Willowdale Downs Maple Leafs 7-3

It was way too much Willowdale Rangers for the cellar dwelling Richmond Hill Maple Leafs Tuesday night as they bowled by a 7-3 score at the local arena. Chief executioner in the Leaf downfall was Willowdale's Bobby Baird who whacked in three goals and assisted in three others. Right behind was Paul Boyer with two goals and two assists.

For the Leafs it was the Matt Kinnari-Jim Wells and Norm Roberts line doing most of the successful forays on offence with Kinnari and Wells looking particularly speedy in this game. It was another fast start for the Leafs as they jumped into an early two-goal on the strength of markers by Larry Bray at 5:45 unassisted and Earl Van Dyke from Wells and Kinnari at 9:45.

Leafs were sticking with the Rangers until Moe Williamson was waved to the penalty box for interference and then the roof started to creak ominously. Rangers Paul Boyer sifted the puck past goalie Don MacMillan at 17:00 on assists from Bob Baird and Willy Roberts. The same stalwarts came back at 18:20 with Leafs still one short as Willy Roberts tied it up from Paul Boyer and Bob Baird.

Leafs were fading badly as Baird made it 3-2 at 5:35 of the second on assists from Boyer and Gary Dury. They rallied to press for a time but then MacMillan had two close calls with one shot bouncing off the post.

The third opened with Baird moving in to beat MacMillan at 3:10 on passes from Dury and Harry Fiskari. It was 5-2 when Gary Dury carried the length of the ice, zipped into the corner, and laid a pass onto Baird's stick in front and he made no mistake, Fiskari picked up an assist on the goal also. Jim Wells put some new-found hope in the Leafian hearts at 10:30 when he took a pass from Normie Roberts and blinked the red light but it was destined to be the Leafs last look for the night. Gord Currie made it 6-3 at 15:00 mark from Earl Caron and that man Baird again; and then at 16:25 Boyer beat MacMillan from Bob Bright.

ICE CHIPS Leaf's best line by far was the Kinnari-Wells-Roberts one but it just wasn't enough... the Rangers appeared to be a well-balanced fast skating crew who will take some beating from any team to take the crown away from them this year... it was not a rough game... by any sense of the term and perhaps it was a good job... some of those Ranger forwards looked pretty meaty out there... Bobbie Baird was the only casualty getting a healthy whack on the proboscis (nose) from an errant Leaf stick... Moe Williamson and a Ranger did a brief tango to the beat of "let's twist" but quickly cooled off and no damage was done... it was defeat number 7 for Leafs who have managed only one tie for just the Rangers appeared to be a
