Neighborhood Notes
Rosemary Leek was the guest of Legh Roonham at the skating party sponsored by Thornhill United Church.

Deputy-rev. Stewart Rumble and Mrs. Rumble attended the service at St. Gabriel Anglican Church last Sunday morning. This is an annual service held in this church to offer prayers for guidance for the community and its leaders and pertains to Richmond Hill and Markham Township.

The community extends sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Forrest McDonald and family on the death of Mr. McDonald's father. The United Church calendar had a fine little story for a New Year thought. A small girl who had just started to take arithmetic in school attended a large church with her father and for the first time saw the cross. She whispered to her father, "Why do they have the plus sign in the church?"

Certainly the 'plus sign' is a good symbol for the Christian message. It is going the second mile, a symbol of going beyond duty, the symbol of giving, of adding to life for the welfare of others.

UCW
Mrs. G. Barker presided for the annual meeting of Headford UCW held in the home of Mrs. F. A. Binnington, January 12. Ten members were present and answered the roll call with a verse containing the word 'gospel'. Twenty visits were reported.

Mrs. C. Lee conducted the devotional service and Mrs. Barker called on the conveners for their reports.

Mrs. Binnington reported 12 paid-up memberships in the Victor Home account. Social convener Mrs. N. Brodie reported two congregational suppers, refreshments served to a visiting choir and to the entertainers following the Elder's Mills show.

Annual Meeting

Headford Sunday School Is Now Junior, Intermediates In HI-C

The annual Headford Sunday school meeting was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Rumble, January 13. There were nine present and Dr. Binnington opened the meeting with prayer and for scripture read Psalm 27.

With no intermediate age group the school has become a junior one. The intermediates moved up to HI-C which has a membership of 15 with an average attendance of 12. Their leader, Mrs. E. Leek, reported that she had a good group that participated in the school session. Since September they have joined in several activities, attending Victoria Square anniversary in a body and the Christmas pageant at Thornhill Trinity Church. They went in a body to Teston church to hear a speaker on "World Hunger" and during the holidays enjoyed a skating party.

Mrs. C. Lee reported the use of Avel in the Sunday school and other organizations in the church. For a small yearly fee any department of the church may have the use of material from Avel (audio, visual, educational library).

The new curriculum was discussed and a meeting for the teachers planned, to adjust the program to the equipment, space and teachers available. The hostess served refreshments while a social hour was enjoyed.

Local Men Escape Injury In Crash

Two Richmond Hill men escaped injury when they were involved in a three-car accident last week.

Police said James Doran, 45, of 237 Elka Drive, was driving his car south on Newkirk Road, January 14 at 8 a.m. when the car in front of him stopped suddenly and his vehicle collided with it.

The impact then sent the first car, which was driven by Fred Harold Carruthers, 52, of Oak Ridges, into the north-bound lane, where it collided with a vehicle driven by John Hamilton McGowan, 47, of 385 Balkan Road, Richmond Hill.

Mr. Carruthers suffered bruises to his left hand. Damage to the three cars was estimated at $950.

Correction
Last week I announced that the annual congregational meeting was to be Tuesday evening of this week, but I should have said Thursday evening, January 21, it is still a pot luck supper with A-L bringing dessert and M-Z bringing the main course. I do hope that no one showed up at the church on Tuesday evening due to my silly mistake.

The time is still 6 o'clock too, and everyone is still welcome. It seems to me that this is a bad year for Carrville folk, because whenever you talk to someone, it's have you heard that this person or that person is in the hospital.

Jack McCarthy has just returned home from a stay in the hospital, and we trust that he is well on the mend. Allan Morris is in York Central Hospital and we hope that he will be home soon.

Bert Middleton who also is in the York Central, will we hope be soon out again. Hurry and get well folks we miss your familiar faces.

There must be something going on in Carrville besides folks being on the sick list, while I like to fill my column with newsy news I don't like to have to report so often on our Carrville folk being under the weather. Once again I say please give me a call on any little item that would be interesting, it doesn't have to be a spectacular, in plain words, anything, please!

UXBRIDGE: Dr. J. F. St. John, medical officer of health, will carry out a complete inspection of an Uxbridge Township tenement house, located in the hamlet of Altona. A report from Stouffville Fire Chief Walter Smith recommended such an inspection be made, that the furnace room be cleaned, a proper chimney built on the rear apartment, and fire escapes installed to serve the two top apartments. Five families reside in the building.

The new curriculum was discussed and a meeting for the teachers planned, to adjust the program to the equipment, space and teachers available. The hostess served refreshments while a social hour was enjoyed.

Your Legion Reports

Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion
By Eric Chapman - 884-7129

At the recent executive meeting lasting over three hours officers were named for 1965. Alec Kernohan was appointed secretary and Rick Pillage will replace Alec as chairman of ways and means. Chuck Jesson will be responsible for inventory and Gord Bayler, property. Gord Mills was named sports officer.

Chairmen and officers for the remaining duties are unchanged, the following being re-appointed: John Tisonis, treasurer; Frank Woods, membership; Jack Sanders, hospital; Frank Tishall, service; Ernest Benton, poppy and welfare; Ted McBrien, disciplinary; George Wood, entertainment; Wes Berse, bar chairman; Steve Appleby, assistant secretary; Eric Chapman, public relations and Mrs. M. Barrott, women's representative. Ernest Benton was named liaison officer between this branch and the Junior Legion. A five member branch-by-law committee was also established. All officers were installed at the general meeting last Monday.

The executive discussed publication of a monthly bulletin for the branch. It is hoped that part of the bulletin would contain advertising. So far attempts to find advertisers have been unsuccessful. The president pointed out the publication would replace the notice of meeting now being mailed to members each month. The executive deferred adoption of the proposal until all possible sources of advertising have been explored.

Comrade Benton has suggested the branch institute an employment service. He reported his work as poppy and welfare chairman brought him in contact with people who disliked accepting charity. The pride which many people possess often resulted in their refusal to accept help even though there appeared to be a real need for it. Many only accepted because of dire necessity. The service would provide help for members and dependents who were unemployed because of disability, were over the normal employable age or lacked education.

A committee would be set up to canvass working members for possible vacancies and contacts advising them of the service. Government departments would also be approached to investigate trade courses that might be available.

Dominion command approved branch employment services in 1951. The proposal was accepted by the executive and Comrad Benton will now be chairman of the re-employment and placement service.

The ladies auxiliary birthday show which was enjoyed by some 200 people last November is to be staged again for our senior citizens. The curtain will go up at 8:30 p.m. this Friday. Our live wire ladies go into production again next week with an electrifying performance of Hydro Showtime which should prove illuminating to many housewives. All the latest appliances will be on display in a cooking demonstration and some useful tips will be given the laundry wise. Switch on time will be January 28 at 8 p.m. We predict our consistent comrade, Harry Lever, will plan a humorous sequel to the show and that the theme will be how to live better although electrocut.

Friends of Mrs. T. Dick, Brookside Road, will be pleased to learn that she returned home from hospital on Friday of last week.

Mrs. George Topper, Bayview Avenue, entered hospital on Monday as a result of trouble developing in connection with the fractured elbow she suffered early in December. It is sincerely wished that this painful injury will soon heal.
