Mr. Guppy is an employee of the town water works department.

Rehearsals began last week for the proposed November concert of the Richmond Hill Symphony Orchestra.

Forty members turned out to the rehearsal. Twenty-five of these are in the string section, with a pleasing balance in the woodwinds, brass and percussion.

Conductor of the orchestra is Arthur Burgin, with George Moseley concert master.

A first showing with the new mm. movie projector with sound, was held last Sunday afternoon by the M.T.H. Music Guild at 428 South Fernleigh Circle. It proved successful in turnout and response to the interesting films showing "Carnegie" (Canadian Amateur Musicians) the fine work it is doing and the music camp in the Laurentian mountains. Since some of the members had spent time there this summer, it brought back some happy memories. "Music for Children" made in Germany was the other film shown, dealing with the Carl Orff method. Following the film showing, there were discussions held on films, the M. T. H. Music Guild, whose motto is "education through recreation".

There are many projects now being started by the guild:—one being the starting of the adult and teenage recorder groups. Also, now that the guild has this projector, it will afford the opportunity of bringing in cultural films, in not only music, but in all the arts; for the arts are all related to each other.

The guild wishes to express thanks to Mr. Murray of the North York Public Library, for his assistance in obtaining the National Film Board movie.

Wayne Kirkpatrick of the Royal Canadian Army Service Corps, arrived home on Tuesday from Cyprus, where he has been stationed for the past six months.

The Citizen's Ontario and Quebec District Council meeting was held last weekend at the Bigwin Inn, Muskoka.

Attending from the Hill were District Lieutenant Governor Ray Armstrong and Mrs. Armstrong, Driscoll Road.

Penny Beggar Banks, in which the holder is asked to place only a penny a day, to assist the Canadian Freedom From Hunger Campaign may be secured in this area from Mrs. William Swarbrick, 9196 Yonge Street, Thornhill, or if you will phone AV. 5-6115, she will be pleased to deliver one to your door.

She reports that one penny will buy five glasses of milk for a child in an underprivileged country, that 100 pennies will feed a family for a week.

In the year the banks have been used the monthly revenue has grown to $1,000 from this source. This large sum made up of pennies will bring food and comfort to thousands of people. Wouldn't you like to help?

Three young members of the Richmond Hill Figure Skating Club—Donna Shubaly, Cathy Wilson and Lynda Taylor—successfully passed their C. F. S. A. tests held recently at the Metropolitan Ice Skating School at the Tam O'Shanter, following their summer and fall skating programme. Donna passed her Canada dance, and Lynda and Cathy, their Dutch waltz.

They are looking forward to the skating season in Richmond Hill commencing on October 19.

Members and prospective members of the Richmond Hill Curling Club recently enjoyed an outdoor corn roast at the curling club, Elgin Mills Side-road West. There was an excellent turnout and President Robert Austin hopes to make it an annual affair.

The club will be open every Friday evening for members and prospective members, until the beginning of the regular season which starts on October 23, with a mixed bonspiel.

A luncheon is being held on October 22 by the ladies of the club.

The new executive is: President Robert Austin; Secretary, Curly Lynett; Treasurer Lloyd Schoenoffer; Vice Presidents Walter Lavender, Clem Reeds, Walter Smoak. Directors Shawn Beggs, Peter Smith, Roy Warner, Dalt Hicks, Wilt Young, Bill McLeod and Floyd Perkins.

Miss Josephine Orr of Wright Street and her sister, Mrs. Leonard Abernathy of Tottenham have just returned from a visit to their brother's grave in the military cemetery at Hotel, the Netherlands.

Lloyd Orr was killed in that vicinity when his truck hit a land mine just after the ceasefire in World War II.

Miss Orr and Mrs. Abernathy were members of a party of 87 Canadians who flew across the Atlantic to see the last resting place of loved ones. Each person was made welcome in the home of the person who had cared for the individual grave with loving attention since 1945.

The two ladies were the guests of Miss Janna Beaverton who has cared for their brother's grave and had placed flowers on it in preparation for their arrival. On Sunday a memorial service was held in the cemetery attended by the Canadians and those who have given such loving care over the years to the individual graves.

On the return trip the party spent four days sight-seeing in England.

Both local travellers remarked on the profusion of flowers everywhere in Holland and the warm hospitality of the people.

The Fragments Are Together Again

Last Friday night The Fragments, which caters to young people of the community, resumed activities for the coming season in the basement of St. Mary's Anglican Church.

In its initial season last year the club filled a long felt want in the community, and its members eagerly awaited its re-opening. It meets every Friday evening and the program features coffee and folk singing.

Mrs. R. S. Cooper, Centre Street West is progressing favorably at York Central Hospital after injuries in a fall at her home last week. "The Liberal" joins with her many friends in extending best wishes for a speedy recovery.

The first general meeting of the fall season of the United Church Women of the Richmond Hill United Church took place on Monday evening in the Christian Education Building. Mrs. Geo. Fumerton presided over the devotional period which was held in the chapel. Guest soloist was Miss Lois Perkins. The speaker of the evening was Miss Margaret Halliday, a missionary from Angola. She gave a most interesting account of her work in Angola and spoke in particular about the program provided for teenage girls, teaching them to read and the basic home economic skills with special emphasis on diet. She brought with her several hand woven articles made by the women of Angola.

Mrs. Dickson Miller thanked Miss Halliday and presented her with a bouquet of flowers.

Mrs. L. D. Clement, the president, then took charge of the business portion of the meeting, after which refreshments were served followed by a social half hour.

For the Thanksgiving holiday, Monday, October 12, the Richmond Hill Post Office advises the following schedule will be observed: general delivery, registration and other wickets will not be open, and there will be no carrier delivery.

All letterboxes will be cleared at 4:30 p.m. for despatch at 6:30 p.m.

Even though he was not a competitor, it was a lucky night for Hans Hoffman of Hans Hoffman Hairstylists, Yonge Street, when he accepted the invitation to attend the Guild of Coiffure Design Arts and Sciences third annual hairstyling award competition held on Monday evening at the Fischer Hotel, Hamilton—and won the $50 capital door prize!

Mr. Hoffman found the program most interesting and was most enthusiastic about the latest hairstyling fashions and hair coloring products.

Accompanying Mr. Hoffman to the competition was Miss Elizabeth Toon.

Mrs. Jean Mirrieles, Lawrence Avenue, was the winner of the quilt, at a draw in conjunction with the bazaar held last Saturday by members of the Order of the Eastern Star, Richmond Hill Chapter No. 302.

The Richmond Hill Chapter No. 302 of the Order of the Eastern Star held a very successful bazaar last Saturday in the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church hall and basement. Mrs. Nan Simmons convoked the event.

The bazaar was opened by Mrs. Rose Morpheu D.D.G.M. of district No. 11. She was introduced by Worthy Matron Cora Magee.

An excellent turnout took advantage of the many varied articles on sale, which included delicious home baking, handicrafts, Christmas items, etc.—many of them donated—and during the afternoon a welcome cup of tea was served by Convener Mrs. Magee and her hardworking committee.

Keep our "Life in the Hill" columns up to date with your Thanksgiving weekend activities—the service is free—phone the Social Editor Margot Crack at 884-1105, drop a line to 623 Yonge Street South, or call in personally—we'll be pleased to hear from you.

A concert by the Symphonic Band of Kwansai Gakuin University, Japan, will take place this Saturday (October 10) at the Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre, 123 Wynford Drive.
