Neil-Gibbs Wedding Reside On Bayview

A beautiful wedding took place November 14 at 11:30 a.m. at St. Mary Immaculate Church, Richmond Hill, when Miss Brenda Lori Gibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gibbs, Willowbank Ave., was married to David N. W. Neil, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Neil, Rosemary Ave.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony was Rev. J. O'Donnell, with several selections by the organist, Mrs. Southcott, and soloist Mrs. A. L. Moore singing "Ave Maria."

The bride given in marriage by her father, looked radiant in a floor-length gown of fragile silk chiffon with lily print sleeves, scoop neckline trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The bouffant skirt was highlighted with two dainty chiffon roses and the bow-trimmed bustle back accented to a brush train. A crown of pearls and crystals held a double illusion veil and she carried a cascade of red and white roses.

Matron of honour Mrs. Patricia Nicol, New Toronto, wore a topaz pea de soie gown with matching pill box hat and veil and matching shoes. Bridesmaids Miss Susan Manigold, cousin of the bride, Miss Linda Neil and Mrs. Carol Friend, sisters of the groom, wore gowns of pink and white with matching pill box hat, veil and shoes. The bride's attendants carried cascades of bronze and gold chrysanthemums. Best man was William Friend, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushers were Gerry Mossington, cousin of the bride, Ronald Neil, brother of

Notes From King City

The Catholic Women's League held a successful bazaar in Sacred Heart School Auditorium, convened by Mrs. H. Blackett.

President Mrs. A. Boon welcomed the guests and members. Mrs. Armand Chenette convened the bazaar, assisted by Mrs. H. C. Smollet and Mrs. Lorne Marsh.

The candy booth was in charge of Mrs. Robert Crook. Knitted goods were displayed by Mrs. A. Skinnulus and Mrs. E. Senchysyn.

The touch and take table was a busy corner, convened by Mrs. L. J. McCormick, assisted by Mrs. T. McCormick and Mrs. K. McCormick. Miss Florence Cain looked after the sale of aprons, aided by Mrs. Frank Crossland and Mrs. Ken Winter.

Mrs. Peter Molevelt was in charge of the doll draw, assisted by Miss Jan Winter and Mrs. Augustus Clarke. Tea was served by the Girl Guides, under Mrs. Molevelt's direction.

Mrs. B. Hogewonag won the doll prize. Mrs. John Nehera was lucky winner of a quilt and Miss Terry Smollet took home a box of groceries.

The CWL appreciated all the assistance given by neighbors and friends in making the bazaar a worthwhile event.

King City WI

Mrs. B. H. Feindell of the Third Concession line was hostess for King City Women's Institute's November meeting. President Mrs. Austin Rumble reported on the area convention in Toronto.

Plans were made for an eight weeks' St. John Ambulance Brigade course in March and April, which will require an enrolment of 20 or 30.

Anniversary Service

King City United Church Senior Choir was invited to the first anniversary service in Emmanuel United Church, Aurora, South.

Rev. Douglas Davis, one-time minister in King City, led the morning service, during which Mrs. M. Lawson was soloist.

The King City singers assisted in the evening, when Rev. A. Torrence of Toronto Home Missions Council was guest speaker.

While the first anniversary of the church building was being marked, the congregation was formed three years ago. Among those from King joining with their neighbors were Mrs. Aubrey Wade, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Campbell, Miss Annie McBride and Mrs. Alfred McBride.

Later in the week when the first turkey supper was held in the church, Mr. and Mrs. George Rumble attended with Miss Annie McBride and her brother.

Property Changes

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lawson and children, Kendra and Reid, are living in the new house they had built on Keele Street just north of the branch of the Humber.

Their home in Heritage Park was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Gillham, who moved in from their "Maple Lane" farm at Strange. Mrs. Gillham is continuing her part-time teaching, assisting the principal at Kettleby Area School.

Sixth Concession neighbors, the Henderson family of "Hawthorne Hills", acquired the Gillham farm.

King City Badminton Club is in full swing for the 1964-5 season at King City Composite School, led by the following new executive: President, John Jenkins; Vice-presidents, Fred Bourke and Yvonne Brown; Secretary, Rene Bamford; Treasurer, Pat Branson; and equipment convener, Past President Jack Hamilton.

The attendance of about 40 members allows for a few prospective members. The group uses three courts in the high school gymnasium every Monday and Wednesday evening, starting at eight.
