Evangelistic Team At Gormley U. M. Church

Rambling Around

The Campbell-Reese Evangelistic team, from Milton, will next week spend several days in this area as they conduct a short series of services at Gormley United Missionary Church, of which Rev. L. K. Sider is the pastor.

The Evangelist, Rev. Ken Campbell, is the son of a Canadian missionary-pastor. For the past seven years he has been conducting a unique ministry of youth evangelism in both Canada and the U.S.A., and overseas. The founder of Youth Evangelism Fellowship, he is also general director of the Canadian "Youth-Time" radio ministry, originating in Stouffville.

Rev. Jim Reese, musician of the team, has a fine baritone voice and plays the trombone. He has recorded with Diadem Productions, and is the author of a number of hymns and choruses.

Both of these men are married, and with their families, make their homes near Milton. Pastor Sider indicates services will be held from February 18 through February 23. Week-night meetings, including Saturday, will be at 8 o'clock, and Sunday services at 11 and 7.30. The public is cordially invited to attend these special services and share in the inspiration of the occasion.

Mr. Lawrence asked her questions but she was thrilled to be able to perform her ballet number "Schon Rosmarin" or "Pretty Rose Marie" as you would say in English.

Susan isn't worried about a future career in ballet as yet. She just wants to be her age and enjoy growing up although she did say that she wouldn't mind becoming a ballet teacher. In the meantime Susan is content to study ballet, go to High school and take drama lessons from Mr. Clifton of Richmond Hill. Classical music is her favorite and she makes special trips to hear the Toronto Symphony. She attended the jazz concert on February 1. Susan intends to make more public appearances however and will enter the Peel and Hamilton Festivals.

From The Journal

And getting back to the mountains. I can hardly express the wonder and awe I feel in the presence of the mountains and foothills of Utah. In this whole state, the mountains are your loving and constant companions along the road... and you are continually gazing upward and not down. I feel in harmony with the words of that old and familiar hymn of inspiration: "Unto the Hills Around Do I Lift Up My Longing Eyes." It is so easy to think about God in the presence of these mountains and it is easy to think about Him when you are in the midst of a vast uncrowded space. There is just no room for cluttered thinking. Only wonder and worship. Everything seems so clean and good. Such is the power of the mountains and the valleys. The feeling that you get as you travel up the huge canyons is indescribable. You look at their steep sides with their jagged, torn and weatherbeaten rock and stone varied here and there with the strangest of shapes and formations. You think perhaps it was here in this land that millions of years ago, mighty rivers rushed stormily through these magnificent gorges to swell the ocean. Now there is only the canyon floor and the walls to remind you of what might have been. On the ride up the Cedar Canyon yesterday, we paused to look at Navajo Lake. It was frozen over but I am told that it is beautiful in the summer and that it is used for swimming. Pat and I were talking about Great Salt Lake yesterday. It is just like the Dead Sea. And it is so salty that industry extracts salt from it for commercial purposes. The lake covers more than 2,350 square miles, and the salt content is 27% compared with an Atlantic Ocean average of only 3 1/2%.

Your Legion Reports

Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion
By N. McDermott
The comrades will be pleased to be informed that Lloyd Boone, our former sergeant-at-arms, is now home from the hospital. Just before Christmas Lloyd was out jumping a horse at the Aurora Hunt Club; at one of the fences it appears he and the horse started out all right, with Lloyd on top however something happened and Lloyd finished on the bottom. It was quite serious. It will still be some time before Lloyd can join us at the Court, however until then our best wishes are extended to him.

St. John Ambulance Course Is Underway

Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. the annual first aid course of Richmond Hill St. John Ambulance got under way. The instructor this year is Bob Hood who is fully qualified to give instruction in this most important subject. The course will continue for eight weeks and classes will be held in the municipal building. St. John instructors give classes in first aid, home nursing and child care throughout Ontario so that others may help their own families. Each May, St. John men and women throughout Canada give free two-hour courses in artificial respiration in an effort to reduce the holiday drowning death toll. The St. John Ambulance donation to any community is a large one. Every year they give about 200,000 hours of their spare time to serve most communities. This time is their donation to their fellow citizens. It is spent wherever people gather and is the public's protection against serious injury arising from minor accidents. Well meaning people, with little or out-of-date first aid knowledge, can do more harm than good when trying to assist the injured, but the uniformed St. John Ambulance men and women are kept up-to-date through retraining programs and annual inspections. From their service to the community at large St. John Ambulance workers receive satisfaction, the inner-glow that comes with the knowledge they have helped a fellow human being in distress.
