Neighborhood Notes
Mrs. S. J. English attended a post christening party for great grandson David William Bartram at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Bartram of Richmond Hill, last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Bartram is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ed. Bartram of London, and his wife is the former Ann Evans who is a theology graduate in the United Church of Canada and was a protégé of Rev. Eldridge Currey. Last year when the young couple lived in Kapuskasing they attended the church where Rev. A. C. Huston is minister.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke are proud great-grandparents now that their grandson Jimmie Johnston and his wife are now parents.

Several neighbours have been in hospital recently. Wee Bruce McArthur had a tonsillectomy and is fine; Mrs. Jim Rodick is making good progress following an operation last week at Scarborough General; Mr. E. D. Fierheller is recuperating from an operation at Scarborough, and Mrs. George Paget has been in the Toronto Western.

We wish all these friends a good recovery.

Marilyn Magee is home again after a trip to the Maritimes.

October 27 the Happy Timers will meet at the home of Mrs. John Buchanan, 41 Lunar Cres., Arnieigh Heights, for their monthly meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper left Sunday for a few days in Montreal.

Mrs. A. W. Miller flew to Pueblo, Colorado, last week for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. Donald Otis and Rebecca. Mrs. Otis is the former Velma Miller, and Dr. Otis is now head of the dental department in a Pueblo hospital.

We offer sympathy to Mrs. Verne Griffin, whose mother, Mrs. Philip of Toronto, suffered a fatal heart attack last weekend. The funeral service was from the Trull Funeral Home on Monday afternoon.

There was a general rallying for this first communion of the season and three new members were received on transfer, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pieterse from Carman United Church, Toronto and Mrs. Harvey Cox, formerly of Albert St. Church, Oshawa.

Dr. Binnington, new chairman of York Presbytery, wore the scarf of office given by laymen at Trinity United Church, Newmarket, to be worn by Presbytery chairmen on special occasions and explained its significance to children in the congregation.

The choir, under the direction of Mrs. S. J. English with Mrs. Donald Resor at the organ sang "A Prayer of Thanksgiving" and the church was beautifully decorated for the harvest season.

Waterston-Tooley Autumn Wedding
A pretty autumn wedding was solemnized at St. Luke's Church, Thornhill October 10 when Brucette Helena Tooley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Tooley, R. R. 1, Milliken, became the bride of Douglas Henry James Waterston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Waterston of Unionville.

Rev. E. S. Cossland officiated and Mrs. R. W. Southcott played the wedding music.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of white peau de soie with semi-full skirt and fitted bodice. The sleeves were lily point and the scalloped neckline, edged with Chantilly lace, dipped to a V back. Lace medallions dotted the skirt and a graceful chapel train flowed from the waistline. Her lace-edged and sequined veil was caught to a seed pearl crown and she carried a white prayer book with streamers and red rosebuds.

Bridesmaids Patricia Thomas, Pamela Waterston, sister of the groom and junior bridesmaid, Juanita Tooley, the bride's sister, wore gold peau de soie street length dresses. The senior attendants' dresses were fashioned with semi-full skirts, fitted bodices and scoop necklines, elbow-length sleeves and floating back panels. The flower girl's dress was a junior version.

The wedding breakfast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waterston and later there was a reception and dinner at the April Lane Banquet Hall in Scarborough.

Mrs. Tooley received her guests in a fitted gown of aqua peau de soie with fitted lace bodice, three-quarter sleeves and lace applique on the draped skirt front. Shoes matched her dress, her hat and accessories were champagne, and her corsage pink carnations and white pom-poms. Mrs. Waterston chose a mink-toned, sleeveless sheath dress with matching hat and accessories and a mink stole.

Her flowers were a purse corsage of gold carnations and pom-poms.

When the couple left on a motor trip to the eastern United States, the bride travelled in a brown and beige serano ensemble with gold hat, beige accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

On their return, they will take up residence in Brandon, Manitoba where the groom was recently transferred by his girl's dress was a junior version.

Rambling Around
dreams? These dreams are like waves in the mind impregnated by the essence of flaming maple leaves, misty October mornings, and smoke rimmed horizons. They are called forth by the crying of wild birds southward bound for winter quarters and all those other familiar earth sounds that flee before the oncoming winter.

Could it be that the spirit of man thirsts for the transcendent beauty that autumn displays in such a way that he cannot bear to see it go, or is he sadly reminded that for everyone in life there is an autumn. For the winter comes and a sort of death falls over the natural world. Only man remembers that spring will come again and he will just after its beauty and promise, knowing that it is the lusting of a joyful spirit that knows its life is begun and will last through the glorious days of summer. It is the mature loveliness of autumn that slows down the questing and eager spirit of man, bids him reflect on the transient quality of all the seasons and most certainly of his own.

Autumn is the prelude to another melody. Any day now the glad song will end in lament.

SONG OF AUTUMN
The bright banners of Autumn are flying
Far over the gypsy-clad land,
To the tune of the autumn winds sighing
And a farewell from Nature's wild band.

Soon they will drop from the bunting
Those leaves once so gaudy and gay,
Soon will the wild life cease hunting
For food and a warm place to stay.

Day by day, the bright leaves are falling
In a shower of crimson and gold
While the wild birds are loud in their calling
Come away! Come away from the cold.
