Sport Spots

BY RON CRAINE

A STRANGE ATTITUDE

One of the strangest attitudes toward the sport that made his name a household word in Canada is taken by ex-Alouette great Herb Trawick. Mr. Trawick is quoted as saying that football is too brutal a sport and that he would never encourage any son of his to play the game. He also says that the average fan has no conception of the punishment a football player takes on the field of play. He is also reported to have said the game creates "athletic bums". But then what professional sport doesn't have its lunatic fringe?

As for being brutal the game of football can't begin to compare with the seamy world of professional fighting. In a football game a player goes in wearing just about every protective device a man can wear and still perform. Helmets protect the head and a face mask covers the mouth, teeth and nose. Kidney pads, shoulder pads, charleyhorse pads, knee pads, etc., are standard equipment for a ball player in addition to any additions or refinements a player might dream up for his own protection. By comparison just how much does a boxer wear? Less than a chorus girl at the Folies Berg-

Defeat High Park 26-15 In Semi-Finals

Indians Garner 11 Point Margin

BY RON CRAINE

Richmond Hill Indians carry an 11 point bulge into the second game of a two game total points to count series in Metro Football League action this Saturday. Last Saturday at High Park the Indians carved out a 26-15 win over the Eastenders and did so operating under extreme difficulties.

Quarterback Al Fleming was roused for the single point. The single point edge did not last too long as Bob Sheridan and Bill Dunn combined on a spectacular pass and run play to put the Indians out in front—an advantage they never did lose.

Sheridan returned to action after an absence of six weeks due to a severe shoulder injury. With the shoulder taped and protected with a thick pad of foam rubber Sheridan performed right on a par with his pre-injury style. From the mid field stripe McIntosh called a half back option with Dunn to carry. Sheridan was to break downfield and attempt to get himself in to the clear and the play went exactly according to plan. Billy Dunn took the pitchout from McIntosh, rolled left and hit Sheridan with a perfect pass at the Eastender ten yard line. Ron Burns kicked the convert and the Indians led 7-1 at the end of the first quarter.

Midway through the second quarter McIntosh hoisted a long, high kick to the Eastender end zone and the receiver fumbled the ball in the goal area. An alert Bill Tackberry was down fast and pounced on the loose ball for the major score. Once again Burns' convert attempt was good and the half ended with the Indians leading 14-1.

The Indians' third major was scored by Sheridan in the third quarter. McIntosh hit Sheridan with a little swing pass into the flat and the speedy back light roped the sideline for the score. No convert was made and the local team had a 20-1 lead.

Defensive lapses in the fourth quarter by the Indians set up two Eastender touchdowns. McIntosh dropped back to kick from inside the Indian ten yard line. The kick was received by Eastender Al Whitehead. He took off for the sidelines and romped all the way for the score with never an Indian hand laid on him. The convert was good and the Indian lead was cut to a 20-8 margin.

Several plays later a short pass into the flat saw the Eastender receiver go down the sidelines from the 35 yard line to score standing up. Once again the convert was good and the Indian lead was cut to 20-15.

Three minutes before the end of the game the fourth Indian TD was set up on an Eastender bobble. Once again a towering punt by McIntosh was dropped and an alert Indian regained possession at the Eastender 40 yard line and Bill Dunn broke around his own left end to carry to the three. Levi Snook was called on going right up ly found weaknesses in the Indian defensive wall. Some tremendous defensive play by Bill Tackberry, Terry Hemming, Ralph Mercury, Norm Sutcliffe, Fred Parsons, Gary Sokol and Ron DeFoe kept the Indians in command through much of the game.

This Saturday the final game of the semi-final series goes at the town park in Richmond Hill at 1 p.m. Eleven points will be the Indian lead going into the game but at this time this is definitely not an insurmountable total for the Eastenders to overcome. This game gives promise of being a classic and local football fans are reminded of the 1 p.m. game time. The Indians can use all the support that can be mustered and hope to see the fans out in full force.

Dynes & Leaside Win Opening Senior Play

Richmond Hill Dynes won a 6-2 victory over North York and Leaside Tildens downed Newmarket 5-4 in the opening games of the Richmond Hill Senior Hockey League Tuesday night of last week.

Despite his team's loss to Leaside Pete Lacey of Newmarket scored three times for the hat trick while Don McKnight picked up the odd counter.

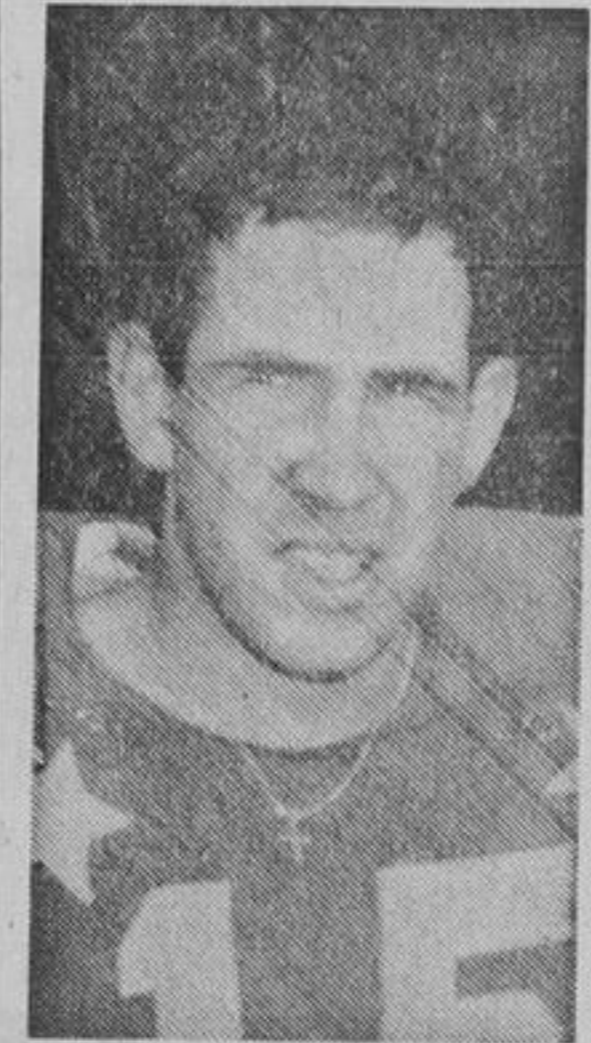

Matt Kinnari and Don Haymes each scored two for Dynes with Larry Bray and Dick Sweeney scoring singles. Trevor Henshaw and Len Johnson scored for North York.

A disappointingly small crowd of less than 50 spectators was on hand for the opening game.

Badminton Club In N. York Group

Richmond Hill Badminton Club with a membership of 35 will again compete in a North York League which will include King City, Aurora and Brampton teams. Downsview, a fifth member of the league last season, has withdrawn.

The local club plays Monday nights at Bayview Secondary School and is in its seventh year of successful operation. A few more players can be accommodated and information can be obtained from Lorne Leavens at 884-3808.

the middle and he smashed easily into scoring territory. The convert was not good and the game ended 26-15 in favor of the Indians.

Despite a psychological loss of Fleming the Indians displayed a do or die spirit that was admirable. And this was a very much aroused Eastender football team—not the same team that played during the regular season. They were hungry and determined and probed until they eventual-

Here's One For The Books

A hunter jumped the opening gun on the pheasant season Tuesday of last week but the bird escaped unscathed as did his pursuer.

The pheasant flew through an open window in a suburban industrial plant in the Windsor area and out an open window on the opposite side of the building it was followed by a .22 calibre bullet which lodged in the wall.

The pheasant season in Essex County opened October 28.

ful bruises after the annual Powder Puff game last Friday. Lumps and contusions blossomed on fair visages to raise money for the Loyal True Blue and Orange Home. The Blues triumphed over the Orange Maidens but who really cares? They raised a fair bit of money for the cause and that is exactly what they came to do! But ladies—please try to remember you're ladies and get that elbow out of my aching back! They play like it was for keeps!

Collingwood providing the opposition. Both junior and senior football teams go against King City in the play-offs. The juniors defeated Markham 6-1 last week while the Thornhill Seniors blasted Markham Seniors 19-0. Markham defeated Thornhill senior girls in a volleyball tournament last Tuesday.

In the intermediate event Dave Smith placed first and brother Malcolm Smith tenth. Paul McKenzie, Bruce Clark and Dave Thoms were the other members of the team that finished fifth overall.

The senior soccer team wound up the regular season by shutting out Langstaff 4-0 to finish the season unbeaten and unscathed upon. They now go to the Georgian Bay finals with

RICHMOND HILL HIGH

Over 120 boys took part in intramural junior and senior soccer and borden ball at the green and white school last week. The entire program was student convoked and officiated and final winners will be decided this week.

Next Saturday the O.F.S.S.A. cross country meet goes at Boyd Park and coach John Passmore has high hopes for his cross country teams.

Richmond Hill's junior football team won a 12-7 victory over Bayview. It was a good game right to the wire with Bayview leading 7-0 at the half and threatening to score as time ran out at the end of the game.

Dynes Win Senior Opener 6-2

Seasons play in the Richmond Hill Senior Hockey League began Tuesday evening of last week at the local arena. Mayor Thomas Broadhurst is seen as he faces off the first puck to officially open play.

Matt Kinnari (right) of Dynes faces off with Len Johnston of North York. Dynes won the opener by a convincing 6-2 score.

Ray Brooks Ball Prexy

One of the best attended general elections of the R.H.M.B.A. was held last Sunday in the local council chambers. There were 42 interested parties present, which was quite a welcome surprise to the executive that were officiating the afternoon's activities.

Future Stars Teams In All Categories Hockey Season Begins

Ed. Sackfield has two North-end Cleaner teams on the go this year. In addition to the bantam club he also has an atom club coached by Joe Ranieri. The ten-year-old players will get a fair amount of practice time and will take part in exhibition games but affiliated with no regular league this season.

Cleaner forwards were not backchecking too well and failed to help out a hard worked defence. Newmarket were full value for the win and both Reg Acomb and Jack Duncan had words of praise for the work of goal tenders Alex. Bain and Chris Amos.

SQUIRT

The CFGM Country Gentlemen have added Sandy Dunlop as assistant coach to Roy Brooks and Sil. Steffan as trainer. Players for the team have all been selected with a six player reserve in the house league ranks.

MIDGET

The Richmond Hill Legion sponsored midget team took a 7-4 thumping from Georgetown in Richmond Hill last Sunday. This was a team previously beaten by the Legion team but lack of desire and skating cost the local team dearly.

JUVENILE

The Town and Country Gentlemen juvenile team played an exhibition game at Georgetown last Thursday and the game ended in a 3-3 tie. Style of play and general conduct of the Georgetown team disgusted Coach Bill Points and manager Marsh Amos so much so in fact that they have no further interest in any type of return game with the Georgetown club.

BANTAMS

Newmarket outplayed and out-bumped Jack Duncan's Northend Cleaners last Sunday afternoon to record a 3-0 shutout win. Cleaner forwards were not backchecking too well and failed to help out a hard worked defence. Newmarket were full value for the win and both Reg Acomb and Jack Duncan had words of praise for the work of goal tenders Alex. Bain and Chris Amos.
