NEW YEAR RESOLUTIONS

Now that the dawn of a whole new year is upon us, it is customary to make some resolutions for the next twelve months. We quit many years ago—it's too darn hard to live up to good intentions! Instead, there are some things we hope happen in the next year but we won't be too upset if they don't all, or even any of them, come to pass.

Let's hope the swimming pool at Crosby and Newkirk Avenues in Richmond Hill finally gets filled with water. And gets filled in time for a lot of kids to have a good summer of swimming. Along with that wish, let's hope that the summer is WARM enough to make us want to swim!

Let this be the year that the Toronto Argonaut Football Club has been promising for lo! these many years. We hope that Bob Shaw is the prophet who will finally lead them from the slough of despond where they've been mired for many, many years.

Let us hope also that the event will prove popular enough to become an annual affair. It could be a good deal!

Above all, let's all hope that we have the kind of year we wish ourselves and that all plans, dreams and desires come true. The end of this year is almost upon us and the time has come to wish one and all a very happy, healthy and prosperous new year!

Christmas in Headford
Christmas was quiet in Headford with families uniting to share the cheer of the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummer Lee had as their guest Mrs. Lee's mother, Mrs. E. M. McDougall, Toronto.

David and Sharon Rumble, home for holidays, John and Marilyn, Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rumble and Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Middleton spent Christmas day with Stewart's mother Mrs. D. Rumble, Maple. Absent from the family gathering were Isabelle and her husband Ralph Tucker, who are in Jamaica.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barker and Charles left sunny Headford Christmas morning but ran into heavy fog before reaching Manilla where they held Christmas with Frank Barker and his family the Fred Nixon's.

Friends were glad to know that Mrs. Freeman Barker was well enough to spend the day with her husband in the home of her sister Mrs. D. Glover, Victoria Square.

Bob and Pat Stapon and family made merry with Pat's sister Mrs. E. Jones, Kleinburg.

The Homers were allowed a Christmas free of chicken pox but December 26 Marilyn produced the evidence.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Leek, Rosemary and Albert were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Leek, Gormley on Christmas day and on Sunday joined a Reaman family gathering at the home of Mrs. Leek's mother Mrs. D. Reaman, Concord.

Holiday callers in the community were: Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Kerr and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Kerr, Streetsville, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Beatty and family, Acton at the Calder-Guild home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Millen, Downsview, former residents of Headford at Mrs. W. Wellman's.

With regret we report that Mrs. L. Bagg, a former resident, is ill in Cottage Hospital, Uxbridge.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Healy, Scarborough entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson and Noreen

Christmas at the Brodie's is an annual arrangement with the Wes. Clark's and the Brodie's are return guests with them on the New Year. Other guests were Jean Clark and Ruth with her husband George Boynton and Mr. and Mrs. J. Hutton (Margaret Brodie).

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wallace were happy to have Carl's mother, recuperating from a stay in hospital, for a few days. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. Klencz, Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Roeman and family, Maple and Mrs. W. Wellman enjoyed Christmas with the Melvin Wellman's, Mr. and Mrs. R. Clarkson, Unionville with small son Scott were Christmas guests in the home of Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Clarkson, Mrs. L. Topham, Stouffville, Mrs. Clarkson's mother was also a guest with her daughter's family.

"Good Old Days"

With each bright New Year there are often nostalgic reminiscences of the 'good old days' and certainly there are many customs of 'times past' that we should cling to but, there are others as this list of rules laid down for nurses in 1887 and published recently by Cleveland's Lutheran Hospital, indicate.

"In addition to caring for your 50 bed patients each nurse will follow these regulations:

- Daily sweep and mop the floors of your ward, dust the patient's furniture and window sills.
- Maintain an even temperature in your ward by bringing in a scuttle of coal for the day's business.
- Light is important to observe the patient's condition, therefore, each day fill the kerosene lamps, clean the chimneys and trim the wicks. Wash windows once a week.
- The nurse's notes are important in aiding the physician's work. Make your pens carefully. You may whittle nibs to your individual taste.
- Each nurse on day duty will report every day at 7 a.m. and leave at 8 p.m. except on the Sabbath on which day you will be off from 12 noon to 2 p.m.
- Graduate nurses in good standing with the director of nurses may have an evening off each week for courting purposes or two evenings a week if you go regularly to church.
- Each nurse should lay aside a goodly sum of her earnings for her benefits during the declining years so that she will not become a burden. For instance if you earn $30. a month you should set aside, $15.
- Any nurse who smokes, uses liquor in any form, gets her hair done at a beauty shop or frequents dance halls will give the director of nurses reason to suspect her worth, intentions and integrity.
- The nurse who performs her labours, serves her patients and doctor faithfully without fault, for a period of 5 years will be given an increase, by the administrations, of 5c a day, providing that there are no hospital debts outstanding.

Neighborhood Notes

To all our readers health, wealth and happiness in 1965!

Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hill spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Robinson at Thornhill (Hazel Hill) and this week they expect a visit from their daughter Allie, Mrs. Eric Charly of Timmins.

Terry Whyte preached at Brown's Corners Church last Sunday and Miss Joy Fuller played the organ. Mrs. George Hooper sang "Lo, How a Rose".

Christmas was marred for many in this community by the tragic death of Charles Milsted, and serious injury to his daughter Charleen, in a motor accident on Christmas Eve. Mr. Milsted served as postmaster at Gormley for several years and had many friends in the area. We extend sincere sympathy to Mrs. Milsted and the family.

With a whole weekend to entertain, Christmas parties were well spread out this year.

Sammy and Janet Snider had Janet's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Oakes as their guests.

At the Albert Jones home on Hugson Drive, the party included Mr. and Mrs. Donald McQuay and their new baby and Mrs. James McQuay.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Miller were Christmas breakfast guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Miller and their family at Markham and later had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mingay.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Fuller entertained the Gohn family and the Bobbets spent the weekend with relatives at Aylmer.

Janet Craig was home for the holidays, and other Christmas guests at the Walter Craigs included Mr. and Mrs. Lauder Hamilton of Colgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Stephenson spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Milner at Unionville where Mr. Milner's daughter, Mrs. Muldoon of St. Thomas and Mrs. Milner's brother, Mr. Galbraith were also present.

At the Rodick farm guests included Mrs. Morrison Sellar, Mrs. S. J. English, Mr. and Mrs. James Rodick, Mrs. Mary MacPherson and the Harpers of Bolton.

On Sunday, the Aubrey Stephensons entertained Mr. and Mrs. Norman Wilson and Larry of Orangeville and the Ken Stephenson family. Larry is spending the week with his grandparents and visiting with the Stephenson children, Glen and John.

Congratulations to Raymond Gohn, son of Sue and Donald Gohn, who received the nicest Christmas gift a little boy could have—a baby brother—born at the Scarborough General Hospital December 16. Mr. and Mrs. R. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. I. Gohn are happy to welcome a new grandchild. Don and Sue brought the baby home last Sunday.

Chickenpox is abroad in the neighborhood and the flu bug is attacking whole families for a day or two at a time. Last Sunday the Hooper family was stricken—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hooper, Jean and George Hooper and their children—but it was Christmas Sunday, the junior choir sang at church and Joan was there to lead them, sick as she was.

Mrs. Russell Tooley returned recently from a visit with friends in Cleveland and found a welcome home party in her honor hosted by Mrs. James Tooley, Mrs. F. W. Baker and Mrs. Will Clark. There was euchre and a midnight supper.

Alf Shenfield spent a day in Buffalo recently attending a Shriner's gathering.

There were season's greetings from Whitehorse, Yukon, in the mail last week. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. McAllister who were the Rodicks' guests for much of last winter are staying in the land of the midnight sun this year and send best wishes.

While they were in the east they visited relatives and old friends, and Mr. McAllister did a remarkable job of public relations for the Yukon as well. He gave talks and showed slides at 55 gatherings; visiting service clubs, lodges, schools and church groups. He also handed out literature at the World Plowing Match, the Royal Winter Fair and the Sportsman's Show, where he talked with many people about the land of his adoption.

Last summer he spent some time at the Tourist Information Centre in Whitehorse and met many interesting visitors to the north.

Lucienne Lecouve Of Goodwood Is Bride Of Harold Rose, Gormley

On December 19, in Headford United Church, Lucienne Lecouve of Goodwood became the wife of Harold Ross, Gormley. Dr. F. A. Binnington officiated.

The bride, on the arm of her brother, Philippe Lecouve approached the chancel while the choir, with Mrs. Stewart Rumble at the organ, sang "Praise my Soul the King of Heaven". Before her entrance the choir sang, "Take my Life and Let it Be".

The bride wore a gown of Alice blue brocade and carried small white and yellow mums. She was preceded up the aisle by her sister Helen Lecouve, Montreal wearing a gown of gold colored taffeta and carrying a bouquet similar to the bride's.

The groom was attended by his brother Alan Ross, Kitchener.

While the register was being signed the choir sang, "O Perfect Love".

Sixty guests sat down to the wedding supper in Victoria Square Community Hall, served by the local women's institute.

In his toast to the bride her brother Philippe said that matrimony was like a mirror, it reflected only what was put in it. He also likened marriage to a moving train, it is always going someplace. "Man and wife do not need to depend on others for their happiness but to retain it they must share and communicate." He concluded with a firm brotherly warning "And so Lucienne you must always stop, look and listen to Harold."

The groom responded with gratitude. Alan Ross proposed the toast to the bridesmaid and Douglas Ross the toast to the parents.

The bride's daughter Joanne, on behalf of herself and her brothers and because she was the eldest of the young people in the two families welcomed Bonnie and Willie Ross. She warned that difficulties of adjustment might occur but their was every reason for them to add to their parents happiness by a friendly sharing.

The bridal party then moved to the home of the bride and groom in Don Mills where a great many friends called to congratulate the couple and to wish them happiness.

The Carrville United Church Junior Choir had a gala Christmas party this year. The party was organized by their very able leader Mrs. W. Bowes and was assisted with the preparations by Mrs. A. Read, Mrs. F. Purves and Mrs. R. Veitch, and Mrs. D. Reid.

Christmas Sunday Mrs. A. I. Higgins was in charge of the Christmas service. She presented the story "The Lost Christmas of George Mason" for the children and also the ageless story of the "Crowded Inn" for the young and older alike. During the service the choir presented many lovely anthems.

Get well wishes to several of our Carrville folk who have been confined to the hospital. We hope that the new year will bring them good health.

As anyone could tell the past few lines are last weeks news, but everyone knows what the last few days before Christmas are like so maybe you will forgive me when I tell you I drove by the Liberal office twice with my news column tucked neatly in my purse and very nicely I brought it home. I do hope everyone had a very merry Christmas and you are all I am sure looking forward to a very happy New Year.

Carrville UCW

The Carrville United Church Women will meet at the home of Mrs. F. Purves on Wednesday evening, January 6, Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Middleton for refreshments and devotions Mrs. Barton Leader, and Scripture Mrs. Bushell.

This year I would like to do another Christmas at Carrville where I put a few lines in about everyone in our little community on how they spent their holidays, so please give me a call and let me know, or you shall hear from me.

A Happy Prosperous New Year to All.

Dynes Blanket Black Hawks 8-1

Coach Unhappy About "Ho Hum"

After popping in five fast goals in the first period, Richmond Hill Dynes coasted to a relatively easy win over North York Black Hawks 8-1 at Richmond Hill Arena last week.

Although he was happy with the final score, Dynes Coach "Shorty" Bray said he was concerned over Dynes' inability to play the hockey they are capable of throughout the entire game.

"They look like world beaters", griped "Shorty", until they have established a comfortable lead and then they stop hustling and assume a "ho hum" attitude which reflects in their playing."

Most fans feel, however that with the pepper pot Mr. Bray at the helm, the Jewellers are quite capable of playing a full 60 minutes of hockey when faced by stiff opposition.

In the scoring department, Doug McInnis started things off with a blistering shot from the point. Then Moe Williamson combined with Alan and Leonard Bray to make it 2-0.

Larry Bray kept up the rapid fire pace as he drilled one home neatly assisted by Matt Kinnari and McInnis, who one minute later took a perfect pass from Kinnari and fired his second goal of the night.

Jim Wells climbed aboard the scoring bandwagon trapping a pass out from Charlie Mashinter and driving it into the net.

Dynes cooled off a bit at this point and were unable to add to the score until near the end of the period when Williamson bulged the twine with the help of McInnis and Kinnari.

North York's only goal came off the stick of Gary Thorpe as he stole the puck from a Richmond Hill rear guard, walked in and beat Doug Finney cleanly.

In French sections of Canada special food is set forth for the family at Christmas Eve since according to legend if the cat meows in the house that evening, bad luck will follow.
