RCAF Party At Orange Home

Christmas came early for these young ladies at the Jefferson Loyal True Blue and Orange Home this year when Royal Canadian Air Force personnel including Barbara Croucher and Monique Simmonds (left and right) paid their annual visit to the home bringing dolls, toys, stockings and refreshments. The gifts were gathered at an all-ranks dance at Camp Borden where the price of admission was a toy. This is the fifth year the RCAF staff have visited the home.

TSA 3 Markham

Has $12,000 Cushion As It Enters New TSA No. 3

Ratepayers at Headford, Buttenville, Victoria Square and Gormley (Markham Township School Area No. 3) will have a comfortable $12,000 cushion to absorb some of the shock of entering the new Markham Township School Area No. 2 which will come into effect on January 1 for schools lying east of Bayview Avenue.

This reassuring news was relayed to the board by Secretary Harold Hill at its final meeting held recently. Other assets include five school properties in the area, plus the newly acquired school site in Cheet Country Club section and general inventories of supplies and equipment.

Board members Melvin Wellman, William Hibbard, Douglas Melvin and Stanley Richardson, also dealt with securing a permanent supply teacher for No. 4 school and transportation problems in a heavy agenda.

January Class

For the second year a January Class will be set up at No. 1 school on Don Mills Road north of 17th Avenue. Children whose sixth birthday falls between January 1 and July 1, 1965, may attend this special class for beginners. Mrs. Lois Ruegg will be the teacher.

Farewell

Last year Mrs. Ethel Boyd taught this group and it was most successful. Chairman Morton thanked board members for their cooperation during the past three years since the township school area board was formed. He commended them for their fine spirit. "We have not always agreed," he said, "but all have voiced their opinions and a friendly atmosphere has prevailed." "Special mention was made of Secretary Harold Hill, whose quiet efficiency kept the wheels of school business running smoothly.

On the first day of 1965, the new Township School Area Board No. 2, including Mrs. Mildred Toogood, Edred King, Arnold Morrison, Stewart Watson and Elson Miles will assume educational responsibilities.

Good Ambassadors

"Hilltoppers" Corps Needs Your Donations

The "Hilltoppers" Drum Corps is seeking the support of residents of Richmond Hill and district in their efforts to raise funds to balance their books by the end of the year. Needs are still in excess of $2,000 for new uniforms and equipment purchased to keep these youthful ambassadors of goodwill as an active group and an excellent advertisement of our community.

During this year the "Hilltoppers" have won third prizes in the Kitchener Lions Parade, the Welland Parade and second prize in their class in the Canadian Drum Corps Competition held in Varsity Stadium Toronto. Besides this they have participated in the local minor sports parade and in parades in North York and Islington. District residents saw and heard this smart drum corps on December 5 in the Santa Claus Parade.

Area Police Plan Step-Up Season Spot-Checking

Several of the area police departments will be taking a sterner approach to drinking drivers in an effort to curb holiday mishaps.

In King Township, Chief Leslie Pengelly said his department is taking advantage of Metropolitan Toronto Police's stepped-up publicity against the dangers of drinking to hold extra spot-checks and patrols throughout the township beginning this week.

Vaughan Township's spot-checking began Tuesday night and will continue right through into the new year, Chief J. W. Davidson said. "Last year, we sent the drivers home in taxis. This year, we won't. We're going to be a lot more firm."

Markham Chief Harvey Cox said his department will be running their usual shifts and checks with all the men available on the alert.

And in Richmond Hill, Chief R. P. Robbins said his officers will be "clamping down this year."

Last weekend, Metro Police spot-checked 1,222 motorists and charged 311 in the 48-hour period with offences ranging from dangerous and impaired driving, failing to remain at the scene of an accident and defective automobiles.
