

Editor Margot Crack

R. Hill Senior Citizens
The monthly meeting for the senior citizens will be held on November 11 in the Christian education building of the Richmond Hill United Church at 2 p.m.
Everyone welcome.

Plans are nearing completion for St. Matthew's United Church Bazaar on November 14 and its convener report that fair weather is all that is needed to make this annual event the most successful to date. It will be officially opened at 2 p.m. by the wife of St. Matthew's minister, Mrs. James Burn.

Local Jaycees attending the recent week-long 19th annual Junior Chamber of Commerce International Congress at Oklahoma City were President Alan Smyth and Ralph Markham.

Fifty-five countries were represented at the meet and 1,600 delegates were registered. Oklahoma was selected for the gathering in 1962 at the congress in Hong Kong. This is the first time in seven years the congress has been held in the United States.
At was accompanied by his wife Jacque and the Smyths enjoyed the first week of a two-week vacation in Albuquerque, New Mexico, before journeying to Oklahoma for the convention.

Mrs. J. W. Butler, wife of Magistrate Butler, Wright Street is at present a patient in York Central Hospital, having suffered a coronary on October 25.
No visitors are allowed at the moment, but her many friends in the community wish her a satisfactory convalescence, and a complete return to health.

The Library Club of Richmond Hill High School and the Films for Children committee present their second program of the 1964-65 season with the showing of the film "Secret Tunnel".

This film which, by the way, is made by the Children's Film Foundation and filmed in England, tells of the adventures of two boys who are on the track of a gang of thieves engaged in smuggling stolen goods. They are caught by the thieves but make a daring escape and succeed in bringing the thieves to justice. This is a very popular film and is acceptable to all ages.

The second episode of the exciting serial "Raiders of the River" will also be shown.
Children are advised to be in their seats on time so as not to miss any of the story. Parents are always welcome.

A speedy recovery is extended to Wes Middleton, who was admitted to York Central Hospital on Wednesday last.

A former councillor, and resident of Richmond Hill, Mr. Middleton has been residing on the Gormley sideroad, but on his recovery will be moving to 15 Roosevelt Drive, Thornhill.

A successful production is equally dependent on its back stage crew as cast members, and in the St. Matthew's Players production of "The Clock Struck Twelve" the team work is such that local theatregoers can look forward to a first class evening of entertainment.

Handling the back stage duties are:—properties, Mike Derry; costumes, Anna Derry; lighting, Ron Joyce; sound effects, Verda Steness; stage manager, and set designer, Lynda Davis; assistant stage manager, Jim Dean; make up, Audrey Wilson, Lilly Martin; hairstylist, Monica Wood; house manager, Dawson Lang; refreshments, Peggy Renshaw.

The play is being presented in the auditorium of Our Lady Queen of the World Church, Bayview on November 9, 10 and 11, and tickets may be obtained by calling Peggy Renshaw at 884-5635.

the piano teacher
ESTELLE MARKHAM
884-3787

CANADIAN CANCER SOCIETY
Richmond Hill & District Unit
15 Yonge St. N.
Local Services Rendered to Cancer Patients
Drugs Dressings Home Visiting Nursing Services Housekeeping Service Home Nursing Services Diverstonal Programme Patient Transportation Lodge Accommodation
For Further Information 884-3348

The many friends of Mrs. Henry Bradley, Lucas Street, will be pleased to hear she is making satisfactory progress in St. Michael's Hospital, Toronto where she underwent surgery for a broken hip, sustained in a fall at Levedale Road last week.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Hospital for Sick Children extends an invitation to local residents to attend their "Open House" to be held on November 10 from 10:30 until 4:30 p.m.

There will be some wonderful handknits, handsewing, home baking, plus really unique Christmas decorations for sale. Also a very popular "Treasure" room where a wide variety of used items, from jewellery to housewares can be purchased at real bargains, as these items are all donated by the members of the auxiliary.

For those who are interested in seeing through the hospital there are guided tours starting at 2:30 in the afternoon.

The Hospital for Sick Children is unique in that it is for children only, with patients coming from all over the country, and this project is the only way, other than the operation of the 5 Fifty 5 Gift shop, that they have to make the funds which go toward the many extras for the patients and staff of the hospital.

York County Press Club held a "Hallowe'en Hassle" last Friday night in a colorful setting of pumpkins, posters and skinny black cats.
Among those attending from this area were President, M. G. Huntley, Councillors Walter Scudis and Lois Hancey, all of Richmond Hill, Mrs. Toby Shore and Mrs. Lily Pearce of Maple and Mrs. Elizabeth Kelson of Thornhill.

St. Mary's Anglican Church continues its dedication festival celebrations next Sunday with a former assistant curate, the Rev. J. R. F. Moore preaching at the 10:30 service.

Mr. Moore is now rector of Lakefield, Ontario.

Get an early start with your Christmas shopping and plan to attend the Hollyberry Fair being held this Saturday at the Church of St. Gabriel, corner of Bayview and Crosby.

There will be a variety of handmade gifts to please any member of the family, and of particular interest for the young fry—dolls clothes and candy booth.

Light refreshments will be available during the afternoon.

The guest speaker at the open meeting of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary on November 12 will be Mrs. J. R. Phin, past president of the Hospital for Sick Children. Her topic will be "The Role of the Volunteer."

The meeting, in the hospital cafeteria, will also include reports from committees and the draw for the doll.

The first Thursday afternoon unit of the U.C.W. of Richmond Hill United Church will hold their regular meeting this Thursday in the church parlor.

Mr. Spanner will give his report of General Council and show his pictures of Newfoundland.

Its bazaar time again and Richmond Hill United Church would like to extend a cordial invitation to one and all to attend their annual bazaar this Saturday.

The candy, home baking and delicatessen foods are delicious and there are numerous unusual and eye-catching items for sale. A new feature this year is the clothing opportunity shop.

While taking advantage of the free nursery care and after touring the abundant booths, mothers can relax and enjoy a refreshing cup of tea.

You won't want to miss this bazaar, so keep the date in mind—November 7.

Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Reycraft, who have recently taken up residence at 58 Centre Street West.

Mr. and Mrs. Reycraft, who were married at Hart House Chapel on September 18 returned last week from a honeymoon in the British Isles.

Mr. Reycraft, a lawyer, and son of Toronto lawyer and director of York Central Hospital Board J. R. Reycraft and Mrs. Reycraft, is a member of the city firm of Reycraft and Reycraft, Barristers, and Mrs. Reycraft, the former, Cynthia Godbold of Toronto, is a public health nurse.

Richmond Hill Horticultural Society this week planted a bed of four hundred tulips on the lawn of York Central Hospital. The planting is a donation by the society and the hospital board has expressed appreciation for the contribution to the beautification of the grounds.

Congratulations to 11-year-old Paul Boreham, Cartier Crescent, a young dancer who made his U. S. television debut on October 24 and was the winner over other contestants on "Uncle Jerry's Show" on WBEW TV.

Paul will be competing in the finals within a couple of weeks against the winners of previous shows, when local residents will have the opportunity of watching him perform.

Paul, a pupil of Sylvia Garson Dance Studios is showing great promise in the field of entertainment, and every success is wished him in his career.

The M.T.H. Music Guild had its official opening of the season October 25. The gathering was an exciting one, with suggestions from the members for new projects this year. The project adopted for this season is to organize a young and senior adult choral group to sing from madrigals to Broadway musicals and will work in conjunction with last year's project "Recorder Group". Anyone interested in joining this choral group should call 884-3802 evenings.

Since the guild has obtained a 16mm. movie projector with sound, almost any type of movie musical or otherwise will be available. Any requests for certain films to be shown to members and friends can be made by calling the above telephone number.

At the present time, the guild is sponsoring a young rhythmic group ranging in age from 4 to 6 years, based on the Carl Orff method, which is an asset to the youngsters when starting a formal music education. Further information may be obtained from the above phone number.

Anyone desiring to become a member of the M.T.H. Music Guild, which is a non-profit organization, please do not hesitate to call and avail yourself of the free record and book libraries.

The Sunday night youth group at St. Mary's Anglican Church will be led by the Rev. Ken Maxted, assistant at St. Anne's Church in Toronto.

Mr. Maxted served in the Korean War as a lieutenant and was recently ordained to work in the downtown area of the city where he was raised. The discussion will be entitled "The Asphalt Jungle."

All young people of the parish are invited. Mr. Maxted will be the preacher at Evening.

On Friday evening last several officers and members of Richmond Hill Chapter No. 302, Order of the Eastern Star, attended the constitution of Peace Rose Chapter No. 315, Georgetown, Ont.

After the ceremony, members of Credit Masonic Lodge presented the Peace Rose Chapter with the Christian flag and Eastern Star flag.

A very inspiring evening was enjoyed by all.

The many friends of Bing Lew, popular local restaurateur, will be sorry to hear he is at present a patient in York Central Hospital where he is undergoing a series of tests.

The next meeting of the Engineers' Wives will be held on November 11 at the home of Mrs. Jack Miller, 7 Sussex Avenue.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Gladys Allison, a member of the York Historical Society, who will speak on the history of York County.

Members who are unable to attend the December meeting are reminded to bring their mental health gifts.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sparrow, Knolside Drive, were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Barty Watson, from Prince George, British Columbia.

Mrs. Watson (Jacqueline) arrived on October 9 to spend Thanksgiving weekend with her parents, was joined later in the month by her husband, who spent the remainder of the holiday with her, both returning to Prince George at the end of the month.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. K. Stephenson, Ashlar Road, who celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary on October 20.

On the following Saturday fifty relatives, friends and neighbors joined them at a party at their home, and enjoyed dancing and entertainment provided by Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson's daughter-in-law, Margaret, who sang and accompanied herself on the guitar. Margaret also made the professional decorated two tiered wedding cake which graced the dining room table for the buffet supper served.

Many cards, gifts and verbal congratulations were received by Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson who will long remember this auspicious occasion.

A very successful bazaar was held at Thornhaven School on Saturday.

Mrs. G. Webb, principal, and the staff assisted the students to act as sales clerks at the fishpond and craft table.

Besides being a financial contribution, the bazaar introduces the students to the public, especially all their friends who work for them each year on this special day.

The Royal Canadian Institute's scientific lectures for the fall season begin Saturday night, November 7 at 8:15 in Convocation Hall, University of Toronto. The president, Dr. Helen Hogg, will be the first speaker. Her subject will be "Our Starry Universe."

For further information for the following five Saturday evening lectures write to the secretary, 191 College St., Toronto, 2B.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Maitland Benfer Road, entertained the honor graduates of Bayview Secondary School following the commencement last Friday.

During the intermission of dancing, the guests were entertained by the Hardy Minstrels. Miss Paddy Maitland and Miss Patricia Price served at the refreshment table.

Mrs. Lloyd Hawkes, Roseview Avenue, returned home on Saturday, following two months' vacation in England, visiting relatives and friends.

The play "Aunt Tilley Goes To Town" presented by the Players Workshop of Our Lady Queen of the World parish on October 26, 27 and 28, was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

This is a comparatively new group and all are to be congratulated for their excellent work. Very ably directed by Russell Bruce and produced by Frances McNaughton, the cast included Lynn McArthur, Joyce Brian, Russell Bruce, Malcolm Peake, Bob Champeaux, Freida Copping, Nancy McCaugherty, Sharon Gaffney, Grace McNaughton and Velma Kyle.

The regular monthly meeting of the Richmond Hill Chapter of the I.O.O.F. was held at the home of Mrs. Stan Pipher, Arnold Crescent on November 2.

This was a work meeting and Mrs. A. MacNaughton and Mrs. W. Barnes taught the members how to make lovely beeswax candles and outdoor decorations for a fund raising project. If anyone is interested in purchasing one of these candles please call any member. Mrs. Frank Southwell was installed as a new member.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served. Members are reminded to bring draw string bags to the next meeting which will be held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Houston on Birch Avenue, and will be in the form of a pot luck supper.

Clearing out your cupboards? Wondering what to do with your outgrown and unwanted clothes? If so, please help a very worthy cause—the Dorcas Committee.

They are desperately in need of clothes to outfit needy families, especially pants, jackets and shoes, suitable for boys 17 to 20 years old.

If you have any contributions please call Mrs. G. Montgomery at 884-5548 who will arrange for a pickup.

Jack Ashworth, former business administrator for the York Central District High School Board was the guest speaker at the recent graduation exercises for the grade 8 students of Mackillop Public School. Mr. Ashworth is now a public school principal in Newmarket.

As always, there was a willing response to all requests and suggestions and it is hoped that the conference will be as successful as other meetings and projects of this group.

At this meeting the mothers were asked to provide refreshments for the Cubs on apple day, which was October 24, and again on November 7 for the oncoming bottle drive.

They are also going to serve a luncheon for the York Summit District fall conference on November 26. It is expected that the Cub and Scout mothers from all over the district will attend, including King, Maple, Markham, Thornhill and surrounding areas.

As always, there was a willing response to all requests and suggestions and it is hoped that the conference will be as successful as other meetings and projects of this group.

At the October meeting of the Thornhaven W.A. plans were completed for their "Treasure Fair" to be held at Morgan Hall, Markham, on November 14. Christmas gifts and decorations are featured with home baking and a tea court.

The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Beattie sang at the Sunday morning service of St. Matthew's United Church this week.

A Bible study group for young people 17 to 28 has been formed at St. Matthew's United Church. The first meeting will be held on Friday, November 6, 7 p.m. at 7 Maralim Rd.

At the October meeting of the Thornhaven W.A. plans were completed for their "Treasure Fair" to be held at Morgan Hall, Markham, on November 14. Christmas gifts and decorations are featured with home baking and a tea court.

The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Beattie sang at the Sunday morning service of St. Matthew's United Church this week.

A Bible study group for young people 17 to 28 has been formed at St. Matthew's United Church. The first meeting will be held on Friday, November 6, 7 p.m. at 7 Maralim Rd.

At the October meeting of the Thornhaven W.A. plans were completed for their "Treasure Fair" to be held at Morgan Hall, Markham, on November 14. Christmas gifts and decorations are featured with home baking and a tea court.

Guess Who?

The King and Queen of Hearts costumes above were among the many original creations worn by the guests attending the Hallowe'en housewarming party given on Saturday by Mr. and Mrs. D. Douglas-Crampton, Maple.

Rivalling the Arts Ball for colour and pagentry were Arabs, Indians, Vampires, the King of France, the Cardinal, Peter, Paul and Mary, Guinevere from Camelot, the Greek God Pan, an 1875 hostess, Granny and Jed Clampett, Bo Peep, Anne Boleyn, a hammer, a nail, and causing great amusement, Mrs. Mopp.

Designer and creator of four outstanding costumes worn by the hostess and other guests, was local resident, Gary Fichault, an employee at York Central Hospital, who spends most of his spare time adding to his collection of costumes, which will all be completed for a "Pageant of Costume", to be staged in the early part of next year.

Have you identified them? Well known local residents—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Butt, Elizabeth Street.

(Photo by Stuart's Studio)

President William Hamilton and Mrs. L. Trotman extend thanks on behalf of the Richmond Hill and District Branch of the Red Cross for the support given to the bake sale held at Allencourt Plaza on October 25. Particular appreciation is given to those women who served in the sale all day Saturday and to those who contributed to the magnificent array of delicacies.

It is reported the sale was very successful and the proceeds will be used towards the purchase of crutches, wheel chairs and other equipment for the branch's loan cupboard. This equipment will be available for loan to the general public.

A meeting of the 4th Richmond Hill Cub and Scout Mothers' Auxiliary was held on October 21 at the home of Lee Milligan on Sugar Maple Lane. It was the first meeting of the year, and a good number of mothers was present. The business in hand was pleasantly combined with a hat auction, ably handled by Pat Randall as the auctioneer. With the prospect of Hallowe'en in view there was no lack of interest on behalf of mothers involved. The meeting was both productive and enjoyable.

At this meeting the mothers were asked to provide refreshments for the Cubs on apple day, which was October 24, and again on November 7 for the oncoming bottle drive.

They are also going to serve a luncheon for the York Summit District fall conference on November 26. It is expected that the Cub and Scout mothers from all over the district will attend, including King, Maple, Markham, Thornhill and surrounding areas.

At the October meeting of the Thornhaven W.A. plans were completed for their "Treasure Fair" to be held at Morgan Hall, Markham, on November 14. Christmas gifts and decorations are featured with home baking and a tea court.

The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Beattie sang at the Sunday morning service of St. Matthew's United Church this week.

A Bible study group for young people 17 to 28 has been formed at St. Matthew's United Church. The first meeting will be held on Friday, November 6, 7 p.m. at 7 Maralim Rd.

At the October meeting of the Thornhaven W.A. plans were completed for their "Treasure Fair" to be held at Morgan Hall, Markham, on November 14. Christmas gifts and decorations are featured with home baking and a tea court.

The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Beattie sang at the Sunday morning service of St. Matthew's United Church this week.

A Bible study group for young people 17 to 28 has been formed at St. Matthew's United Church. The first meeting will be held on Friday, November 6, 7 p.m. at 7 Maralim Rd.

At the October meeting of the Thornhaven W.A. plans were completed for their "Treasure Fair" to be held at Morgan Hall, Markham, on November 14. Christmas gifts and decorations are featured with home baking and a tea court.

The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Beattie sang at the Sunday morning service of St. Matthew's United Church this week.

A Bible study group for young people 17 to 28 has been formed at St. Matthew's United Church. The first meeting will be held on Friday, November 6, 7 p.m. at 7 Maralim Rd.

At the October meeting of the Thornhaven W.A. plans were completed for their "Treasure Fair" to be held at Morgan Hall, Markham, on November 14. Christmas gifts and decorations are featured with home baking and a tea court.

The junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Thomas Beattie sang at the Sunday morning service of St. Matthew's United Church this week.

Hi!

Mom is sending this photo of me to Grandma for Xmas! Gee it was real 'cool' getting my picture taken and Mom was pleased because no appointment was required on Tuesdays 10 to 12 and 2 to 4:30. I bet your Grandma would like a picture of you!

STUART'S STUDIO

30A Yonge St. S.

884-6741

Good eating AT SAVINGS!

Grade A - 2 1/2 to 3 lb.
Chickens No Giblets lb. 33¢
LEGS & BREASTS
CHICKEN lb. 49¢
SHOULDER
Pork Roast lb. 35¢
Wieners 3 lbs. 89¢
C. NELS GAGE
BAYVIEW PLAZA TU. 4-7691

THE RICHMOND INN MOTOR HOTEL

Introduces The RICHMOND BANQUET ROOM
Book Now For
— CHRISTMAS PARTIES —
BANQUETS, WEDDINGS, RECEPTIONS ETC. ETC.
Licenced Under The Liquor Licence Act
For Information Call 884-1101
69 Yonge St. South - Richmond Hill

LIBERAL CLASSIFIEDS-Get Results-884-1105

"THE HILL" DRIVING SCHOOL
LOCATED IN RICHMOND HILL
Government licensed and qualified instructors. All cars dual controlled and fully insured. Automatic and standard shift.
Free home pick-up.
Call 884-6952

Have You Any Idea What It's Like Singing 'WHY NOT TAKE ALL OF ME?' Dressed As A Sausage?
one of the 200 laughs in 'Come Blow Your Horn' Curtain Club - Nov. 18-21, 25-28
Tickets: 884-3861 & 884-2957

SPECIALS FOR THIS WEEK AT ELGIN MILLS GENERAL STORE
(Just Opposite Wm. Neal's New Car Showroom)

RED BRAND ONLY
BLADE & SHORT RIB
ROAST lb. 59¢
WIENERS 2 lbs. 69¢
POTATOES 10 lbs. 39¢
BREAD reg. 22¢ 2 for 39¢

WE SELL JUG MILK - HOMO-55¢ 2% - 49¢ Plus Deposit

WE DELIVER 884-5155 Use Our Convenient Lay-Away Plan. A Small Deposit Will Hold Any Article Till Christmas

Gift & Toy Section Watches Jewellery Toys Games Transistor Radios Alarm Clocks

Mrs. W. O. White

Mrs. Ethel Louise Shouler White, beloved wife of the late William Osborne White died at the Villa Private Hospital last Friday. Mrs. White had been a resident of Richmond Hill for the past 50 years and was a member of St. Mary's Anglican Church.

She is survived by four sons, Bernard of Toronto, Eric of Ferguson, Leslie of England, Alan of Richmond Hill; and a daughter Phyllis, Mrs. William Phillips, of Crystal Beach.

Funeral services were held at the Pipher Funeral Home on Monday with interment in Richmond Hill Cemetery. Pallbearers were four of her grandsons, Robert Phillips, William White, Arthur White, Brian White and Stan Clarke and Ross Kerwin.