Visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Anderson is Mrs. Nicholas Ignatieff. She is here to accompany the National Ballet School's performances in the Etobicoke Concert series.

Miss Viola Lagerquist of Aurora, Illinois, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lagerquist. Mrs. Lagerquist and her guest spent the weekend in Dorval, Quebec, with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lagerquist.

Mrs. J. Arnold Price attended the Little Helpers annual gathering at St. James Anglican Church Sutton on November 20. An interesting church service for small children was given by Dr. Richards. Afterwards a most enjoyable party was held in the parish hall.

A most interesting evening is promised members of the horticultural society at the annual meeting and banquet at Yangtze Pagoda this (Thursday) evening. Business will be kept to a minimum with election of officers and brief reports of the year's activities. Festivities start at 6:30 p.m.

A noted after dinner speaker, Mr. G. Roy Fenwick, will give an interesting discourse. Presentation of prizes, usually made at this time, has been held over to the January meeting.

Coffee parties with contributions of linens, china, toys, books and jewellery have been a prelude to the Treasure Mart being sponsored by ladies of the Local Association (West Division) in aid of the Richmond Hill Girl Guides. Showers of jewellery were received at two luncheons given by Mrs. William Bury.

China was assembled at a coffee party given at the home of Mrs. H. D. Currie with Mrs. S. K. Appleby assisting.

At a coffee party given at the home of Mrs. G. Farwell linens were collected with Mrs. Gordon T. MacKenzie, as assistant.

All these goods will be sold December 5 and 6 in the store located in the Richmond Theatre building, and local citizens are invited to contribute and to come and purchase on these days from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The regular meeting of 1st Beverly Acres Cub and Scout Auxiliary was held at Beverly Acres School November 19. Several new members were welcomed and it is hoped more will be present December 17 at the Christmas party. Ladies are asked to bring a 50c gift to exchange. There will also be a guest speaker.

Several members are attending the fall conference luncheon November 28.

Mrs. Hemphill reported the golden book of charity labels are still coming in. Please phone her at TU. 4-5684 for further information.

Anyone with articles for the uniform exchange should phone Mrs. D. A. Nesbitt at TU. 4-2237. Uniforms are needed urgently.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Sunday, November 24, gave members of the M.T.H. Musical Club a well-rounded afternoon with the recordings of Gilbert and Sullivan's "The Gondoliers" with narration by Robert Freeman (who is telephone convenor). This introduced the operetta to most of the members, after which the new project "recorder playing" under the heading of "Music Making for Fun" was started.

With one showing of how to hold this ancient instrument nearly all members and friends went home proud of the fact that they could play "Jingle Bells," and "Mary Had a Little Lamb."

A pat on the back is deserved by this group in their first endeavour on the recorder.

After refreshments were served all left for home excitedly to try playing other selections. Any young adult or adult wishing to join the group is asked to call TU. 4-3802 after 6 p.m.

Over the Remembrance Day week-end Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Lagerquist drove to Deep River, Ontario, to see their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Maunder, prior to their transfer to Port Arthur.

John has been working at the atomic energy plant at Rolph-ton, and as the plant was closed down for safety checks, Mr. and Mrs. Lagerquist had the opportunity of touring the most interesting installation plant.

The Friendship Circle of St. Gabriel's Church spent last Thursday morning evaluating their own speaking voice. Everyone made an announcement and gave a short speech. Then the tape was played back. To some it was the very first time they had heard their own reproduction. This was carried out in connection with the plays these energetic young mothers hope to produce.

Next week moving pictures will be taken of a morning activity group. The president Mrs. J. Arnold Price announced the Christmas party will be held December 12.

November

November has come to our garden. An unwelcome ogress who blows A frost on the vine and the blossom, And withers the aster and rose. She has taken their fragrance and beauty And left them asleep in their beds, Awaiting the day when the snowman Pulls the covers up over their heads.

November

His many friends are happy to see Dr. W. Cameron Cowan out and about following his recent stay in hospital. The popular doctor hopes to be able to resume his practice on December 1, and is deeply appreciative of the kindness shown him by his friends and patients during his illness and convalescence.

Robert D. Little

Next Sunday at St. Mary's Anglican Church the Rector will begin a series of Advent Sermons on the "last things". In the evening at 7 p.m. the annual confirmation service will be held by the Suffragan Bishop of Toronto, the Right Rev. H. R. Hunt, M.A., D.D. Fifty-five candidates, junior and adult will be presented at that time for the "laying on of hands."

A reception for parents and friends of the candidates will follow in Wrixon Hall.

November 30 being St. Andrew's Day, the young people of the parish of St. Mary's Anglican will conduct a blitz sale of calendars in the parish. All members are urged to have a church calendar in their home, the proceeds from the sale of which, go to the church's mission abroad.

A convenience for working mothers, which will be greeted with pleasure, is the announcement that Richmond Nursery School, 34 Elizabeth Street South, will open in January as a day nursery. A limited number of children can now be registered for a morning, afternoon, or all-day program.

This nursery school is operated under the standards set by the Ontario Department of Welfare - Day Nurseries Branch with trained teachers.

Day care children will receive a hot lunch and the same qualified guidance and supervision now enjoyed by children at the nursery school.

The W.A. of the Presbyterian Church held its annual bazaar on Saturday with an excellent attendance in spite of the blustery weather. Unfortunately Mrs. M. E. Malloy was unable to be present due to ill health, but as usual the beautiful quilts on display were much admired. Mrs. Malloy through the year convenes a group of quilters who turn out many quilts on commission.

The president, Mrs. G. R. Carmichael thanked all ladies of the association who worked so hard, and members of the congregation who donated so generously to make this annual event a success.

Sunday, December 1, at 11 a.m. the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be served at Richmond Hill United Church.

Members of the C.W.L. and the parish of St. Mary Immaculate Church held their annual pot luck supper November 20 in the auditorium of St. Mary Immaculate School. A variety of tempting dishes and delicious desserts was enjoyed by the ladies.

A booth, convened by Mrs. Heather Harris, featured the sale of handicrafts made by the C.W.L. members including knitted goods, aprons, hats and novelties.

Other booths displayed Christmas cards and wrappings, and jewelry for sale.

A brief business meeting with President Mrs. C. Bettles presiding, followed the supper. Members were requested to donate small Christmas gifts suitable for mental patients. Plans were discussed for the Christmas bridge and euchre in the school auditorium on December 13.

The Rev. Gordon W. Winch, B.A., B.D., was welcomed to Richmond Hill United Church Sunday morning. Minister of St. Paul's United Church, Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox, Mr. Winch is also chairman of York Presbytery and is recognized as a dedicated servant of the gospel. He preached on the subject "Living Water."

Mr. John Spanner conducted the evening service, held in the chapel.

Members of Delta Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi gathered at the home of Mrs. Libby Henson on the evening of November 19. Guest speaker was Mrs. Marilyn French of the Bell Telephone Company of Canada, who spoke about "Good Telephone Usage."

After the program members spoke on two telephones set up with a tape recorder. In this way they were able to hear their own "telephone voices" as a means of correcting any noticeable faults.

At the conclusion of the programme, cookies, coffee and tea were enjoyed by the members.

Nineteen members of the LCW of St. Paul's Lutheran Church met November 20 at the home of Mrs. Barbara Barth, 221 Harrygan Crescent.

Mrs. Clara Moore of the Canadian Mental Health Association was guest speaker and in a very interesting and informative talk told of the work of the White Cross Volunteers.

The LCW then presented Mrs. Moore with Christmas gifts for mental patients. Members of the society were reminded of the need for good used clothing for Lutheran World Action.

The meeting closed with the missionary benediction followed by refreshments.

One of Richmond Hill's private schools, the Teeny Town Nursery School, held its first open house of the year on November 18.

A splendid turnout of mothers and fathers enjoyed a relaxed evening of films and inspecting the various displays of their children's work. It was also an opportunity for parents to chat with supervisor Mrs. Dorothy Leman, as well as teachers, Mrs. Kay Longworth and Mrs. Heather Blaney.

Refreshments were served by two of the mothers in the music room.

The Couples Club of the Presbyterian Church held their November meeting in the form of a bowling party at the ABC Alleys. Returning to the church hall, prizes were presented for hidden scores to Graham Leonard, Ray Bennett, Alec Russell, Norm Cates, Len and Helen Nesbitt.

A short business meeting followed. Lunch was served and a social half hour was enjoyed watching movies taken at the Halloween party.

The club's Christmas dinner will be held December 14 at the Yangtze Pagoda. For information or tickets members are asked to call any of the executive.

Two visiting Lions from Australia were guests at the last meeting of Richmond Hill Lions. Mac Stewart, O.B.E. and Athol E. Turner are on a world tour promoting the land of the kangaroo and the local club is one of the few visited in Ontario. They were enthusiastically received by the club and left a vivid picture of life "down under" with club members.

Christmas decor graced the home of Mrs. Joy Hambrook, 82 Centre Street East, when Mrs. Douglas Alcorn of Vanderford gave a demonstration to the Engineers Wives of Richmond Hill and district. Everyone was amazed at the artistic touch that Mrs. Alcorn gave to the many common decorations usually found in the home, and her use of natural, wild, growing weeds, berries and branches.

With the holiday season being such a busy time, it has been decided there will not be a meeting in December. The group will meet in January at the home of Mrs. Joan Knowles, Emerald Isle Court.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Lewis of Pugsley Avenue, Richmond Hill, are happy to announce the engagement of their daughter Lynda Elizabeth, to Mr. Joseph Lukovits, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lukovits of Richmond Hill. The wedding is planned for April. c1w22

IN MEMORIAM VERSES

A booklet containing In Memoriam verses may be procured without charge at the Advertising Counter of "The Liberal", 63 Yonge St. S., Richmond Hill, or we will be pleased to mail one on request. Telephone TU. 4-1105 or AV. 5-3316.

Former local resident Mrs. Ruth McMullen was a visitor in town this week. Mrs. McMullen now resides in Campbellford.

Miss Susan Elizabeth Gillard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Gillard of 39 Church Street North, Richmond Hill, has been appointed a general duty nurse in obstetrics at the Presbyterian Hospital, Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Centre, New York City.

Miss Gillard was graduated from Richmond Hill High School and Women's College Hospital School of Nursing Toronto.

The Presbyterian Hospital, composed of the ten hospitals and clinics at the Columbia Presbyterian Medical Centre, the largest voluntary, non-profit hospital in the United States.

The first annual Cradle Roll party of St. Paul's Lutheran Church was held November 20 at the Richmond Hill Public Library. Eighteen children and their parents attended the informal party for members of the church three years of age and under.

Promotion certificates were presented to youngsters old enough to attend Sunday School by Nursery Roll Superintendent Mrs. Nelly Williamson. Singing was led by Mrs. Naomi Myers, and a film strip "Bootsie, the Lamb," was enjoyed. Games were played under the guidance of Miss Starr Dueffert and favours made by Mrs. Pat Wood were given to each child.

After refreshments served by the ladies of the LCW, Pastor Albert E. Myers gave an inspiring talk to the parents, reminding them of their responsibilities as parents with the words, "It is more important to give your child a faith than a fortune."

Parents and former Brown Owl Mrs. Relf of the 14th Brownies happily observed a grand bowl given to Brownies Aida Bocci, Susan Coxford, Valerie Fenwick, Lynn Horwood, Angela Jellet, Susan Thompson and Frances Thornhill as they "flew up" and Sharon Smith, who "walked" to Guides, at a "flying up" ceremony at Pleasantville School, November 18.

14th Richmond Hill Brownies were guests of 9th Richmond Hill Guides for this occasion. Captain Iva Bovard welcomed the girls into guideland after they had been presented with their wings by Commissioner Bridget Crampton.

Cinderella

This year the Curtain Club's pantomime "Cinderella" is to be presented in their own theatre, and as seating capacity is limited, there will be six evening performances on December 27, 28, 29, January 2, 3, 4, and two matinees on December 23 and January 4, in order to accommodate all the youngsters and the young in heart who delight in seeing their favourite fairy tales enacted on stage.

Playing the lead role is petite and talented Margaret Cross, and Prince Charming, by a newcomer to the group, but not to the theatre, Mary Hillier. Director Rex Sevenoaks and Dennis Thatcher, both masters of the art of comedy, play the ugly sisters, and Muriel Gillard a favourite of Richmond Hill audience, the sweet and sour stepmother.

If you are planning a Christmas party, why not let the Curtain Club do your entertaining for you? For group and individual bookings, phone Laura Miller at TU. 4-4190.

To raise funds for a theatre for the Aurora Drama Workshop, a Cleopatra's Ball was held November 22. In attendance for the most successful event at Graystones Restaurant were Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Miller, Harrygan Crescent, members of the sponsoring group. This is the first of several dances planned for the same purpose.

A MESSAGE IN THE INTERESTS OF SAFETY TO ALL WHO OWN A TV AERIAL

An improperly installed or deteriorated TV aerial is a source of danger to life and property... particularly in high winds and stormy weather. If an aerial falls on a hydro line or on service wires entering the home, fire can result. Power interruptions, with their inconvenience to customers over a wide area, have also been caused in the same way.

We solicit your co-operation in helping to make TV aerials safe everywhere by having yours inspected from time to time by a qualified television serviceman. Thank you.
