2 Markham Accidents Reported By Police

Dates to remember: November 12, 8 p.m. general YCHA meeting at the hospital.

November 13, 1 p.m. at Buttonville WI Hall, YCHA luncheon.

November 17, 6:30 p.m. at Brown's Corners Church, congregational dinner.

December 20, 7:30 p.m. at Victoria Square Church, candlelight service.

Last Sunday morning at Brown's Corners United Church Dr. A. F. Binnington officiated at the christening of five baby girls. The children were the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reesor (Sharon Elaine); Mr. and Mrs. George Gill (Kelly Ann); Mr. and Mrs. John Brumwell (Diane Rita) and Mrs. Bert Craigie (Trudy Alfreda) and Mr. and Mrs. Rae Donaldson (Linda Ann).

With the exception of Mr. and Mrs. Gill who are newcomers, one or both of the parents named have been actively involved in the work of the church.

There were after-christening parties at the Donaldson and Reesor homes following the service.

Helping to celebrate at Rae and Betty Donaldson's were grandparents Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Snider relatives Sammy and Janet with their two children and Doug and Joan Tribbling and their three. Guests of Don and Dorothy Reesor were grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Hood and Mr. and Mrs. Reesor, Hood and Reesor aunts and uncles and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid.

Mrs. Walter Brumwell is at Scarborough General Hospital making a good recovery after surgery last Friday. Probably the birth of her first grand-daughter born to Mr. and Mrs. Dean Brumwell on the same day in the same hospital made the picture a much happier one for her.

Dick Jones and Elmore Hill have been hunting in the Haliburton region for the past two weeks and according to Mr. Jones a good rain is needed. The woods are tinder dry and fire an ever-present hazard.

Another old landmark is gone from the neighborhood this week. The house on Don Mills Road south of Highway 7 which was formerly the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McQuay has been demolished to make way for a plant nursery.

Mrs. Morrison Sellar spent several days with her brother and sister Jack and Mary Rodick last week and on Sunday the Rodicks motored back to Mrs. Sellar's Bramford home.

Another neighbor on the sick list is Mrs. Bruce Armstrong who is in York Central Hospital recovering from an operation.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Norman Reid who celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary last Saturday.

That spur of the fifth concession south of 7 Highway has been a real problem to anyone accustomed to traveling daily, particularly school buses. But cheer up, a smoother day is dawning. Soon there will be pavement on this stretch to salute international plowing match contenders in 1965. The match next year will be at Massey-Ferguson Farms.

Mrs. Harold Steffler, Mrs. H. R. Paterson and Miss Mary Rodick were at the Simcoe Street Clothing Depot (United Church) Tuesday of last week. Bazaar Successful.

What is a bazaar? If you ask the women who have held one recently you may not get a clear answer... they are still too groggy. But they are happy too.

As a matter of fact, a bazaar is a great many things. Imagination, zeal, co-operation, effort, hard work and honest satisfaction, to name a few.

Last Saturday Brown's Corners United Church in the Christian education room, and it was a gathering place for people from far and wide.

Old friends and new vied for home baking, handmade articles, candy. Antique lovers and children had a field day at the white elephant booth, as well as those lucky enough to pick up a good-as-new bit of clothing.

To top off the afternoon, there was tea served by the happy timers in an attractively decorated mezzanine.

Thornhill Session

Recently, when the session of Thornhill United Church held a retreat at Brown's Corners Church, the group was served luncheon by group three under the sponsorship of Mrs. Douglas Hood and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson.

YCHA (Buttonville Branch)

Mrs. Russell Boyington was hostess Friday morning of last week when the Buttonville branch of York Central Hospital Auxiliary met.

Plans were laid for the fundraising lucky luncheon at the WI Hall Friday.

Sunday School Workers

Two groups of church workers interested in Sunday school problems have meetings scheduled for the next few days.

On November 14, the new curriculum workshop for superintendents and teachers will be held at King City United Church. Those attending are asked to bring a box lunch. Coffee will be provided, and the registration fee is 50 cents.

On November 16, at 8 p.m. Markham Township Sunday School Association is sponsoring a discussion group for teachers, officers and pastors at Stouffville Christian Church.

Markham Township Police reported only two accidents over the past weekend.

Scarboro motorist John Albert Parsons, 32, apparently missed a turn on the Markham-Pickering Townline south of Highway 7 November 7 and plowed through a hedge and into a tree. He was unhurt and damage to the car, a leased vehicle, was $200.

There were also no injuries in an accident Sunday on John Street and Bayview Avenue when cars driven by Victoria L. Burda of Elmdridge Acres, Thornhill and James Johnston of Willowdale were in collision. Total damage was $575.
