The Week's Happenings In Maple

A Future Brown Owl?

Last Thursday's storm not only held up Scout fathers, but the other branch on the distaff side, Maple Brownies, had their difficulties as well.

With several Brownies making it to their meeting in the George Bailey School, they found themselves with no adults—leaders present.

Senior six, Marion Boyd, 10, of the Leprechauns seized the initiative and went ahead to conduct the meeting through the opening ceremony, through the "Fairy Ring" where the "fairy gold" (dues) is collected, inspection period and then led in playing some games before the closing ceremony.

Marion showed how the good training she has received in her short period as a Brownie was indeed worthwhile and effective.

Fun Fair

Last year's fun fair at the George Bailey School was such a success, the home and school association is planning another this year.

You'll hear more before the date of April 18—and their special display will be of interest to all ages.

Circle April 18 and watch for announcements coming up.

Congratulations

Just catching up on some recent arrivals,—to John and Joan Jarvis, 22 Lancer Dr. another hockey player, born at St. Michael's Hospital January 26.

To Kurt and Doris Matyssek, a son, born at York Central Hospital January 26.

Also to the Jimmie Yorks whose baby was born at Y.C.H. January 26.

Wedding Anniversary

Usually with each upcoming wedding anniversary of the Salmons, 60 Lancer Drive, at least one member of the duo remembers—this year it was Jean's turn.

The neighbours thinking they should remind Pat of same, threw a surprise party for Jean and Pat at the Frasers home, February 2.

The Birch's James and McIntyre's of Lancer Drive joined in with the Frasers to ensure a bang-up party complete with congratulations via cards, gifts and anniversary cake but leaving out speeches!

Neighbourhood Notes

Dates to remember — Women's World Day of Prayer, Victoria Square United Church at 2 p.m. February 14; eucharist series at Buttonville W.I. Hall, February 14, 8 p.m.; Buttonville W.I. party at hall, February 21; Yukon travelogue at Brown's Corners United Church February 26, 7:45 p.m.

Bob Miller left Friday to take up new work in the Barbados and on Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller entertained at a family party for him and Mary Lou. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller. Mary Lou will join Bob at a later date when business matters here are completed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller attended the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Symons of Uxbridge last Saturday. Mrs. Miller poured tea.

Wayne Patterson had an unfortunate accident at Brown's Corners United Church recently when he twisted his leg while supervising a youth group. At present he is wearing a cast, but surgery to repair the torn ligaments is advised as soon as he can be admitted to hospital.

The neighbours will be sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Jack Storey have retired from the Buttonville Restaurant which they opened three years ago when the BP station was built. We will miss them. The restaurant will continue under new management.

Miss Mabel Hord, sister of Ross Hord, is recuperating from a broken ankle suffered when she tangled with a grocery cart in a Toronto supermarket.

Mrs. Joe Robinson, chairman of District 7 of the Ontario Hospital Auxiliaries Association, accompanied York Central Hospital Auxiliary President Mrs. R. J. Miller to Newmarket Tuesday of last week for the general meeting of the York County Hospital Auxiliary. A new branch has been formed at Aurora to work with Newmarket.

John David Himmelman Friends were shocked last weekend to learn of the accidental death of four-year-old John Himmelman, son of John and Joyce Himmelman and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Harris of Don Mills Road south of John Street. John and his sister were crossing the highway from the Associated Tube Industries plant to their home last Friday evening.

The little boy was struck by a southbound car just before he reached the west shoulder. The funeral service was from the Giffen and Mack Funeral Home at Danforth and Main Streets, Toronto.

Miss Mary and Jack Rodick were with Mrs. Morrison Sellar at Brantford last week, following the death of Rev. Morrison Sellar. Friends from Brown's Corners Church attended the church service at Zion United Church, Brantford, on Friday afternoon of last week, and the interment service at St. John's, Norway, cemetery, on Saturday morning.

Brown's Corners UCW

Mrs. John Harris was in the chair and Mrs. Edgar Fuller conducted the devotional service Wednesday of last week when the Brown's Corners UCW met in the Christian Education room. Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson was soloist, with Mrs. S. J. English pianist.

Mrs. John Wilkins organized three discussion groups led by Mrs. A. F. Binnington, Mrs. S. J. English and Mrs. F. Leaf. Subjects were "Are lotteries a peril?" "Do Christians lose sight of church aims?" and "Segregation".

President Mrs. H. Steffler showed a film strip on Dr. Brands' work among lepers.

Mrs. Steffler conducted the business period, and Mrs. Douglas Hood and Mrs. John Brown were appointed church hostesses. The Happy Timers will also be asked to send representatives to greet churchgoers.

Mrs. Steffler told of a letter from Rev. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick now serving in India. Their small baby has been very ill, and proper food is difficult to obtain. UCW will investigate a way of supplying baby food.

Boys' groups in the church would benefit from a tumbling mat and UCW will assist the Happy Timers with this purchase. Assistance will also be given the CGIT.

The group plans a spring dessert luncheon at the church April 29. A gardening expert will talk and show pictures on "the easy way" to garden.

Following the benediction by Rev. Binnington, tea was served by hostesses Mrs. Harris, Mrs. Fuller and Mrs. Steffler.

YCHA Buttonville Branch

Mrs. Charles Hooper entertained at a coffee party last Friday morning, and the election of officers was held.

These named to serve in the year 1964-65 are Past President Mrs. J. Robinson; President Mrs. George Kelly; Vice-President Mrs. Verne Griffin; Secretary Mrs. F. Leaf; Assistant Secretary Mrs. Edgar Fuller; Membership, Mrs. N.R. Reid; ways and means committee, Mrs. A. W. Miller, Mrs. A. Robinson, Mrs. Russell Boyington, Mrs. D. Ridout, Mrs. A. Brown.

Mrs. Kelly occupied the chair during elections and later conducted the business. A banquet to be served to members of the Markham Township Liberal Association was planned.

The annual meeting will be held at Richmond Hill United Church on the evening of next March 12.

Mrs. J. Robinson, past president, described a meeting she attended at Newmarket of York County Hospital Auxiliary. Reverend Morrison Sellar

The United Church of Canada lost one of its most devoted members last week, with the passing of Rev. Morrison Sellar, B.A., B.D.

Mr. Sellar died in the Brantford Hospital February 5, following a brief illness.

Born in Scotland, Mr. Sellar emigrated to this country with his parents before the first world war. He served with the medical corps at that time and later entered the ministry.

During his student days he was a favourite at Unionville and Brown's Corners where he preached for a time and worked with the young people's organizations. It was here that he met his wife, the former Helen Rodick.

Mr. Sellar was a man who loved people and his work. During his years as a minister he served charges at Grand Valley, Glenmount United Church in Toronto and at Owen Sound for many years.

Three years ago ill health forced him to give up his pulpit at Owen Sound and he became assistant minister at Zion United Church in Brantford, where he worked with Dr. Levan.

On the Sunday before his death, Mr. Sellar preached two services, conducted a Bible class and a communicants class, and declared it one of the most satisfying days of his career. He was taken ill Monday evening.

The funeral service at Zion United Church February 7 and the interment at St. John's Norway cemetery, Toronto were widely attended by friends from the many charges Mr. Sellar served. Dr. Levan officiated at both.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mrs. Sellar.

Gormley Phones Change To '887'

Gormley telephone customers will have their exchange code altered in the fall according to W.C. Barnes, Bell Telephone Company manager for the area.

Explaining the change, the manager said, "Continuing growth in telephone service throughout the greater Toronto area and the expansion of local calling between a number of suburban exchanges in 1965, requires several changes in exchange codes, Gormley being one of the exchanges affected."

"If these changes were not made, we wouldn't be able to properly complete calls in 1965 when the wider local calling plan takes effect."

He went on to say that while the code would be changed from the present 886 to "887," the last four digits of a customer's telephone number would remain unchanged. The 1964 edition of the Aurora-Newmarket directory will list the new exchange code.

Mr. Barnes said a letter had been sent to Gormley customers explaining this change. Further information would be given, he said, as the time for its introduction approaches.

Public Night Skating Is Enjoyed Thrice Weekly At Pioneer Village

Night skating, weather permitting, is now available to the public at Pioneer Village. There is also tobogganing, skiing and the extremely popular horse-drawn sleigh riders around the village grounds.

Night skating is provided on Friday, Saturday and Sunday to 9:30 p.m. with heated shelter provided.

A refreshment booth will be open Saturdays and Sundays to the same hour.

The unseasonably warm weather lately has played havoc with winter sports here in this area. However, Mr. Groundhog did see his shadow on his special day and according to tradition we should have six more weeks of winter, so there is plenty of hope yet for you fun-loving people.

Many Visitors

Over 155,000 visitors toured the Black Creek Conservation Area, site of Pioneer Village, in 1963—a record attendance in the area's eight year history. The previous year, 127,000 visitors were recorded.

During 1963, school classes numbering 22,000 students toured the village. More than a million persons visited the nine conservation areas and Pioneer Village last year.

Many Projects

Projects carried out by Metropolitan Toronto and Region Conservation Authority in 1963 were outlined at an executive committee meeting recently.

They included:

- completion of most of the concrete work on Claireville dam and reservoir, west of Woodbridge. The dam, first of 13 to be built over the next 10 years by the authority in Metro area, will be completed by late summer.
- during 1963 a total of 216 properties containing 3,183 acres were acquired for the construction of dams, reservoirs and watershed channelization work, bringing the total to date to 686 properties containing 13,506 acres.
- improvements to the nine conservation areas.
- establishment of two fishing ponds at Palgrave.
- initiation of schemes for enlarging five conservation areas.
- assistance to development of farm ponds on private lands.
- fish management work in private ponds.
- completion of plans for the 1964 planting of 216,000 trees on authority lands.
- opening of the conservation school at Albion Hills Conservation Area for the education of metro and region school students.

This winter, the authority has laid out about two tons of mixed feed which is being used to supply its 40 bird feeding stations in the nine conservation areas.

What's What In The Yukon?

Ask Edgar McAllister, the gentleman in the top hat who with his wife is wintering in southern Ontario away from their home in Whitehorse and Dawson City in the chilly Yukon. A native of Bolton, Ontario, Mr. McAllister went west many years ago and is an ardent supporter of the north country. He has given travelogues on the Yukon in many local and Toronto schools and churches and will be heard at Brown's Corners United Church February 26.

Feeling tense, jittery?

Is the job getting you down? Are the children getting on your nerves? Are you losing your zest for living? One simple solution to tension is to "walk it off". Walking is the medicine most prescribed as a tension easer. Swimming, golf or bowling are the next best with tennis, calisthenics and gardening being less favored. 53% of 326 San Francisco physicians took part in a recent survey with the above results.

St. Paul's Church Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church in Vaughan was held in the Sunday school recently.

Rev. B.F. Andrew opened the meeting with verses 1 to 22 from the Book of Acts' 13th chapter, followed by prayer.

Mr. Andrew also acted as chairman with Alex Bishop as secretary.

All reports were favorable and were adopted as presented. Congratulations were extended to all helpers for the work done on the cemetery and thanks to teachers, officers and helpers for their efforts in the Sunday school.

June 25 was the date set for the annual Sunday school picnic at Boyd Park; the meeting closed with prayer. During a social hour, lady members served lunch.

That's the kind of oneupmanship we can do without! Hope that by now Mrs. Murphy is coming out of the fog and will be up and about shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Clark Hamilton, spent last week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Witly. Mr. Clark used to live and work in this area.

Congratulations to Roy and Pat Smith on their new arrival. Relax, it's a seven-week-old setter pup. From what we hear, Pat's reaction was somewhat short of enthusiasm when Roy brought home the new pet last week. By now though, she's mellowed a little.

The Women's World Day of Prayer service will be held this Friday at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Maple. This will be a family type service and women from the Presbyterian, United, Anglican and Lutheran Churches will participate.

Snow Is Annual Feature Of Maple Scout Banquet

The early part of last Thursday didn't appear to be running true-to-form.

Usually every year, Maple Scouts and Cubs have to escort their dads through a normal winter's onslaught to attend their annual father and son banquet.

When the first snowflurries started at 3 p.m., the auxiliary ladies preparing food and setting tables commented this seemed more like it.

Within the next hour or two, the flurries appeared to get out of hand until by the banquet hour of 7 p.m. it was indeed ridiculous.

Although the ladies were guided by Marg Crook and Audrey McGee held back the food to allow more city types to battle their way home, some dads just never did make it; although some of their sons hopefully came on ahead, a few others missed out on the annual big night.

Mel Clarke and Rev. Ralph Williams were delayed.

Head Table Guests

Two cubs Geoff Salmon and Michael Clark sat by their fathers at the head table which included the chairman who was Al Moore group committee member; Lowell House group committee chairman; Robin Derrick and his father Joe Derrick; President of Maple Lions Wally Moore (sponsoring group of First Maple Boy Scouts); Ladies Auxiliary President Bev House; Ray James, group committee member and Scout masters and assistants Pat Salmon, Ian Ferguson, Ada Watson, Shirley McDonald, Russ Locke, and Greg Shore.

Mr. Moore gave a resume of the Maple Scout-Guide Hall in the process of being built; there is still a $1,000 deficit and he asked for further support by canvassing and donations.

He also thanked the many firms who assisted by supplying building material and equipment "aiding the committee both materially and financially" and especially the men who had given their time as supervisors.

Guest was Rover Squire Robin Derrick of Beverley Acres.

As the official representative of York Summit District, this Queen's Scout attended the Boy Scout World Jamboree 1963 in Greece where 89 countries were represented.

In introducing him, former Scoutmaster Jack House told of Robin's continued interest in Scouting over the past 10 years including the two when he regularly attended even though on crutches and having to be pulled to the meeting on a wagon because of a knee ailment.

In 1961, he attended the Canadian Jamboree in Ottawa and reached the high point in Scouting when he obtained his Queen's Scout badge.

Although admittedly an amateur photographer learning through experience, Robin's colour films were most descriptive and interesting.

A "going up ceremony" followed with Cubs John Brown, Jim Sara and Mike Clark being trooped into the First Maple troop as Al Scouts.

A rousing ovation was given to the ladies for their abundant catering under the committee of Bev House, Eileen Birch, Eleanor Sara, Norma Baker, Audrey Magee and Marg Crook as well as the boys' mothers.
