Oak Ridges And Lake Wilcox

Cancer Society

Executive of Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox branch of the cancer society met at the home of Mrs. Doris Smith, South Road, who has been vice-president and acting president for several months, due to poor health of the president, Mrs. Flora Bunn. Mrs. Bunn has now formally resigned as president and Mrs. Smith was asked to continue as president at least until elections which take place in June.

Sports at Bradford

Gerald Sweeney had four goals to his credit, with two for Glen Wright and one each to Dick Sweeney and Eldon Rowland.

Shower For The Bride

A shower of lovely gifts was received by Miss Barbara Sangster, Bond Ave., when she was the honored guest at the home of Mrs. Mary Warburton, Bond Ave. recently.

For a week. We hope you are up and around again now and feeling better.

We wonder if the three teachers received a late slip last week when they were late for school. Lorne Eckler, G. I. Thomas, and Miss J. Downs were late arrivals at the Oak Ridges Public School when their car was involved in a minor collision with another car. No one was seriously hurt and they were able to take over their classes shortly after their arrival.

Canvassers are needed for the forthcoming cancer campaign to be held for the month of April. If you could give a few hours of your time for this worthwhile cause, it would be much appreciated. Please call me, Mrs. Atcheson, 773-5479, or Mrs. Doris Smith, president of the Oak Ridges-Lake Wilcox branch, 773-5371.

How was your steak, girls? Mrs. Dawn Willis, and daughter Lori, Mrs. Bet Neil, Mrs. Lorraine Forster, and daughter Heather enjoyed a lunch of steak and trimmings at the home of Mrs. Audrey Middleton, last Thursday, after which they enjoyed several games of 500. Heather, who is just four months old, also enjoyed her lunch.

Taking advantage of the nice weather we had recently, Mr. and Mrs. George Cragg motored to Brantford where they visited Mr. Cragg's brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cragg.

More parishioners attended All Saints' Anglican Church during the past year than any previous year. Rev. E. T. Costigan told the annual vestry meeting.

Presiding over the gathering of 50 church members, the minister noted 1963 had been "a good year" with all commitments met.

Mr. Costigan reported 22 baptisms, three weddings, four burials and one memorial service during the year.

Prepared accounts of the activities of all organizations in the church were reviewed. One of the highlights of the coming year will be the combined Sunday anniversary service early in June, which will be among the observances of the church's 107th year and the 75th birthday of the W.A. Harold Clapp was named rector's warden; Robert Silcox, people's warden; Robert Walker and Phillip Sherwood, deputy wardens.

Jan Baxter was chosen lay delegate to Synod, with Frank Baker as alternate delegate. Al Rolinson accepted the duties of warden of the sidesman.

Kenneth Atkinson was named treasurer and J. K. Crawford and Robert Rowland, auditors. The Anglican Congress was discussed as an outstanding gathering of the past year. Slides were shown by Col. J. G. Strathy, general chairman of the congress and a member of All Saints' Parish.

Mrs. Frank Armstrong acted as vestry clerk for the meeting.

United Church Women also bought a new stacking chairs, tables, hymn books, a new kitchen stove and a piano.

From the building campaign in September, 1962, three-year pledges are continuing.

Alfred McBride and Allan Gellatly were named new church trustees, joining John Dew and Irving L. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Andy Cossabon and family have moved from their home on Moray Ave., and will reside in London, after being transferred from Toronto to the new Massey-Ferguson plant there.

Mrs. Peggy Cragg received a letter recently from former residents of Lakeland, Mrs. Frances Smith, and family, and we thought that neighbours and friends would like to know they are now living at St. Alban's. The family are fine, and Sheila is now married and has a baby girl, born December 17 and where her husband has accepted a new position. Gary is in the army and has a commission, and recently has become engaged to be married.

Other children in the family are Steve, Andrew, and twins Rosalind and Caroline.

Association Can't Afford Pk. Changes

A slim treasury after all debts are met, was reported at the annual meeting of Lake Marie and King Athletic Association.

Eighteen of the 32 members attended the dinner meeting at the Ridge Inn.

It was noted the financial balance is not enough for the club to carry out any of its aims for improving King Memorial Park.

Members are awaiting a decision by King City Village Trustees who were offered the park in exchange for improvements to the grounds.

Members are currently maintaining the park rink, with the assistance of a few interested teen-aged boys. The outdoor ice is being used for pleasure skating, hockey practices and supervised school games.

This winter the association is co-sponsoring with the Lions' Club the King City team in King Township Intermediate Hockey League, which plays Thursday nights in Schomberg Arena.

Lake Marie members of the hockey team are coach Kenneth Keates, Elwood Hart, Ted Digel, Ed Bernand, Bill Pollock and Bill Clubine.
