Mrs. George Miller, president of W. A. of St. Stephen's Anglican Church, Maple is shown presenting Mrs. Arthur Ludlam with a floral tribute of gratitude from the ladies of the church. Bishop of Toronto H. F. Wilkinson looks on. The bishop officially opened the new educational center Thursday night. Mrs. Ludlam designed the new kitchen for the hall.

Maples' Contribution To Hospital

Projects To Finance, Equip Wards

BY TOBY SHORE

Residents of Maple and community share today with neighboring areas in the fulfillment of a long hoped for dream... a new hospital within our boundaries.

Equipped with the most modern devices known to alleviate illness and support surgery and treatment, York Central Hospital just up the road from Maple is fully staffed and as of December 16 will open its doors to serve the public.

Members of Maple and District Branch of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary hall today as the commencement of their real working period.

With the official opening, auxiliaries throughout the area are preparing their volunteer hours to correspond with the need for their particular offer.

of service. Maple branch with Pat James acting as first auxiliary chairman kept the interest and need fresh even before active participation would be realized.

Meetings were held where discussion groups suggested ways projects could be used to give financial assistance in finishing the hospital.

At the 1962 Woodbridge Fall Fair, a booth staffed with volunteers showed hand-made gifts for the hospital gift shop, gave novel demonstrations to draw attention to architect's plans for the hospital and answered questions pertinent to its building and the auxiliary.

In March, 1963, a Valentine bake and apron sale was held by local groups and in June, a unique "nature walk" was a resounding success under convenors Dottie Walter and Jennifer Large.

Antiques and a vast variety of flowers were on sale, convened by Betty Bigford. There was home style baked bread, served with whipped honey, jams and marmalade and hot coffee were offered to strollers and Madeline and Harold Carroll exhibited their paintings, and set out were pieces of sculpture under Fred Ferry's supervision.

This event added funds earmarked for hospital furnishings. In October, 1963 the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham Walter, Folly Farm on Dufferin Street South, was opened to the auxiliary when Dottie hosted a "tea party" to outline the fall schedule. Jennifer Large was named chairman for 1963 and 1964.

On November 22, the chairman called a meeting at her home but it was held instead at the Pine Hill Farm home of Councillor Ruth McConkey because of the condition of the reconstructed Bathurst Street.

Maple residents responded whole heartedly to the January campaign for funds. Lorne Wells of Keele Street North and Dave West of Netherford Road were in charge of canvassers and promoters for this district. The only service club in Maple, the Lions Club pledged $1,600 to furnish a three bed ward in the hospital. To expedite the project, they have held two turkey suppers in November 1962 and again this year on November 23 in the Maple Community Hall.

As a tribute to their former fellow fireman, the late Herb Joslin who lost his life in an attempt to stave off the propane explosion in August, 1962, members of Vaughan Volunteer Firemen's Brigade held a dance this September in the Richmond Hill Lions Club.

Through selling of tickets and a draw, the memorial fund project of $1,600 was oversubscribed and firemen are able to furnish a three bed ward and place a memorial plaque in honour and memory of Herb Joslin.

Because of the support of an aware public, the official ceremonies marking the opening and dedication of the hospital today was made possible.

The Week's Happenings In Maple

Throughout the last few days during our normal weekend with family and friends, we were ever conscious of the sadness and bereavement surrounding the Kennedy family and their countrymen following the enormity of the crime committed against the late president.

Our thoughts and prayers mingled with the millions throughout the world.

Highway 7 Crash

Prominent Township Couple Killed

A prominent Vaughan Township couple were killed November 14 when their car was hit by a large dump truck on Highway 7 at the 6th Concession.

Arthur Gordon Avery, 73, died of head injuries in Humber Memorial Hospital shortly after his wife, Maude, was pronounced dead at the scene.

The Averys were returning home from Weston where Mrs. Avery had attended a women's institute meeting when their car was struck by a truck driven by Harold John Morby, 50, of Milton. It is thought that the Averys were travelling north when the accident happened. After the collision the truck swerved into a concrete slab on a service station lot and its front axle assembly was torn off.

Funeral services for the couple, held in the chapel of W. B. Scott and Son Funeral Home, Woodbridge, November 18 were largely attended, and conducted by Rev. Ralph C. Williams, minister of Maple United Church, of which Mr. and Mrs. Avery were devout members, and by Rev. M. Jenkinson of King Interment for Mr. Avery was in Riverside Cemetery, Weston.

Palbearers were Allen Poole, Concord; Nelson Moody, Woodbridge; John Middlebrook, Schomberg; Jesse Humphrey, Woodbridge; Edward Cooper of Teston and Percy Usher, Edgeley.

Mr. Avery was interred in Maple United Church Cemetery, Palbearers were J. Watson, King; L. Hadwin, King; Frank Piercey, Teston; Frank Robson, Maple; Jesse Humphrey, Woodbridge, and Harry Lighthouse (nephew), Maple.

Mr. Avery was born in Toronto to John and Louisa Payne Avery, formerly of England. In 1917 he married Elizabeth Ellen Mills of Toronto and commenced farming in Etobicoke. In 1924 he moved to his farm on the 6th Concession. Elizabeth Avery died after 18 years of marriage, during which three sons were born, Gordon John, Lloyd Henry and Roy Frederick.

Mr. Avery and his second wife, Jessie Pearl Carson Windas Avery, operated the farm for 18 years. Mr. Avery's stepdaughter, Mrs. Shirley Geraldine Windas Cook, her husband and two children, are now residing in Crown Hill. In 1957 Mrs. Avery passed away.

Mr. Avery served for many years as a trustee of the old Pine Grove Public School and his strong spirit of endeavour was an inspiration to all who knew him.

Besides his sons and 10 grandchildren surviving Mr. Avery are his brothers, John of Brampton and Frederick of Weston, and sisters, Mrs. Russell Madgett (Louise) of Weston, Mrs. Louis Middlebrook (Carrie) of Schomberg, and Mrs. Thomas Hickey (Bertha) of Weston.

Mrs. Avery was born in Vaughan Township to Henry Wesley Peterman and Sarah Catherine MacGillivray Peterman and, except for a few years when she lived in Toronto, she has lived the most of her life in Vaughan.

A brother, William Walter Peterman, was killed in a car accident at the corner of Highway 27 and 49 on May 14, 1958, in his 68th year. Her father died January 29, 1935, in his 81st year. Her mother, who will be 99 years old December 7, resides at York Manor.

Hannah Maude Peterman and Albert R. Constable were married in 1925. They raised two boys, Robert Gregson (Ted) and Edward White. Ted, who lives in Scarborough, is married and has six children. Nothing has been heard of Bob Gregson for a long time. Mr. Constable passed away in 1947.

Mrs. Avery received her education in Purpleville Public School and attended Teston United Church. On her marriage to Mr. Avery in November, 1958, she became a member of Edgeley United Church until it was closed a couple of years ago and then she became a member of Maple United Church.

She was a member of the Edgeley Women's Institute and served faithfully on the Standing Committee on Agriculture and Canadian Industries. Mrs. Avery was Pride of Lambton L.O.B.A. 798 and L.O.B.A. 550. The lodge held a special service in memory of Mrs. Avery at 7 p.m. Sunday, November 17.

Besides her mother, surviving are her brother, Roy Peterman of Alliston, and sister, Mrs. Gladys Maginn of R.R.2, Woodbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. Avery were both devoted to this church. Mr. Avery served for years as an elder in Edgeley United Church and, after the church was closed, his services as an elder continued in Maple United Church.

Mr. Avery sold his farm recently and was preparing to build a new home in Kleinberg and retire. Both Mr. and Mrs. Avery were a kindly couple who were known and loved for their forthright and friendly spirit their interest in people, and their desire to be helpful to others in every way possible. They will be sadly missed.

Annual Christmas Bazaar

The new parish hall of St. Stephen's Anglican Church will be the setting of the W.A.'s annual Christmas bazaar November 30 from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m.

The 12 booths will be upholding this year's theme "The 12 Days of Christmas" as convenors display their wares. The usual looked for sewing crafts, Christmas gift suggestions and decorations, fabric lengths and pantry shelf delights will all be featured.

The G.A. and J.A. groups of St. Stephen's will have on display and for sale, their assorted handicrafts and decorations.

A new innovation this year is a specially planned booth to accommodate both the little lady in the kitchen and her spouse... just in time for the Grey Cup game "a delicatessen". The convenors in this booth "will partridge in a pear tree" will by way of hot plates, have hot casseroles, chili con carne, spaghetti and meat balls as well as salads, all packaged for take-out service to serve your football fans at home.

Take advantage of this special annual bazaar to stock up on something different for Christmas gifts by way of novel selections and then carry home your supper — all ready to serve while you enjoy the game. Come at the opening at 1:30 p.m. for early choice and may the "Cup" go to the east.

Mr. and Mrs. Cal Miller, Keele Street North in Maple, will have much to remember after their recent 25th wedding anniversary.

With a hectic summer behind them preparing for their daughter Heather's marriage to Gary Elson, the Millers had decided to bypass any formal celebration of the occasion but they didn't reckon on the new-lyweds.

Recently, Mrs. Miller's relatives, the Ingrams, arrived with a special cake and as a start on a silver service set, presented them with a coffee pot.

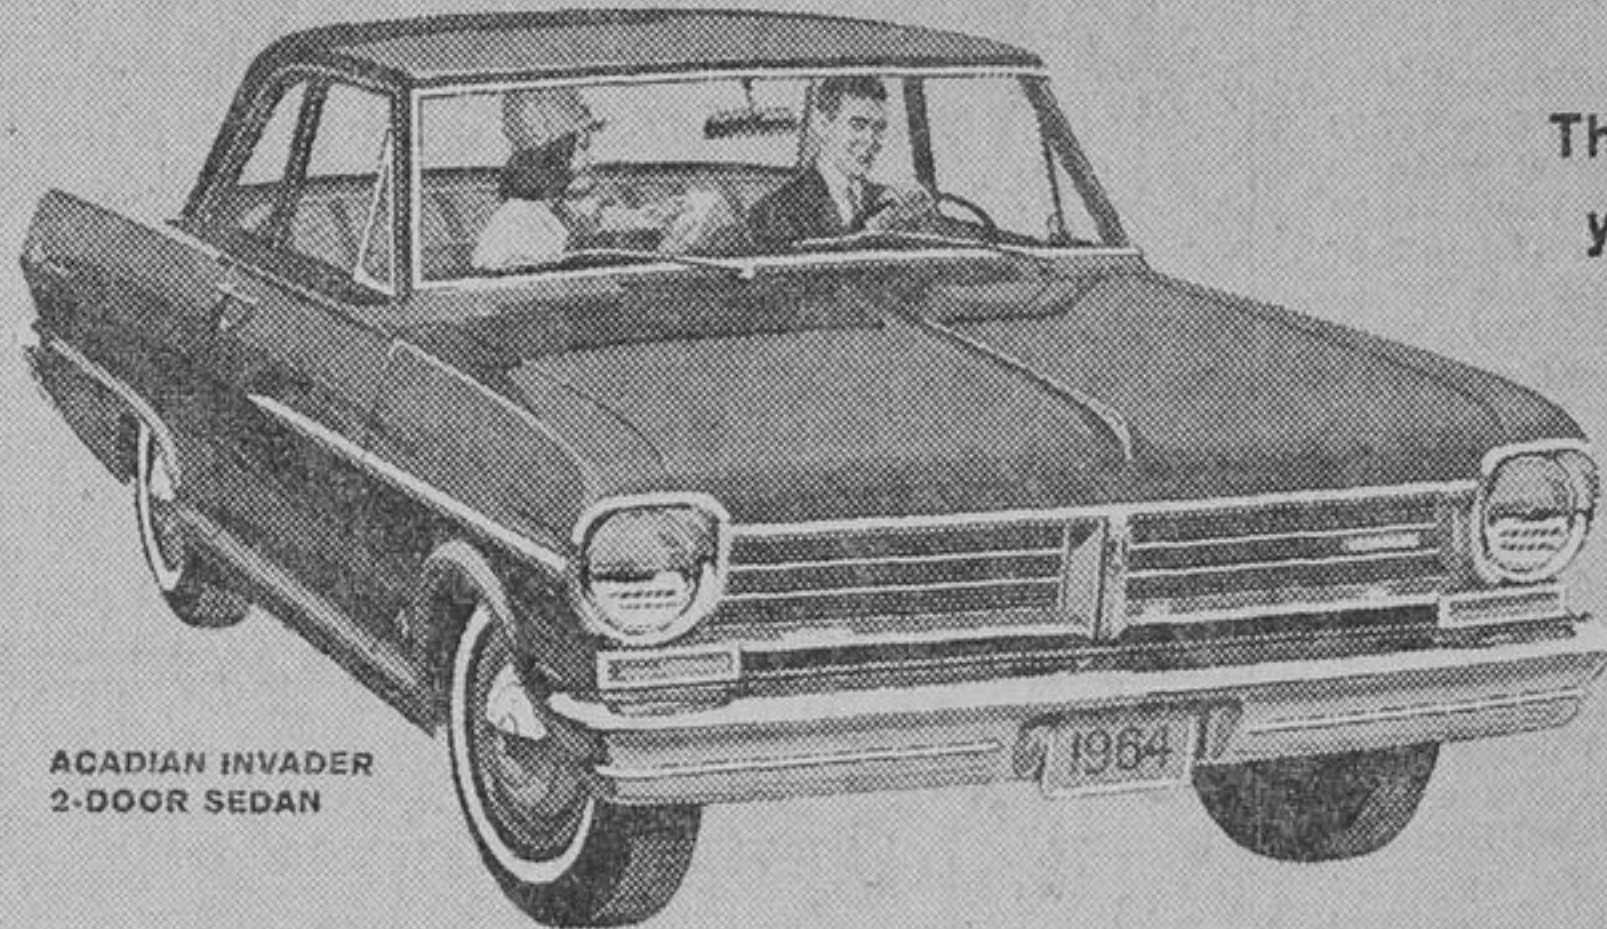

They were then dinner guests at Penio's, a treat by Mr. and Mrs. Elson and Mr. and Mrs. Bob McQueen, and when they returned home to watch the hockey game, a recreation room full of family, friends and neighbours greeted them. Helping the young couple organize the party were Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Rouse. The anniversary celebrants were presented with a silver tea tray.
