

Ag. Rep.

Invites Comment

A. A. Wall, agricultural representative for York County, invites all farmers in the county to send him questions, comments, criticisms and ideas on farm topics. In this way he hopes to know what farmers are interested in and aim his news bulletins towards those interests.

Noting that York County agriculture is widely diversified, Mr. Wall points out that crops range all the way from vegetables to high-energy livestock feeds and to cash crops. There is a wide range in live stock too, he reports, poultry, dairy, beef, hogs, horses and sheep being good-sized segments of the industry.

His farm reports will serve the best interests of everyone concerned when farm people start influencing the kind of information that goes into them, Mr. Wall claims.

His office is in Newmarket and he will welcome letters, phone calls or a personal call to discuss farm problems.

If you have something to say or ask about, there is a very good chance that it will be important to others as well.

Charge Local Man With Possessing Illegal Weapon

A Richmond Hill man was charged last Wednesday with possessing a sawed-off shotgun. John Eschbach, 38, 118 Cartier Crescent, was released on $2,000 cash bail when he appeared on the charge at Richmond Hill Magistrate's Court last Thursday.

Regulation size for a shotgun under the Criminal Code is not less than 20 inches. The weapon in question has a barrel of 7¼ inches and looks like an old French duelling pistol.

Eschbach will appear again on November 12.

Pickering Twp. Shelves Lottery

Pickering Township Council has decided not to allow the controversial lottery issue for Canada to become an issue in council. The decision was made plain at a recent meeting at Brougham following receipt of a letter from Georges Balade, M.P. for Montreal (Ste. Marie), requesting an opinion on the subject.

Councillor William Newman charged members were opposed to open discussion on the flag question and he considered the lottery issue to be equally out of order. Councillor John Campbell stated he was opposed to official state lotteries and charged that "the federal government is only passing the buck."

Councillor Herb Wank, who had opposed any discussion in council on the flag issue, said he would carry the lottery debate no further, but stated "We are only burying our heads."

Work Of R. Hill Artist Shown At Public Library

A collection of pleasant oil paintings, the work of Leslie G. Collins of Richmond Hill has been on view in the Gordon McLaren auditorium of the Richmond Hill Public Library this past week and will remain until Friday.

Most of the colorful landscapes were painted within a 50 mile radius of Richmond Hill—at Newmarket, Gormley, Palgrave, Caledon and surrounding areas, with some of them even closer to home. Several were done in Baker's sugar bush on the Langstaff sideroad and a sunlit scene of wheat stocks was painted on Bathurst Street.

Scenes further north, at Temagami, the French River and Georgian Bay are equally interesting, as are two painted this summer in the Gaspé. Several charming floral paintings are also included.

While the paintings are done in a traditional, naturalistic style which sometimes verged on the Christmas card type of scene, Mr. Collins has a bright, clear palette and a good sense of design. His paintings are a charming and accurate rendering of the beauty of the Ontario countryside and architecture. They are also very modestly priced.

NEWMARKET: Mayor W. A. Kent addressed the student body of Huron Heights Secondary School recently, speaking on matters relating to municipal government. Questions from the students included some on assessment, the mill rate, petitions, by-laws, annexation, liability and insurance.
