Dismiss Police Charge Against Elmwood Man

A charge against a Richmond Hill man of being drunk in a public place, was dismissed by Magistrate O. S. Hollirake when, Crown Attorney A. Armstrong, after hearing the evidence, said he wouldn't ask for a conviction.

Larry Luckins, 451 Elmwood Avenue, appeared in magistrate's court Tuesday to face the charge, which occurred as a result of an accident January 15.

At that time, according to testimony by Richmond Hill Constable Arthur Hailey, the accused had been picked up on Yonge St. in a drunken condition.

He was staggering, belligerent and smelled of liquor, the officer said.

On cross-examination by defence counsel Donald Plaxton, Constable Hailey admitted that Mr. Luckins had called police himself. He said he wanted to lay an assault charge against someone.

The accused had also refused to empty one of his pockets at the police station, but on being told that it was for his own benefit, he complied, Constable Hailey said.

Constable Gordon Bacon, who also testified, said that Mr. Luckins had been in a "drunken condition" when arrested.

The first award of its kind in this district was presented to F. S. (Stan) Tyndall, Leisure Lane, Richmond Hill, last week at the annual meeting of Richmond Hill Agricultural Society. The award was a diploma from the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies and is awarded only to men who have contributed to the advancement of agriculture in the province.

Mr. Tyndall has served the local agricultural society in various capacities for almost half a century and for a two-year term as president in 1945 and 1946. Besides this he was and is still active in the King & Vaughan Plowmen's Association for a total of more than 50 years.

The presentation was made by Lloyd Beatty, who had just retired after serving two years as president of the association which sponsors the annual fair, now in its 117th year.

The society also honored Morgan Boyle of Thornhill, another long-time member, with a life membership.

Graeme Bales of Markham Township will assume the president's chair of the society for 1965, with Art McEwen of Vaughan Township as first vice-president and Arnold Mortonson of Markham Township as second vice-president. Derek Wallbanks, Richmond Hill will continue as secretary treasurer.

Committee chairmen for this year's fair will be: concessions, Milton Savage; hunters and jumpers, Vern Mason; ponies, Martin Pick; heavy horses, John Baker; grounds and buildings, Fred Bovard; entertainment and attractions, Wes Clark; rabbits and carries, Art Stong; poultry, Harold Mackie; Jersey cattle, Art McEwen; publicity, Arnold Mortonson; donations, Robert Caesar.

To give the public greater opportunity to enjoy the annual fair the society has decided to make it a two-day event this year. Many added attractions have already been planned and a second breed of cattle is being sought for exhibition and competition on the second day.

NORTH MARKHAM: Harvey Rose, 74, of 42 Peter Street, one of North Markham's best-known and much-loved citizens, died last week at Scarborough General Hospital. A resident of Markham for 33 years, Mr. Rose had been a section foreman with Canadian National Railways before his retirement eight years ago. He is survived by his wife, Birdie; two sons, Duard of Markham, and Gerald, of London, two daughters, Jacqueline, (Mrs. William Guthrie), Whitby and Marjorie, (Mrs. Gordon Mitchell) of Richmond Hill; a sister, Stella, Mrs. Brown, of Peterborough; 17 grandchildren and one great granddaughter. Funeral service at St. Andrew's United Church with interment in Elmwood Cemetery.

No Support For Plaxton

At both the second and third meetings of York County Council's first 1965 session, resolutions put forward by Richmond Hill's Reeve Donald Plaxton failed to gain council support.

At the January 20 meeting, Mr. Plaxton proposed that a committee be set up to investigate and report on un-economical farm lands and consider the possibility of having them established as parks. He also suggested that all or part of the York County Vivian Forest be used for this purpose.

When Markham Township Reeve Charles Hooper stated that they had been considering the matter on the conservation committee for the past three or four years, Mr. Plaxton replied that they couldn't leave it all to the committee. He also stated that if it had been studied by the council he would like to see a report on it.

Mr. Plaxton was finally persuaded to alter his motion to a notice of motion so that it would be considered at a later meeting when all the committees are functioning.

The bulk of the January 20 meeting was taken up with committee reports.

The striking committee which had been set up the first day of the session presented a report indicating the make-up of the council's nine committees for the year.

Reeve Plaxton will sit on the education and the by-laws and legislative committees. His deputy, Floyd Perkins is to be on the finance and assessment committees.

Vaughan Township Reeve A. H. Rutherford, last year's warden, will chair the welfare committee and also serve on the roads, planning and assessment committees.

Deputy-reeve Garnet Williams of Vaughan Township was appointed to the reformation, agriculture and by-laws and legislative committees.

Stewart Rumble, deputy-reeve of Markham Township was appointed chairman of the by-laws and legislative committee and will also sit on the education and agriculture committees.

The newly-elected Warden, Sidney Legge, also announced appointments to special committees. Reeve Plaxton is to chair the administration of justice committee. Reeve Charles Hooper, this year's first commissioner, will also sit on this committee as well as on the police, emergency measures and York County Hospital Commission.

Richmond Hill Deputy-reeve Floyd Perkins was also appointed to the emergency measures committee. Deputy-reeve Ken Laushway of Stouffville will chair this committee.

A report of the 1964 warden and commissioners was presented by retiring Warden Rutherford. It indicated that the county had issued debentures to a total of $1,410,000 during 1964 and paid off $525,600 worth, making an increase in debentures for 1964 of $884,400. Hospital costs for indigent patients were down slightly in 1964, being $28,153 compared to $28,783 for 1963. During 1964, Mr. Rutherford reported the county had purchased 212.4 acres of land in the Township of Georgia for reforestation.
