However, the present homes are without sewage services and these can't be provided until approval of the sub-divider's agreement by council.

Driver Faces Charges After Head-On Crash

Joe Suconik, 31, of Gulliver Road, Toronto, faces two traffic charges after his car, travelling east in the westbound lane of Maple Sideroad collided almost head-on with another car, Friday, opposite the Superior Sand and Gravel Company's main gate.

Driver of the other car was K. Sniegula, 59, of Elmdale Court, Richmond Hill. His passenger Arigo V. Abbendenzi, 22, treated for head cuts at York Central Hospital and released. His head went through the windshield.

mond Hill Horticultural Society and the Garden Club of Toronto. She is a member of the Royal Ontario Museum's member committee, a small group who assists at the museum on a weekly or special event basis. A member of the Kingcrafts weaving group, Flavia finds this hobby very stimulating when she finds time for it. Curtain Club activities also interest her, especially backstage activities, visual presentation section, costumes and production and she enjoys adapting and putting together any of these. She says: "The Country Wife has been my most ambitious costume assignment so far." You'll find her making a "joyful noise" as a member of St. Mary's Anglican Church Choir, and at present she is the president of the York Central Hospital Auxiliary.

Her chief interest and longtime love is for the Girl Guides of Canada. She was the brown owl at St. Paul's Church 1944 to 1950. At the same time she assisted with pack and company at Bloorview Hospital. She was the district commissioner for Girl Guides of Richmond Hill and district from 1952 to 1958, a member of the national executive committee in 1957, and chairman of the nomination commission 1958-1962. In 1962 she was chairman for

> "Last year, 42,000 Canadian girls over 12 camped under our Guide flag using the rules and the program suggested by the committee," said Mrs. Redelmeier. This committee is also responsible for conducting national camps. Last year 312 fifteen year old girls criss-crossed Canada by air to camp together for the purpose of studying each province's contribution to Canada's national heritage. Provincial heritage camps were held in each province (plus one each in Ontario and Quebec held by the Girl Guide Catholiques du Canada, secteur français) and were attended by two girls from each province,
