

Thornhill Groups Plan Lectures, Films, Parties

St. Luke's Church
A general meeting of the CWL was held November 2. Guest speaker, Sister Muriel Brown from the Cenacle Retreat House, Bayview Avenue spoke on the value of retreat. A Christmas party has been arranged for CWL members, to be held at the home of President June Mallon December 14. A. S. Mallon will show slides on "The Story of Christmas".

Presbyterian
Mrs. K. G. McMillan, wife of Rev. K. G. McMillan, D.D. of the Canadian Bible Society spoke to the Fortnighters November 2. Her subject was "Challenge of the Changing World".

Dr. D. V. Wade of Knox College conducted the services November 1. He was assisted by G. Cook and L. Diamond in the morning and C. Atkinson at the evening service. Dr. Wade, who lives at Concord, visited many lay training centres in Europe last summer.

Rev. Dillwyn Evans preached in Knox Church, St. Thomas on November 1.

The mothers' auxiliary of the Scouts and Cubs met in the board room November 5 and installed new officers.

There will be a box in the narthex every Sunday in November to receive Christmas gifts for mental patients. These can be for a man, woman or child—and please do not wrap.

November 8 was youth Sunday. Scouts and Cubs paraded at the morning service. In the evening the young people were in charge and the YPS executive was installed.

United Church
Sixteen ladies attended the business executive meeting of the UCW October 26. They made final arrangements for the November 7 bazaar and planned a luncheon for the men of the church prior to their canvass on November 22. Mrs. T. Harrington and Mrs. L. Morrison are convenors. Dinner arrangements were also discussed for the senior citizens' dinner December 16.

November 1 was observed as Reformation Sunday, marking the anniversary of Luther's nailing his thesis to the door of a church in Wittenberg.

Teachers are still required for the Sunday school. The kindergarten, ages 4-5 requires two teachers and the intermediate department, ages 12-14 needs one teacher. The junior department needs a pianist.

Continuing his sermons on Protestantism, Rev. A. I. Higgins will preach November 15 on the topic "Protestantism—Its Strength and Weakness".

Holy Trinity
A family film festival was held in Holy Trinity parish hall on November 6, with collection going to the Canadian Bible Society.

Plans are shaping up for the bazaar "In Old Thornhill" on November 20 and 21. A poster competition, sponsored by the bazaar committee for all children of the church school is in progress.

Three prizes are to be awarded for three different age groups. Every poster submitted will be shown at the bazaar.

Canon Robert Dann, Rector of St. Paul's, Toronto will be guest speaker at the congregational dinner November 12.

A film in the Billy Graham series was shown to the Teens and Twenties after the November 8 evening service.

On November 7, all members of the 3 T's were invited to a "hootenanny" featuring the Ken Jones Quartet. A dance followed.

November 15 the Teens and Twenties will hear a guest speaker at a corporate communion breakfast and on November 22, Rev. R. Rugh will speak at their evening meeting.

A meeting of the 3rd Thornhill Scout and Cub Mothers' Auxiliary was held November 5 at the home of Mrs. Eitel Elvidge, Campbell Ave. New mothers were introduced and the new executive installed.

Mrs. Pat Mills of the York Summit executive board was present, as was Mrs. F. C. Jackson, wife of the 3rd Thornhill chaplain.

President Mrs. Hedges presided and tea was served by Mrs. Betsy Stow and her assistants.

Mrs. Hedges, secretary Mrs. Evelyn Burden and members Mrs. Lillian Horton, Mrs. Tony Tyler, Mrs. Norma Doyle, Mrs. Eva Peters, Mrs. Betsy Stow and Mrs. Doreen Hodge plan to attend the fall conference for the York Summit district auxiliaries at St. Mary's Anglican Church, Richmond Hill.

Cancer Society
The Thornhill branch of the Canadian Cancer Society would be pleased to loan any of their films to interested groups. For women they have "Time and Two Women", "A Story for Women" and "Breast Self-Examination".

Films suitable for showing at men's groups are "Man Alive", "Traitor Within", "Life Story". School groups would be interested in seeing "From One Cell", an especially good teaching film in cartoon form.

"Research on Smoking", "To Smoke or Not to Smoke". All groups could profit from viewing "Is Smoking Worth It?", "The Scouler Case," "The Choice" and several others.

"What is Cancer" is a film prepared for professional groups, nurses and doctors. All films are in color and may be obtained by calling Mrs. John MacKay, 167 John Street, 285-1635.

Nursery School
Thornhill Co-operative Nursery School held its first parents' meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. M. Tamblin November 2.

Guest speaker was C. Lawton Bird, co-ordinator of music for the North York Board of Education. His thought-provoking speech, "They Can't Have Music," developed the theme that children of all ages can benefit by being exposed to good music, but only the best music is good enough for our children. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Tamblin and members of the executive.
