Treasures For Early Shoppers

Early Christmas shoppers flocked to the bazaar of Christmas treasures sponsored by King City United Church women last weekend. There were tables full of appropriate gifts, many of them made by the women. "The Liberal" camera from its vantage point on the steps leading to the hall caught some of the crowd taking advantage of the many gift possibilities.

Mrs. George Hatley was chosen vice-president; Mrs. Harold Clapp, treasurer; Mrs. Kenneth Atkinson, secretary; Mrs. Bertam Brazier, Dorcas secretary; Mrs. Harry Goulding, educational secretary; Mrs. Alex Currie, Little Helpers' secretary; Mrs. Robert Walker, social convener; and Mrs. George Armstrong, social service convener.

Arrival
Mr. and Mrs. George Hatley of R. R. 3 King, are celebrating the arrival of 7 lb. 9 ounce Kerry Elizabeth at York County Hospital, Newmarket.
The baby is a sister for seven-year-old Wendy and four-year-old Drew, and a granddaughter for Mrs. George Hatley and Mr. and Mrs. Jack MacDonald of Kettleby.

Home and School Panel
A symposium on the question "Is it worth the effort?" was presented by panel members Mrs. Lorne Scott, Mrs. Charles Ormsby, Mr. Kenneth Chesney and Mr. Donald Van Alstyne at last week's meeting of King City Home and School Association.
Mrs. Greta Noble, president of the York-Simcoe Home and School Council acted as moderator when parents and teachers met in Eva L. Dennis School. The choir from Doris M. Patton School sang.

Little Helpers' Party
The Little Helpers of All Saints' Anglican Church, the children up to seven years, offered their mite boxes to help other children around the world, at an annual service and party.
Rev. E. H. Costigan led the service in the chapel when 32 youngsters brought their offerings forward. Some 80 Little Helpers are enrolled, many of them infants.

Seventeen mothers present had refreshments of cookies, tarts and tea.
The children took home mite boxes for saving their offerings for next year's gathering.
Laskay Euchres
At the opening euchre sponsored by Laskay Women's Institute, prizes were won by Tom Walker, Marshall McMurchy, Paul McMahon, Mrs. Gec. Mrs. Hugh O'Brien and Mrs. Effie Bath.
Mrs. Norman MacMurchy, Mrs. Norman Etheridge and Mrs. Charles Black were in charge of the party of six and a half tables. Refreshments were provided by the ladies present.
Next euchre was scheduled for December 6 in Laskay Hall.

Buffet Supper Dance
The buffet supper and dance held in Sacred Heart School auditorium was considered "a big success" by the Catholic Women's League, which welcomed 110 guests.
Tables had been arranged to accommodate small and large parties. A bouquet of autumn coloured mums decorated the buffet table, where guests helped themselves to turkey, ham, tossed salads, cole slaw, potato salad in molds, rolls and relishes, apple pie and coffee.
Cohn Wyatt's quartet from Willowdale provided music for dancing. Charles Ludlow of Bennett Drive won the door prize and Mrs. Jack Turner of Martin Street, the draw for a tray.
Spot dance gifts went to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walsh of Toronto, Mrs. Al Dalrymple of Aurora, Mrs. Don Coughlin, Mrs. Kenneth Winters, Mrs. B. Humphries and Mrs. M. Wood.
In Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Winters' party were Mr. and Mrs. Victor Dimarco of King City, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wilder of Schomberg, Mayor of Bradford and Mrs. G. Magani, Mr. and Mrs. Di Rocco and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Colangelo, all of Bradford.
Miss Florence Cain entertained Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crossland of Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. K. R. Kemp of Scarborough.
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alger Skiniulis were the latter's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Walsh of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. J. Colangelo of Richmond Hill.
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Eek, the latter president of Bradford Catholic Women's League, had with them Mr. and Mrs. Merle Woodcock and Mr. and Mrs. West, all of Bradford.
Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Al Dalrymple of Aurora, Mr. and Mrs. Robland, who recently moved into the former Wilding home on the Fifth Concession line, were welcomed by Mrs. Robland's cousin, Father Reinhard Burchhardt.
Mrs. Lorne Marsh and Mrs. Alger Skiniulis convoked the party, ably assisted by Second Lieutenant Mrs. John R. Jones and members of the Third King Guide Company.
Helping with supper arrangements and remaining to wash dishes were Guides Janet and Frances Woods, Carol Dalton, Linda Flanagan and Madeline Lloyd.

King Crafts Sale
Termed 'Best Yet'
Kingscrafts annual exhibition was considered the best to date, both from the standpoint of the steady morning and afternoon crowd of viewers and the number of canvasses sold.
Several of the artists, who consider themselves amateurs, were present to discuss the pictures with visitors and to assist the convener of the art group, Mrs. Alex MacKay of Newmarket.
Nearly 100 framed and unframed works were displayed, most of them oils and a few water colors.
A total of $505 worth of paintings was sold from the choice of landscapes, still life, flowers, live sketches and a few familiar scenes around King Township.
Among Mrs. A. E. Jarvis' contributions was one of the village crossing as seen from Springhill Road. One of Mrs. Al Rolinson's distinctive oil paintings showed part of All Saints' chapel and hinted at the presence of the church cemetery.
Other artists pleased with results of the exhibit include Mrs. John Ball, Mrs. F. Caron, Mrs. Reginald Case, Mrs. John L. Greig, Mrs. J. J. Jaeger, Mrs. W. A. McWilliam, Mrs. Herbert Schmidt, Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. Keith Tuck, Mrs. John Turnbull, Mrs. Frank Weis, Mrs. Peter Wright and Mrs. Gordon Wells, all of King.
Mrs. Alex Cruickshank, Mrs. S. Hannant, Mrs. T. B. Lamb, Mrs. M. D. McTaggart and Mrs. H. Selkirk, all of Richmond Hill; Mrs. A. Hally, Aurora; Mrs. Charles Peacock, Gormley; Mrs. David Laki and Mrs. K. Norris, Newmarket.

Skate at Nobleton
Saturday afternoon pleasure skating at Nobleton Arena, sponsored by King City Lions' Club, attracted the largest number of youngsters yet, when 260 turned out to test the ice before the hockey periods.
Lions John Dew, Aubrey Gordon, Bert Lutes, Jack Parsons and Herbert Ross were on duty last Saturday while next Saturday supervisors will be Lions Ray Love, Harry Lacey, Kenneth Sutton, G. T. Thompson and Ed Poulin.

Visiting
Miss Eva L. Dennis of St. Thomas, who retired in June from her 47-year teaching career, has been visiting friends around the village the past few days.
Laskay W. I.
Mrs. Arlene McDonald, as citizenship and education convener, was in charge of the Laskay Women's Institute meeting in her King Street home.
Mrs. Charles Hatley presided for the business period. Mrs. Charles Black presented a paper on "Citizenship" and Mrs. Frank Buddin gave a reading.
Mrs. Effie Bath took the motto, "Be kind to the stranger within your gates". The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Bath.
Kindergarten Mothers
Kindergarten teachers Mrs. R. J. Steven and Mrs. Allen Sneath outlined to mothers at a meeting in All Saints' Church

Four Running In Nobleton
Four men were nominated to fill the office of three village trustees at Nobleton's nominations.
Voters will decide December 7 who will form the village board from a choice of Cyril Flinders, Gilbert Faris, Frances John Bragg and Gerald Kenneth Holychuk.
Cyril Flinders, technician, is a current trustee, serving for three successive years.
John Bragg, druggist, served as village trustee for two years.
Gilbert Faris, farmer, has accepted his first nomination as trustee.
Kenneth Holychuk, sales representative, received his first nomination.
Two veteran trustees were not nominated after they had previously announced they would not qualify. Mel Sampson declined to run after an 18-year record and this year's chairman Harold Long decided 10 years was his limit.
About 35 residents attending nominations in Nobleton Community Hall heard trustees and candidates discuss sewage possibilities, hydro and the petition for annexation of 190 adjoining acres east and south of the village, which is before County Council.
Nobleton's voters will also decide on election day whether they wish trustees elected a year from now to govern the village of 900 for one or two year term.

Two Red Roses For Lions Ladies At Special Party
It took two buses to transport King City Lions and their wives and friends to the annual "ladies' night" celebration at Bolton Golf and Country Club.
Drivers John Langdon and Allan O'Brien not only went along for the ride, they took full share in the party too.
Chairman James Wemyss was in charge of the program. Ladies received favors of two red roses each. At the steak dinner and Mrs. John Lacey proposed the toast "to the ladies" and Mrs. Joseph Houlton replied.
Past President "Wib" Jennings introduced special guests including Mr. and Mrs. Harold Russell, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boys, Mrs. Blyth J. Langdon, Mr. and Mrs. John Nimmo of Maple and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Barraclough.
Among those enjoying the social evening were Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, Mrs. J. Dawkins, George Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Coutts, Mr. and Mrs. John Dew, Mr. and Mrs. Joss Farquhar, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Garbutt, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey J. Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hadwen, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hayward, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Houlton, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Jennings.
Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lacey, Mr. and Mrs. John Langdon, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Love, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Lutes, Mr. and Mrs. Allan O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Poulin, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Roots, Mrs. E. King Eight-Yr.-Olds Join Brownies
Twenty-two 8-year-old girls of King City and district participated in an exciting ceremony when they were formally admitted to their Brownie packs.
Fourth Brownie pack held its ceremony at night so that fathers could attend with their families, and many were present.
Six young "Tweens" waited in Tweenland for the "Sixer" to lead them individually through a decorated arbour to Tweenland. There Brown Owl Mrs. Arthur Munisso and Tawny Owl Mrs. Ralph Church presented them to District Commissioner Mrs. Alex Knight, who listened to them recite the Brownie Promise. Then Mrs. Knight solemnly stated, "You are now a member of the fourth Brownie pack."
The new Brownies are: Brenda Gordon, Paula Murray, Debra Ough, Susan Ballantyne, Cathy Smider and Sandra Kirby.
Golden Bar badges were presented to Brownies who had passed a variety of tests, including knot tying, sewing on buttons and darning, and local safety rules - Terry Smollet, Deborah Munisso, Cathy Sanderson, Jane Phorson, Ruby Church, Beverley Ann Clubine, Adele Jenks, Judy Pawlitz, Sandra Henshall, Joanne Lutes, Holly Reynolds, Melinda Berry, Marilee Peter, Louise Gibson, Janet Hardy, Shirley Hiebert, Susan Morgan, Lois Hayward, Charlotte McWilliam and Debra Shipley.
Awards for perfect attendance last year were belatedly given to Jane Phorson and Terry Smollet. Collector's badges went to Jennifer Curran and Norah Calvert.
The large family audience was then treated to a well-rehearsed presentation of a play, "The Story of the Brownies", in which the whole pack took part.
All the featured actors, Cathy Sanderson, Ruby Church, Lois Hayward, Susan Morgan and Deborah Munisso were excellent. Entertainment was also provided while the scenes were being changed: tap-dance by Debra Shipley; accordion solo by Shirley Hiebert; recitation by Brenda Gordon.
The attractively designed programme listed "props by Luck", but good management arranged for an unobtrusive hanging microphone, which would be an asset to any children's play.
Present and specially welcomed were Mr. and Mrs. John Norris of King Street, who had celebrated their 53rd wedding November 16.
Mrs. W. J. Clubine and Mrs. T. P. F. Henshall supervised a number of mothers in the serving of refreshments to 100 guests.
Both events took place in the Parish Hall of All Saints' Anglican Church, where the Brownies meet each week.
