of Richmond Hill High School for their excellent standing in history. These awards were presented on Wednesday by Mrs. J. Ashworth, the chapter's educational secretary.

The next monthly meeting will be held on the first Monday of November at the home of Mrs. R. B. Deschamps.

New Business On Yonge Street

Proprietor Bing Lew smiles happily while Mayor William Neal cuts the ribbon to mark the official opening of the new Town Inn Take-Out Service, next door to the restaurant of the same name. His son, Fon Lew, will manage the new enterprise is a happy onlooker.

Bing Lew, is one of Richmond Hill's most respected citizens and is known far beyond the town limits for his good works. His son, Fon, grew up in Richmond Hill where he attended public and high school and made a host of friends.

The community extends best wishes for success to the father and son team.

LIBERAL CLASSIFIEDS-Get Results-TU.4-1105

SALES - SERVICE - RENTALS

L. H. SIMS

Typewriters - Adding Machines
Your Office Machine Specialist
88 Baker Ave., Richmond Hill
See Portable Models at
"Wight's Pharmacy"
Day or Evenings, TU. 4-1745

All popular makes on hand
Special Students' Rates

ELGIN MILLS GENERAL STORE

YONGE ST. NORTH AT ELGIN MILLS

SPECIAL NOTICE

For Your Shopping Convenience

STORE HOURS-7 a.m. to 11 p.m.

SUNDAY 9 a.m. to 11 p.m.

Free Delivery

On All Orders $3.00 And Over

CALL TU. 4-5155

ANNOUNCING THE OPENING

ADAMO'S HAIR STYLIST

51 YONGE STREET NORTH

Open For Appointments

Specializing In All Styles

PHONE 884-3354

FREE PARKING

Good eating AT SAVINGS!

LEAN MEATY SIDE

Spare Ribs lb. 55¢

Minced Beef 3 lb. 95¢

Bologna IN THE PIECE lb. - 25¢

SLICED

Cooked Ham lb. 99¢

CUT & WRAPPED FOR YOUR FREEZER

Hinds Of Beef lb. 49¢

C. NELS GAGE

BAYVIEW PLAZA TU. 4-7691

DEREK MILLER

ELISABETH JACKSON

Two Of Ten Little Indians

They got married and then there were none! Two attractive characters from "Ten Little Indians", the Richmond Hill Curtain Club's second production of the season scheduled for November 20 to 23 and 27 to 30 are debonair Derek Miller and lovely Elisabeth Jackson. The Agatha Christie thriller features a large cast of local thespians and is directed by Dagmar Matyas.

HANS HOFMANN

The Continental Hair Stylist

Is Pleased

To Announce The Opening

OF HIS BEAUTY SALON

ON FRIDAY NOVEMBER 1

At 13 Yonge Street South

RICHMOND HILL

Next to Woolworths

Opening Special:

10% Discount On Any Permanent

From Monday To Thursday Till November 14

For Appointments Call: 884-5892

SCOTTY'S VARIETY

78 Yonge St. S.

Opening

Friday, Nov. 1

8.30 A.M.

First Coffee Free

Opening Day

Wright & Taylor

CHAPEL OF PIPHER FUNERAL HOME LIMITED

Established 1878

Phone 285-1073 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill

OPENING SOON

GEORGE'S CASH & CARRY

Wholesale Groceries

FOR THE GENERAL PUBLIC

20 Yonge St. South Opposite Woolworths