Exhausted But Happy
After New York Trip

Liberal carrier boy 12 year old Jim King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil G. King, South Taylor Mills Drive has reported to us in his own words on his recent trip to the New York's World Fair. (Jim won the trip in a circulation building contest held recently by "The Telegram."—Editor.)

About 400 of us fellows won a trip to the World Fair by earning 20 points.

We left the Union Station about 8:30 Friday night on a once in a lifetime trip. Due to telling jokes and chatting, practically no one got any sleep. In the morning, about 9 o'clock we arrived at the New Yorker, a hotel in New York where we stayed. After breakfast we were turned loose on the fairgrounds.

One of the rides that I enjoyed was the glass elevator which was about ten stories high. At the top, the height enabled you to see a perfect view of the grounds. The Swiss Sky Ride was another ride which gave you a good view of the fair.

Some of the exhibits I saw were the General Motors building which showed scenes of the future and Hollywood, USA, which showed how movies are made, and many, many more. The unisphere which was the fair's emblem weighed 370 tons and could be seen from anywhere on the grounds. For this reason, we used it as our meeting place.

On our way home we talked of what a wonderful time we had at the New York World's Fair. We arrived home at 8:40 Monday morning, exhausted but happy.

Fine Bookmaker
$1,000, Admits
Placing $2 Bets

A Concord garage owner, convicted of bookmaking for the past year, was fined $1,000 or four months in jail when he appeared for sentence by Magistrate O. S. Hollinrake Thursday of last week in Richmond Hill.

Garth Ross Boves, 37, convicted of the Vaughan Police charge October 6 when a statement he made to police was accepted as evidence he had been placing $2 bets for various people, was granted until November 12 to pay the fine.

Magistrate Hollinrake said he was attempting to follow the trend of sentence for similar cases in Toronto when he levelled the fine but indicated he would not also impose a jail term since Boves' betting operation was on a small scale and very few bets were placed over the telephone.
