themselves for ARC and trustee service. "There's a great deal of satisfaction in trying to promote good recreational outlets for children", he said. Under the sponsorship of ARC, Thornhill Pool has developed more than 2000 swimmers and some are of the championship class. ARC promotes baseball and tennis in the summer and hockey in the winter. Many children have learned to skate and handle a hockey stick on the pond.

"Trustee work is good training for any man or woman who has an eye to being councillor or reeve of a township," he added. "You learn how to run public affairs, how to trouble shoot, and acquire knowledge about road maintenance. There's opportunity to learn about law, drafting by-laws and insurance. You understand how to let out contracts for lighting, roads and garbage collection. You learn to set up a budget and stay within it."

"I found it interesting and rewarding work," said the ex-chairman. "I heartily recommend it as an experience in education and responsibility to all our people."

Have You Read These?

By Richmond Hill Public Library Board

MR. PRIME MINISTER
1867-1964

by Bruce Hutchison

One of the most sought after books of the current crop of new publications. Fourteen of the prime ministers discussed have been known personally by the author, resulting in a comprehensive, enlightening volume on all of Canada's prime ministers. Bruce Hutchison, the author of many outstanding books is a recognized authority on Canadian economic and political affairs.

THE FIELDS OF NOON
by Sheila Burnford

The author of the well beloved story, "The Incredible Journey," presents a humorous collection of essays based on her outdoor adventures in Scotland and Canada.

HERZOG
by Saul Bellow

Hailed as one of the most outstanding novels of the year, Saul Bellow's Herzog, is a character study in depth of a sensitive American attempting to solve the human dilemma of modern times.

THE NEW MEANING OF TREASON
by Rebecca West

A classic work on traitors and defectors of World War II, including some of the famous spy and subversion cases of the 1950's and 1960's. Dame Rebecca West in this enlarged and revised edition of her book, originally published in 1947, includes versions of her famous accounts of William Joyce (Lord Haw-Haw), John Amery and Dr. Alan Nunn May who transmitted atomic spy secrets to the Soviet Union in 1940-1950. Dame Rebecca adds her shrewd analyses as those of the Rosenbergs, Klaus Fuchs and the Profumo case, and analyzes with great perception why England was so susceptible to the scandals caused by the defection of Burgess and Maclean. A new look at the challenging phenomenon of treason in our time.

ALICIA IN TERRA MIRABILI
Lewis Carroll

For those who enjoyed, Winnie-the-Pooh, here is yet another challenge to see how Latin has weathered the years. The Latin translation of the ever popular, Alice in Wonderland, by Professor Carruthers of McGill University.

TERROR IN THE NAME OF GOD
by Simma Holt

A Vancouver Sun journalist, who is familiar with the activities of the Sons of Freedom, gives an interesting account of the turbulent history of the Doukhobors.

Your Brother's Keeper

"You are your brother's keeper"—and never more than at Christmas time.

With all the joyous excitement and good will of the season, there are too often needless tragedies to mar its happiness.

Why not sit down now and see what you can do to make your home a safer one, particularly at this season of the year when excitement can make people—both young and old—just a bit careless.

These are all small things—don't let them contribute to an accident at your house.

Where will you put all those shiny Christmas toys so that friends and neighbors won't trip over them and come to grief? Perhaps Dad could make a special box for skates and other toys.

Have your Christmas wrappings been safely disposed of and not left around where a careless smoker could set them blazing?

Are the ornaments on your Christmas tree hung high enough to be out of reach of small members of the family or tiny visitors?

The tree lights are a joy to all, but are you sure they are not overloading the circuit? Are you certain there are no frayed wires?

And are you still remembering to put water in the tree container so it won't get tinder-dry? In spite of this attention, trees do dry out in our very warm houses and it's best not to leave the tree up too long.

And above all don't let your hospitality send someone to hospital. Make the "one for the road" coffee, and if one of your guests isn't in condition to drive his car, don't let him. Send for a taxi, get someone else to drive him, or drive him yourself.

Let's make the 1964 holiday season the safest and happiest on record.

Few Accidents, Markham Police

Accidents were few and far between for Markham Township Police over the holiday weekend.

On December 25, damage totaled $300 after a crash involving cars driven by Leon Mainor, King Street East, Toronto and Dawn Sweezy, Edgar Avenue, Toronto at Don Mills Road and 19th Avenue. No one was injured.

On December 26 at 8:45 p.m. following a collision on Don Mills at the Steeles Avenue intersection Diana Lyons, 17, of Toronto, a passenger in a car driven by Joseph Gray of Aurora was treated for minor injuries at Scarborough Hospital and released. The Gray car collided with one driven by Harold Sedore, RRI, Keswick. Charges are pending. Damage was $250.
