County Finals Next

Karen Geiger Is The Best Orator Vaughan Twp. Public Speaking

Karen Geiger was judged the best public speaker in the primary schools of Vaughan Township Monday evening. She will go on to compete at the county level on February 20. An area contest will follow and the provincial championship will be heard in Toronto at Easter.

One of seven finalists Karen spoke on "Fire — Friend or Foe" and made a convincing plea for fire as a friend if it is treated with respect, understood thoroughly and never taken for granted.

She is a grade 8 pupil at Charles Howitt School. The public speaking finals were held in the new Roselawn School, Carrville Road West and Inspector R. Macdonald was chairman.

All seven finalists gave evidence of long hours spent in research and preparation of material and delivery. Every one gave a most polished presentation of well-thought-out material.

Judges were Mrs. Floyd Perkins of Richmond Hill, L. Thompson, head of the English department at Bayview Secondary School and George H. Barr, head of the English department of Thornhill Secondary School.

Rules drawn up for the provincial finals were used—subjects were chosen from a list of ten suggested, speeches were at least five minutes and not more than seven minutes long with a penalty imposed if the time limit was not observed.

Two preliminary contests had been held in Vaughan Township from which the seven finalists were chosen. They were: Jean Reaman, grade 8 Concord, who spoke on "Travel Is Interesting"; Debbie Corkin, grade 8 Jefferson, whose subject was "Madame Marie Curie — an Outstanding Scientist"; Mary Anne Miller, grade 7 Kleinburg, "Why I Like to Read"; Helen Payne, grade 6 Langstaff, "What Electricity Has Done for Farming"; David Martin, grade 8 Roselawn, "Alexander Graham Bell — An Outstanding Scientist"; and Janet Storer, grade 8 St. Margaret Mary, New Pine Grove, "Why I Like Reading".

Two young girls from Concord School and two from George Bailey School, Maple, entertained the good-sized audience with musical numbers. Gloria Bowes and Ruth Ann Snider of Concord each played two piano solos; Linda Reid of Maple sang about "The Magic Dragon" and Sheena McDonald, who was her accompanist also played a piano solo. This entertainment was under the direction of Robert Richardson, assistant supervisor of music.

Superintendent J. A. Gibson presented crests to all finalists. These crests were designed last year by a grade 8 pupil in the township and bear the words "Public Speaking 1964."

Mrs. Dorothy Robertson vice-chairman of Vaughan Township School Area Board presented the cup to the champion and Mr. Brock presented his award.

Last year Larry Leduc of St. Mary Margaret Separate School, who won the township championship, went on to take county area, and provincial honours.
