

The annual town service will be held at 11 a.m. January 17 at the Anglican Church of St. Gabriel. All members of public bodies in the town have been invited to attend this service in which prayers for the community and leaders will be offered.

The New Year is well under way and activities have resumed after the festive season recess. Keep the community informed of your group's accomplishments by phoning or dropping a note to the editor of this page. Your friends and neighbors are always interested in reading of newsworthy events in your family, and we are always happy to publish reports of them.

A birthday party was held on Saturday at the home of Mrs. D. Barfoot, 216 Norfolk Avenue, for her mother and brother, Mrs. Margaret Lewis of Toronto and Herb Lewis of Scarborough. A delightful surprise for Mrs. Lewis was to see her brother James Hislop and his wife from Montreal among the many guests.

The week of prayer for Christian unity which begins January 18 and continues until January 25 will be observed at St. Mary's Anglican Church, by daily services in the chapel with special intercessions for the cause of unity among Christians.

Attending the Central Ontario Drama League's Twelfth Night party on Friday at the Hot Stove Club, Maple Leaf Gardens, were Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller, Professor W. S. Thomson and Mrs. Thomson, Dr. R. Painter and Mrs. Painter, Mrs. D. Thatcher, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Crack and Mr. A. H. Gabb.

Appearing this week in "The Deputy" at the Crest Theatre, is local lawyer, Joseph Rabinowitch, Kerrybrook Drive.

Local guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. Fleming, Mr. and Mrs. P. Cone, Mr. and Mrs. D. Washington, Mr. and Mrs. W. Barber, Mrs. F. O'Hara and Mrs. P. Drummond.

Richmond Hill Chapter No. 302, Order of the Eastern Star, are sponsoring a Korean child as one of their projects this year.

Rev. Albert Myers, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church was the guest speaker for the week on "Plain Talk" a CBL radio morning programme.

One of the most controversial dramas of our time, "The Deputy" is written by a German Protestant Rolf Hochhuth, and accuses Pope Pius XII of having refused to condemn the Nazi murderers of Jews "for reasons of state".

Among the many gifts presented to Mrs. Lewis was a mauve orchid given to her by her daughter, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Giesche.

As a teaser for the February show of the work of Lorraine Surcouf, Mrs. Joseph Rabinowitch has on display at her Ruth Calverley Gallery several decorative and colorful batik prints by this well-known young Toronto artist.

He spoke on interesting and varied topics, directed mostly to the housewives.

Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Johnson and daughters Jennifer and Gillian have returned to their home in Westport, Connecticut, after spending the holidays with their mother, Mrs. J. G. Laughlin, Highland Lane and sister, Mrs. H. K. Roberts, Arnold Crescent.

After an evening of games and dancing a buffet lunch and birthday cake were served.

On Sunday all the family, grandchildren and neighbours of Mrs. Lewis met again for a day of bowling, games and dinner.

The Men's Club of the Richmond Hill United Church will hold their monthly dinner meeting on January 20.

A demonstration and discussion on the teaching of Oral French in elementary schools will be featured at the January 18 meeting of Pleasantville Home and School Association.

An executive meeting of St. Mary's CWL was held on January 7 at the home of President Mrs. Clive Bettles, Benson Avenue, when plans were finalized for the general meeting on January 18 at which time a panel discussion on education will take place.

An interesting recent addition to the gallery are hand wrought glass and silver jewellery by Grace and Leonard Hutchinson of Doncrest Road, Langstaff, as well as several fascinatingly beautiful fused glass compositions on silver and copper by the same talented artists.

The U.C.W. of St. Matthew's United Church are holding a Trinidad Night on January 19 at the church.

The guest speaker will be Mrs. Cecil Brenn of Colborne Street.

The good wishes of the community are extended to Mrs. J. Heeley, Oxford Street, who celebrated her 80th birthday on Monday.

Animal "fancies" created out of stove pipe wire by Jerry Diakiv, head of the geography department at Richmond Hill High School are also finding a ready sale Mrs. Rabinowitch reports.

Entertaining at dinner parties for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Redelmeier, Don Head Farms, prior to their leaving on Friday for a trip to New Zealand and Australia, were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilson of Cluny Avenue, Toronto, Professor W. S. Thomson and Mrs. Thomson, Vaughan Road, and Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Holland, Gormley Sideroad.

The demonstration and discussion will be conducted by Noel Bennett-Alder, director of French for English-speaking elementary schools in the Ontario Department of Education. A former teacher, Mr. Bennett-Alder brings to his new position an enthusiasm and eagerness which is contagious.

Mr. and Mrs. William Leonard of 178 Lawrence Avenue enjoyed the presence of their entire family over the Christmas holidays.

Under the wing, which is unfortunately missing, was a strip of 12 small pictures of the village each 1 1/4 by 1 1/4 inches. Included are pictures of the Methodist Church (now Richmond Hill United), Presbyterian Church, and St. Mary Immaculate Roman Catholic Church. St. Mary's Anglican Church spire is prominent in the foreground of another photograph showing Yonge Street, looking north from the corner of Markham Road. The Metropolitan Railway tracks run up the east side of Yonge at that time, and a gang of workmen were hard at work mending the road surface.

Entertaining at a luncheon for Mrs. Redelmeier was Mrs. Duncan Gillard, Church Street North.

January 18 at 8:15 p.m. will give parents and others interested an opportunity to meet the man responsible for this important part of education, to express opinions and to ask questions. It is hoped the audience will come prepared to ask questions which the speaker will answer.

Joan, who was recently married and is now Mrs. Richard Graver, flew home from Los Angeles, Bill and his fiancée, Joan Goldberg, of Elizabeth, New Jersey, and Carol and Bill George and their three children spent Christmas day at home.

A shot of Yonge Street, looking south, was evidently taken from the corner of Arnold Street, showing the Palmer House with its

St. Paul's Lutheran Church Women will hold their monthly meeting at the church on January 20. The program will be a panel discussion on "The Family and Christian Education".

While the New Year was being welcomed in Richmond Hill, one family's celebrations were turned into a time of deep unhappiness by a phone call from a group of thoughtless young people.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Horst Petchler.

Mr. Boretski was launched into a theatrical career through the Winnipeg Little Theatre and has acted at Stratford, Ontario, Broadway, London, England and on tour with Sir Laurence Olivier and Vivian Leigh. In 1960 he commenced professional directing with the Fargo-Moorhead Community Theatre in North Dakota and has directed since in Hollywood and Seattle. Most recently Mr. Boretski was employed by the Dominion Drama Festival to bring a wider knowledge of theatrical organization and production to Sault Ste. Marie and Moncton, N.B. theatre groups, both projects having proved to be eminently successful, with a wider scope planned for 1965.

Plan to attend and hear the plans for the new year.

One daughter in the family is a pupil at Thornhaven School for Retarded Children. She answered the phone at midnight to be greeted with the statement "This is the school for retarded kids," followed by jeers and catcalls. These were continued even after the mother had been called to the phone.

A reception was held at 440 South Fernleigh Circle, Richmond Hill, where Mr. and Mrs. Reincke will make their home.

The Curtain Club is indeed fortunate to have Mr. Boretski's direction for the festival entry. Professional directors of past Curtain Club productions are prominent in Canadian theatre as in the case of Fred Euringer who is now a professor of drama at Queen's University and Leon Major, who gave a series of drama classes to Curtain Club members, and is now director of the Neptune Theatre in Halifax.

Miss Karen Heard, Iredale Road, held a party at her home on December 26 for members of the Richmond Hill United Church Hi-C Group and friends.

This was indeed a cruel and disturbing introduction to 1965 for this family. Those responsible should be thoroughly ashamed of themselves.

A bridge and euchre is being held next Tuesday (January 19) at the Masonic Hall, Crosby Avenue, under the auspices of the Richmond Hill Chapter No. 302, Order of the Eastern Star. Good prizes, admission $1.

Among those present were counsellors, Mr. and Mrs. Don Weber and Bob Sheppard, Diane Bone, Lorita Beatty, Norman Diceman, Marilyn Hancy, Brian Gemmill, Alistair Gormley, Greg Lynn, Diane Gill, Tom Closson, Don Baker, and many others.

On the following day, Karen left for a five day youth conference held at Paris, Ontario, where she and Ian Wood represented the Richmond Hill United Church young people. This afforded them the opportunity of meeting young people from all over Ontario and Quebec.

The W.A. of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church held their first meeting of the new year on January 11.

53-Year-Old Post Card

On St. Valentine's Day in 1912 Freeman Barker received a post card at Headford Post Office from his friend John Leece, who had mailed it in Richmond Hill three days before. Mr. Barker has kept the card for 53 years and brought it into "The Liberal" office for inspection.

Printed by Valentine & Sons, Ltd., in Great Britain the colorful card pictured a crowing rooster with the words "Why We Crow About Richmond Hill — look under my wing and no longer you'll doubt that the town has a lot to be cocky about."

the fairs featured for many years and traces of which could still be found a few years ago. A large crowd is shown.

Boating on Bond Lake is featured in another picture. Many people resident in this area will remember when the Metropolitan Railway owned this property and it was a public park.

R.H.H. Library Club Presents NFB Pic. Filmed In Toronto

"Nobody Waved Good-bye," made by the National Film Board and set in Toronto will be the 20th in the "Films of Note" series presented by the Library Club of Richmond Hill High School and to be shown Thursday, January 14 at the Richmond Theatre.

The picture tells the story of a teen-age boy who quarrels with his parents (not entirely his fault), fails his grade 13 examinations and leaves home. The teen-age dialogue is believable and the two teen-agers, acted by Peter Kastner and Julie Biggs are convincing Canadian young people. The boy gets himself into serious trouble, however and there is much material for discussion in the film as to whether this could have been avoided by something on the part of the boy himself or by his parents.

Since feature productions in Canada have to be done with public funds, either through the National Film Board or by subsidy of private enterprise, the film presents an opportunity for the taxpayers to see just what we are able to produce.

On the same program are "The Sound of a City" dealing with other groups similar to the Beatles in England, but less famous, and "Man of Music", a sketch in film of Dr. Healey Willan.

"The Organizer" had originally been intended for the January 14 showing but was withdrawn from distribution, although it is hoped to present it later.

NEWMARKET: Thanks to citizens the Lions Club delivered well filled cartons of food to 61 families to make Christmas more cheery for 222 children. This was an increase of 50% over the 1963 figure.

BRUCE LITTLEJOHN

Guest Speaker

Bruce Littlejohn of the Department of Lands & Forests will address the Richmond Hill Naturalists at the local library Friday night, illustrating his talk with colored slides. Mr. Littlejohn spent several years in Quebec provincial park.

Wed In St. Paul's

St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Richmond Hill, was the scene of the January 9 wedding of Miss Gretchen Wampfler and Mr. Ewald Reincke. Rev. Albert E. Myers performed the marriage ceremony.

Twenty Year Resident

Mrs. E. Reynolds Dies

Jessie L. Smith

Mrs. John Dudley Smith, the former Jessie Lees Bennett passed away suddenly at her home, Willow Farms, Bayview Avenue on December 24.

Born at Lucknow in Bruce County, Mrs. Smith had lived on Bayview Avenue for the past 13 years, coming there from Toronto. She was in her 71st year.

A member of Richmond Hill United Church, Mrs. Smith was also formerly a member of the U.C.W. but had been unable to take an active part of late years because of an arthritic condition.

Surviving are her husband, John Dudley Smith, daughters Jean (Mrs. R. J. Butler) and Eileen (Mrs. T. M. Gradeen) and sons Douglas, of Richmond Hill, John, Oakville, and Bruce at home.

Funeral services were held from A. Barrie & Sons Funeral Home, Midland, with temporary interment in Lakeview Cemetery Vault on Saturday. Pallbearers were Alvin Reynolds, Norman Reynolds, Bert Reynolds, Mervin Grigg, Eldon Reynolds, and Orvil Kitching.

Out-of-town relatives and friends attended the service from Toronto, Orillia, Coldwater, Wyebridge and Waverley.

EVER WONDER ABOUT WONDER DRUGS?

When you think of the many laboratory processes, the raw materials, the people it takes to produce the product and get it to your pharmacist, it's a wonder that "wonder drugs" cost as little as they do. A really insignificant price to pay for curing sickness, and increasing life expectancy! When your doctor prescribes, we have the "wonder drugs" to fill your prescription as written.
