

MR. AND MRS. NICHOLAS IGNATIEFF

To Reside In Ottawa

In an October afternoon ceremony at Trinity College Chapel, with Rev. J. F. O'Neil officiating, Cecilia Beresford Anderson, oldest daughter of Mr. & Mrs. J. Beresford Anderson of Richmond Hill became the bride of Nicholas Ignatieff, only son of Mr. Nicholas Ignatieff of Toronto.

The bride entered the chapel to a Handel aria sung by Miss Miranda Davies. She wore a white Empire gown with a mantilla of Spanish lace and carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis. The bridesmaids her sisters Robin, Deborah and Eden, followed in jewel blue Empire gowns, carrying white nosegays. The groomsmen were Miles Godfrey and the ushers were Paul and Michael Ignatieff, cousins of the groom. The reception was held at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Ross Anderson in Lawrence Park, where Mr. Robertson Davies gave the toast to the bride. Both the bride and groom are graduates of Trinity College and are residing in Ottawa where the groom is attached to the Department of Northern Affairs.

Bingo!
Last weeks winner of the bingo at Our Lady Queen of the World Hall were: Share the Wealth $22, Mrs. D. Kelly, Centre Street; Jackpot $50, joint winners, Mrs. J. Corbett, South Taylor Mills, Mrs. H. Burnett, 16th and Bayview Avenue; Chop Suey, joint winners, Mrs. M. T. Papworth, Becker Road, Mrs. N. Mason, Osiris Drive; Lollipop, split four ways. Join the bingo enthusiasts every Wednesday, starting time 8 p.m. sharp.

Keep our "Life in the Hill" columns up to date with your news — the service is free — call the Social Editor Margot Crack at TU. 4-1105, drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South, or call in personally, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

A. J. Saunders of Hi-Tom Kennels, R.R. 1 Richmond Hill; Emilia Maznevski, 9104 Yonge Street; and Robert Adams, Keele Street, Maple were winners of dolls which were prizes in a draw at the opening of George's Cash & Carry, last Saturday.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Separate School Trustee Con Thompson, Lynett Crescent, on the death of his mother, Mrs. Josephine Marie Thompson of Toronto, who passed away on Saturday, November 16. Requiem high mass was sung on Wednesday at Canadian Martyrs Church, East York, followed by interment at Mount Hope Cemetery.

The Yuletide Treasure Sale sponsored by the W.A. of Thornhaven School for Retarded Children, is being held this Saturday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at Morgan Hall, Markham Shopping Centre.

Convener of the event is Mrs. J. Elliott of Willowdale, in charge of the tea court, Mrs. R. Nugent; bake table, Mrs. Percy Schell of Stouffville.

There will be a free draw at the door, also a draw on a doll and wardrobe and boy's tractor. Among the many articles on sale for Christmas giving will be children's toys, Christmas decorations, dolls, clothes, handicrafts and small items of furniture.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stephens were guests on Saturday night at the Arts and Letters Club of Toronto for the closing banquet of the Canadian Composers Clinic sponsored by the Canadian Music Centre under the direction of John Adaskin.

For one week, fifteen Canadian composers toured the Toronto public and high schools with the various school music supervisors in the first move of this kind to introduce a better type of music for the school choirs, bands and orchestras. Among the composers were Harry Friedman a recent resident of Richmond Hill, Harry Somers, Canada's leading contemporary composer, William McCauley of the O'Keefe Centre, Norman Symonds, the contemporary jazz exponent and others.

On the final Saturday Ray Stephens was the host for the noon luncheon to the composers, educators and musicologists. This was part of the music publishers' contribution towards week's activities and the luncheon was sponsored by the Frederick Harris Music Publishing Company.

The final evening's attendance included such notable names in Canadian music as Dr. Healy Willan, John Weinzweig, Keith Bissell, Robert Fleming, Boyd Neel, Arnold Walters, Lawton Bird, Murray Adaskin, and many others active in Canadian music life.

LIFE IN THE HILL

Editor Margot Crack

Mr. J. Thibert, a former Richmond Hill resident, was in town for the weekend, renewing old acquaintances.

Mrs. E. Midmer, 247 Browndale Crescent, returned to her home on Sunday following two weeks stay in Branson Hospital.

Her many friends extend every good wish for a successful convalescence.

Mrs. H. Rankin, May Avenue, was one of the lucky winners in a national supermarket competition. She was presented with a $100 cheque by the manager of the local branch, having obtained the necessary numbers and answered a general knowledge question.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gray, of Parkhill, called on Miss Mary Dawson Saturday evening on their way to Hawaii for a week's vacation.

The Grays were members of a party of 130 General Electric dealers and wives who were area winners in a recent sales contest.

Lieutenant-Governor Earl Rowe, Mrs. Rowe, and Wing Commander Allanworth and Mrs. Allanworth were recent guests at the Yangtze Pagoda.

Mrs. J. Arnold Price, Deary Little Helpers Secretary and member of the Church of St. Gabriel, was guest speaker November 14 at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Woodstock. Her topics were "The History of the Little Helpers" and "The Child and the Church."

The 1st Richmond Hill Scout and Cub Mothers Auxiliary held their monthly meeting at the Scout hall on November 13. At the business meeting it was suggested that the "Bring and Buy" box be started again. It would be appreciated if members would please donate small articles. New members welcomed recently were Mrs. Helen Lee and Mrs. Mona Bell.

Thirteen members later enjoyed bowling at the A. B. C. Bowling Alley.

MRS. PHYLLIS HAWKES

Candidate Ward 2

A resident of Richmond Hill for the past 18 years, Mrs. Hawkes has for the past five years been on the clerical staff of the Department of Lands and Forests, at Maple. A candidate for council, Mrs. Hawkes says that should she be elected, she plans to devote her whole time to council work, and will retire from business.

R. H. Senior Citizens
The Senior Citizens met on November 13 in the Christian Education Building of the Richmond Hill United Church with 132 present.

"O Canada" was sung, followed by prayer of remembrance and thanksgiving, and Psalm reading by Pastor A. Myers. President E. Lomax welcomed the gathering, including visitors and new members. Minutes and the treasurer's report were read, and both accepted. Mrs. A. Marsden, convener, reported that plans were finalized for the bazaar to be held on Saturday, Mrs. G. Powell spoke of her crusade for better education of children over seven years — personal cleanliness, and teaching against use of drugs, liquor and smoking. Mr. Lomax and Mrs. Mona Robertson reported on their meeting with council re low rental apartments, and are hopeful that before too long some action will be made, as there were numerous applicants for same. Mr. A. Marsden reminded members that the tour of the town Christmas lights will be held on December 17 at 7 p.m. Mrs. W. Hodges provincial secretary of Ontario Senior Citizens, bought greetings and spoke of the value to Senior Citizen Clubs in forming a zone, and congratulated the members on the working of the club. Mrs. D. Brown has taken over the transportation duties. Mr. Lomax presented Mrs. R. Miller with a cheque to purchase a wheel chair for use in the York Central Hospital. The money was raised by members through euchre. Entertainment was provided by the Rhythm Band.

The next meeting is a Christmas party, each member to bring a small gift for exchange. A most enjoyable afternoon closed with a social half hour.

Late Ella McLean
The death occurred in Toronto on November 10 of Ella McLean, for many years superintendent of nurses at Toronto East General Hospital and the last surviving member of one of the old and respected families of this district.

Born in Vaughan Township the late Miss McLean trained at Toronto Western Hospital and devoted her life to a successful career in the nursing profession in which she won outstanding esteem and recognition.

She was predeceased by her one brother and three sisters. The late James McLean was a widely known farmer a sold champion plowman who sold the Yonge Street family farm to E. T. Stephens and retired to Richmond Hill where he was for many years active in community life. She was also predeceased by three sisters Mrs. George Harding, Mary McLean and Elizabeth McLean, who also lived their lives in this community.

The late Miss Ella McLean retired about ten years ago and had been ill for a long time. The funeral service was followed by cremation and the ashes were interred in the family plot at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Cemetery.

Mrs. Hilda Munslow and Miss Elizabeth Arriotti of Pointe Claire, Quebec, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gil Clubine, Markham Road.

Among the regular visitors at the Royal Winter Fair this week are Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Redelmeier and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Redelmeier of Don Head Farms.

The "Luck of the Scots" — was evidenced recently — when the 1st prize, an F.M. radio, was won on the same day that the partners, M. Sdames Milligan and Sutherland opened up their new variety store, — "Scotty's Variety" — at 78 Yonge Street South.

The lucky draw was made by Mayor William Neal, at the Richmond Hill T.V. store.

December 7 — is now only 16 days away — the Saturday that the annual Christmas Bazaar of the R. W. A. St. Mary's Anglican Church, will open at 2 p.m. in Wrixon Hall.

The conveners advise that this year, in addition to their usual full range of aprons, hand woven and knitted articles, remnants, etc., many new innovations will be featured, making excellent gifts for Christmas or other occasions.

Members of the Dynes Jewellers Softball Team, holders of the Ontario Intermediate "A" and Metro Major Fastball 1963 Championships, and their wives were honoured at a dinner and dance at the Graystones, Aurora, Saturday night. Host for the party was Mr. Vern Dynes, sponsor of the team.

During the evening Mr. Dynes presented Coach Russ "Casey" Cripps with a watch, in appreciation of his good work with the team this year, which led to the winning of two championships. Mr. Cripps then presented each member of the team with tie tacks.

Adults and children alike enjoy a Christmas pantomime — this year the Cur-ain Club are presenting the favourite of them all — "Cinderella."

For the first time this is to be presented in the theatre, rear 25 Yonge Street North, with six evening performances on December 27, 28, 29, January 2, 3, 4, and two matinees on December 28th and January 4.

Tickets are already available and orders being taken — don't disappoint the children, plan your Christmas entertainment early by calling Mrs. J. Miller at Tu. 4-4190 today!

Late Ella McLean
The death occurred in Toronto on November 10 of Ella McLean, for many years superintendent of nurses at Toronto East General Hospital and the last surviving member of one of the old and respected families of this district.

Born in Vaughan Township the late Miss McLean trained at Toronto Western Hospital and devoted her life to a successful career in the nursing profession in which she won outstanding esteem and recognition.

She was predeceased by her one brother and three sisters. The late James McLean was a widely known farmer a sold champion plowman who sold the Yonge Street family farm to E. T. Stephens and retired to Richmond Hill where he was for many years active in community life. She was also predeceased by three sisters Mrs. George Harding, Mary McLean and Elizabeth McLean, who also lived their lives in this community.

The late Miss Ella McLean retired about ten years ago and had been ill for a long time. The funeral service was followed by cremation and the ashes were interred in the family plot at Richmond Hill Presbyterian Cemetery.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Leno, Leisure Lane, who celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary on November 15. A family gathering in their honour was held at their home on Sunday.

The ladies who worked so hard to make their third annual bazaar of Our Lady Queen of the World parish such a successful event, gathered together recently for a relaxing evening at the home of Mrs. W. Daley Windhurst Gate.

Ideas were exchanged that may be of help to next year's conveners, and Mrs. H. O'Toole, C.W.L. president, made a presentation to the general convener, Mrs. J. McArthur.

Lunch was served by Mrs. Daley.

The annual Richmond Hill Senior Citizens bazaar held on Saturday was opened by Mrs. William Neal, who, following her address, was presented with a large bouquet of flowers by Mrs. J. P. Wilson.

The tea tables under the direction of Mrs. J. Sheahan and committee were very attractive and pouring tea were Mrs. E. Lomax, Mrs. J. P. Wilson, Director Mrs. Mona Robertson and Mrs. M. Thomson.

The display of goods represented many hours of work by the members, and included baked goods, Christmas decorations, handicraft, aprons, knitted goods, novelties and white elephants. Quilts were on display which had been made at the day centre, one of which, along with a painting, are prizes for a draw to be held on December 11.

Of great interest to the many who attended the bazaar, was an interesting array of hobbies and paintings done by the senior citizens, displaying the many talents of the local members.

Convening the bazaar was Mrs. A. Marsden and her committee, who are to be congratulated on the success of the event.

The Senior Citizens express their sincere appreciation to the many who patronized the bazaar, for assistance given, and for the many contributions.

Fellow thespians, The Aurora Drama Workshop, are holding a Cleopatra's Ball this Friday at the Graystones, Aurora. Music for ballroom and square dancing, will be provided by Doug Kemp and his band, and refreshments available.

All proceeds are in aid of a new theatre — support this enterprising group — tickets at $3.50 a couple may be obtained by calling TU. 4-4855.

Mrs. W. S. Thomson attended a reception on Monday evening, given by the president of C.O.D.L. and the regional representative to D.D.F., in honour of the Honourable J. Keiller MacKay, Miss Vida Peck and Mr. Richard MacDonald. It was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hogg, Domino Court, Toronto.

ROGER PROULX

Ward 2 Candidate

A resident of Richmond Hill for the past 11 years, Mr. Proulx will seek the Ward 2 council seat in the coming election. A resident of 62 Crosby Avenue, he is self employed in the plumbing and heating business. He has three children.

AFTER HOURS Emergency Prescription Service

One of the Many Services of
ALLENCOURT PHARMACY LIMITED
WM. C. LAZENBY, B.Sc., Phm.
ALLENCOURT CENTRE, RICHMOND HILL

When your physician leaves a needed prescription late at night, call or have your physician call directly to
TU. 4-4683 TU. 4-7204

Your prescription will be called for, filled, and returned to you without delay and AT NO EXTRA CHARGE.

DURING THE DAY (9 a.m. - 9 p.m.)
Call TU. 4-4461 for the same quick service.

Mrs. V. Wallace, mother of Mrs. J. Beresford Anderson, Centre Street West, left on Wednesday to spend the winter months in Jamaica.

Richmond Hill W.I.

The November meeting was held in the library auditorium, Wright Street, with forty members responding to the Roll Call query "Should November 11 be a school holiday?" It was the unanimous opinion that all schools remain open, and a memorial service be held at 11 a.m.

Mrs. A. Lander and her committee convened the meeting on "Citizenship and Education". Mrs. G. Irwin introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Gordon McIntyre, superintendent of Richmond Hill public schools. Mrs. Annette Wintjes, native of Holland, and presently a member of the library staff, spoke on citizenship.

Mrs. Ethel Hardwick and Mrs. Grace Sayers each gave excellent comprehensive reports of their attendance as delegates to the Central Ontario Area Convention of Federated Women's Institutes, held recently at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

President Mrs. J. Dewsbury expressed her thanks to the members who helped to make the card party such a success, socially and financially.

The meeting closed with the usual social half hour during which refreshments were served.

The December 12 meeting will be the Christmas celebration, when members are asked to bring gifts suitable for residents of York Manor Hospital, Newmarket.

The Lodge Cavendish of the Daughters of England recently held a draw for a painting, the winning ticket No. 214, being held by Karen Bennett, 187 Connaught Ave., Willowdale.

A cheque for $100, proceeds from the draw, was presented on Monday by President Mrs. E. Bell to the Thornhaven School for Retarded Children.

Prior to her departure on November 16 for Nigeria, Africa, to join her husband, Mrs. Basil Munsey was honoured at a luncheon on Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. E. N. Mann, 215 Norfolk Avenue, Richmond Hill. Mrs. Munsey has been on the staff of the Richmond Hill Co-operative Nursery for the past year and a half, and guests at the luncheon were other members of the staff.

Mrs. Munsey was also honoured by the girls of the 1st Richmond Hill Girl Guide Company with the gift of a silver pin. Mrs. Munsey had provided leadership for "his group" for some time.

WILLOWDALE — Empress Avenue threatened to erect a "buggy barricade" to indicate their concern over traffic changes on the avenue. They fear the changes might create further danger to children.

Annual CHRISTMAS BAZAAR
DECEMBER 7
St. Mary's Anglican Church
Sr. W. A. — Wrixon Hall
2.00 p.m.

SALES · SERVICE · RENTALS
L. H. SIMS
Typewriters - Adding Machines
Your Office Machine Specialist
88 Baker Ave., Richmond Hill
See Portable Models at
"Wight's Pharmacy"
Day or Evenings, TU. 4-1745
All popular makes on hand
Special Students' Rates

Wright & Taylor
CHapel of
PIPher FunERal Home
LIMITED
Established 1878
Phone 285-1073 126 Yonge St. N., Richmond Hill

Good eating AT SAVINGS!
Wing Steaks lb. 59¢
Minced Beef 3 lbs. 95¢
GRADE A, 3-3½ LB. AVERAGE
Frying Chickens lb. 39¢
SLICED
Cooked Ham lb. 97¢
SLICED
Bacon Ends 3 lbs. $1.00
C. NELS GAGE
BAYVIEW PLAZA TU. 4-7691

HANS HOFMANN
The Continental Hair Stylist
Is Pleased TO ANNOUNCE THAT HIS BEAUTY
SALON
IS NOW
OPEN
AT 13 YONGE STREET SOUTH
RICHMOND HILL
Next to Woolworths
OPENING SPECIAL:
10% Discount On Any Permanent
From Mon. To Thurs. Till November 29
For Appointments Call:
884-5892

SHIELDS Footwear
FEATURES
White Uniform Shoes
By
Naturalizer.
Revolutionary
New Wondersole.
Lets you rest your feet
while you're standing
$14.99
Come in for complete details
OTHER PATTERNS
FROM $8.98
SHIELDS Footwear
FINE FOOTWEAR FOR THE FAMILY
Richmond Heights Centre
South Block 884-5341

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED to attend the ANNUAL BANQUET
of the Richmond Hill Horticultural Society
Yangtze Pagoda
Tuesday, December 3 — 6.30 p.m.
SPEAKER: G. ROY FENWICK
Supervisor of Music Toronto Schools
Tickets $2.50 RSVP — 884-1064