102 Members And Guests Enjoy November Sr. Citizens Meeting

President E. Lomax welcomed 102 members and guests from Thornhill Senior Citizens at the November meeting at Richmond Hill Senior Citizens held in the Christian education building of the Yonge Street United Church.

Rev. James O'Neil conducted a short service of remembrance with two minutes silence and prayers followed by singing of "O God Our Help in Ages Past." He was thanked by the president.

Information re gifts for mental health patients may be had from the secretary. Eight cards had been sent to the sick, and bowling and day centre activities are still progressing, it was reported. Members were reminded to bring donations for the bazaar to the day centre the evening of November 27 or November 28 before 11 a.m. Mr. Lomax reported the executive of the United Senior Citizens of Ontario are quite active in the interests of all seniors. Greetings were extended to people having birthdays and on a 50th wedding anniversary. With Mrs. Lillie at the piano, Mrs. E. Masters led a sing-song.

Dr. E. M. Dutton, assistant advisor of programs for older people was then introduced by the president. The doctor urged the senior citizens to keep active and endeavor to live their lives independently, to take part in local affairs, endeavor to understand existing conditions and develop the dignity of old age. Today's problems affect both young and old, he said and senior citizens can help with their knowledge and experience.

Dr. Dutton said there are a great many compensations for growing old today, quoting "If women have a gleam in their eyes men never see the wrinkles on their faces." He concluded by saying today's older

This Week's Happenings In Victoria Square

Explorers
The girls of the Explorer group collected $14 for UNICEF on Hallowe'en.

Turkey Supper
The annual turkey supper was held Wednesday evening of last week when close to 500 people were fed.

Euchre
There were 15 tables of euchre players at Victoria Square Community Hall on Friday evening of last week.

Prize winners were Mrs. Alma Johnson, Mrs. Ethel Attridge, Mrs. Maude Irwin, Mrs. Co by Vanderkoo, Charles Hart, John Orr, J. Bowden, Fraser Gee. The lucky draw was won by Roy Brooking.

Another party will be held November 20 at 8:15 p.m.

Church News
On Sunday morning, Rev. H. S. Cobb was guest speaker. He was here in the interests of the Canadian Bible Society.

November 22 at 11:30 a.m. T. T. Whyte will be in charge of the service.

Presentation
Following the service on Sunday morning, a fellowship luncheon was served by the members of the United Church Women.

On behalf of the congregation, Dr. A. F. Binnington, Percy Bennett and Mrs. H. McCague presented Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Boynton and girls with a lighted oil painting. Mr. Boynton thanked everyone for the gift. They have moved to the Thornhill district and will be greatly missed in the work of the church and Sunday school.

Used Stamps
The girls' intermediate class in Sunday school is saving "Used Stamps" to send to "The Mission to Lepers" an international and interdenominational group founded in 1874.

Canadian headquarters are at 67 Yonge St., Toronto. From the sale of stamps received in 1963, 20 patients were supported for the whole year.

If anyone wishes to assist the class it would be greatly appreciated. It is requested that stamps have a 1/4 inch margin of paper from the envelope around them. Postage stamps, any denomination.

Turkey Shoot
A turkey shoot will be held in Victoria Square Community Centre Park November 21 at 1 p.m., sponsored by Victoria

Square District Lions Club.

Sunday School Meeting
Sunday School Superintendent Percy Bennett has called a meeting for all teachers, assistant teachers and officers and anyone interested in the Sunday school work for November 23 at 8:30 p.m. to make preparations for the white gift service and the Christmas program.

Neighbourhood Notes
