

The UCW of St. Matthew's United Church held their first general meeting of 1965 on January 19.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Cecil Brenna, Colborne Street, who spoke and showed slides on her recent trip to Trinidad.

Winslow Case from Trinidad, now living on Elmdale Crescent, also gave an interesting talk on the background and history of Trinidad.

The afternoon unit of the UCW served coffee and Trinidadian dessert.

The Women's Progressive Conservative Association held their monthly meeting at the home of President Mrs. L. Oliver, Sussex Avenue.

The federal chart on redistribution was studied and plans discussed for the annual dance. This year a St. Patrick's motif will be used, as the date has been set for March 12.

Refreshments were served by the hostess and her daughter, Miss Caroline Oliver.

"The Family and Christian Education" was the topic for the January meeting of St. Paul's LCW.

Panel members were Mrs. Mabel Percival and Mrs. Pat Wood. Moderator was Mrs. Naomi Myers. Mrs. Barbara Barth had charge of devotions.

"Parents are given the child, not to have and to hold, but to have and to mould", said Mrs. Myers. The topic stressed the importance of Christian training and devotions in the family circle.

meeting closed with the Scout Mizpah.

There was a good turnout of members and friends at the regular Curtain Club meeting held on Monday evening in the club premises, 25 Yonge St., North.

Vice President Neville Cross chaired the meeting, and following a short business session with reports from the play reading, theatre and membership committees, two studio productions — O'Neill's "He" and the recognition scene from "Anastasia" — were presented.

"Christian Youth Week" is being observed in St. Matthew's United Church this week, and to mark the occasion on the church school will hold a special service for all pupils in primary, junior, intermediate and senior departments. This service will be at 9:05 a.m. January 31 in the sanctuary.

This service will follow, as nearly as possible, the regular order of adult worship but geared to the child's level.

Entertaining on Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Angus Philip, Sussex Avenue, who held a dinner party for members of the Dynes Ball Team.

Guests included sponsor, Vern Dynes, Coach Casey Cripps, Dick Moulton, Fred Thomas, Charlie Reid, Greg Causey, Moe Zabatuik, Sil Steffan, Bill Robson, George Smith, Gino Guatto, Stan Thornton, Red Wilson and Ron Woods.

During the evening a pair of cuff links and the tack were presented to Moe Zabatuik by Manager Phillips, for contributing the most to the team during 1964, and organizational plans discussed for the coming season.

There were twenty members and guests present for the meeting.

Area Lutheran Church news was reported by Mrs. Hilda Dumais. She noted that a new mission church was started in Oshawa on January 10.

Mrs. Ev Miller, Christian outreach chairwoman, announced that she will have two greeters at the church doors on Sundays to help make newcomers feel welcome.

Directed by Mary Neill, the casts included Eleanor Beatty, Margaret Bergin, Margaret Cross, Tony Hiscoke, Sam Neill, Kingsley Owen, Ron Solloway and Lars Thompson.

The calibre of both plays was in the professional class, and director and casts are to be congratulated for providing an evening of first rate entertainment.

The Rt. Rev. F. H. Wilkinson, Bishop of Toronto will be the special preacher at the morning service at the Church of St. Gabriel on January 31.

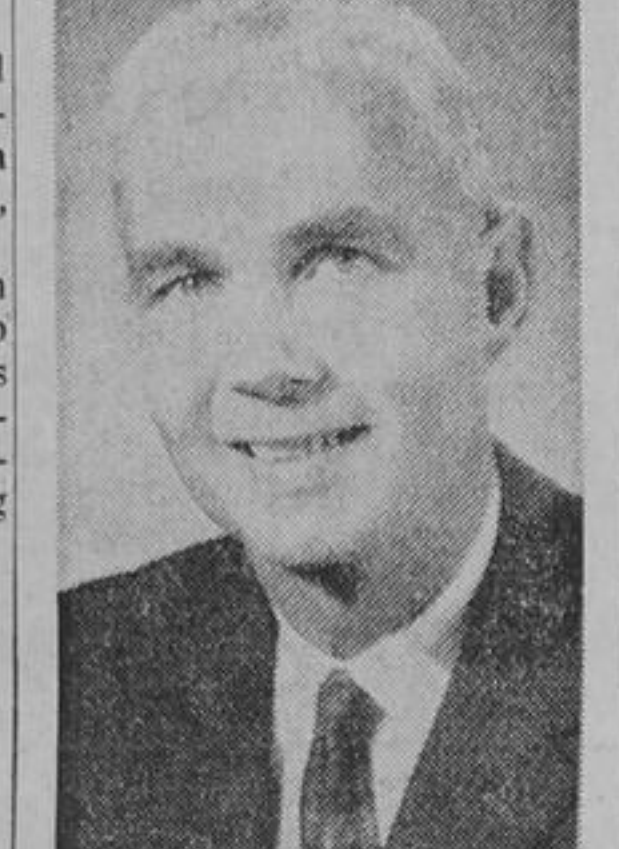

The church wardens and church officers for 1965 will be installed, with tea served following the installation, by members of the Friendship Circle.

Board members, wardens and wives will then attend a luncheon at the Summit View Restaurant.

The Rotary Club of Richmond Hill continues to grow, with the newest member being Michael Norman, 292 Boisdale Avenue. Mr. Norman is president of Micro Metallurgical Ltd. of Thornhill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Holmes and family from Prince Edward Island, have recently taken up residence at 248 Alsace Road. Mr. Holmes is with the RCAF. The community welcomes them and hope they enjoy living in Richmond Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Holmes and family from Prince Edward Island, have recently taken up residence at 248 Alsace Road. Mr. Holmes is with the RCAF. The community welcomes them and hope they enjoy living in Richmond Hill.

Rev. PAUL MORLEY

St. Mary's Anglican

The Rev. Paul Morley, formerly of Richmond Hill and now incumbent of the new parish of Oriole, Willowdale, will be the preacher next Sunday morning at 10:30 a.m. at St. Mary's Anglican Church.

Visiting friends in the Hill last weekend were former residents of Driscoll Road, Mr. Len Jones and his daughter Carol, from Guildford, England.

Carol has been accepted as an exchange student at Toronto Teachers College, and Mr. Jones took the opportunity of accompanying her on the trip to Canada for a brief visit, returning to England on Friday.

Captains for the 1965 March of Dimes, scheduled for the evening of February 1, met at the home of Mrs. Norman Todd, Church Street, Thursday evening to hear an informal talk by Johnny Myers, assistant campaign director for Ontario.

Mr. Myers outlined the services provided for physically disabled people over 19 years of age by the Rehabilitation Foundation which is supported by the March of Dimes.

Mr. Louis Baker, Church Street South, is now making good progress in York Central Hospital following a recent heart attack.

His many friends in the Hill hope his stay in hospital will be of short duration, and that he will soon be taking "Chitzia" for his customary morning walk.

The executive of the WA of the Richmond Hill Presbyterian Church met on Monday night at the home of President Mrs. I. F. Allan, Libby Blvd.

The monthly meeting on February 1 will be a pot luck supper starting at 7 p.m. Members are asked to bring a friend.

Keep "Life in the Hill" columns up to date with your news — the service is free — phone the Social Editor Margot Crack at 884-1105, drop a line to 63 Yonge Street South, or call in personally, we'll be pleased to hear from you.

The late Mr. Watson was president and general manager of the Denco Company of Canada, also past master of the Royal Blue Connaught Lodge AF&AM for Quebec, as well as many other notable activities.

The Central branch of the YCH auxiliary held their first meeting of the year on Wednesday last at the home of Mrs. R. Stanfield.

Donald Ross, manager of the local branch of the Bank of Montreal has consented to be treasurer of the Richmond Hill Chapter of the Heart Foundation.

Everyone loves a comedy, especially if directed by Peter Boretzki, cast with the best of Curtain Club talent, and professionally costumed by Maria Kucharski (who was responsible for the magnificent gowns in "The Country Wife" and "Pygmalion").

Such is the case with "The Diary of a Scoundrel" the club's festive entry which is being presented on February 10, 11, 13, 17-20, 26, 27, at the theatre 25 Yonge Street North.

Tickets are already available and selling fast. Reserve yours today by calling 884-2528.

Pauline Bracey-Gibbon, proprietrix, and staff of Chez Pauline House of Beauty, attended the World's Fair of Beauty held last week in the Crystal Ballroom of the King Edward Hotel.

Plans were discussed for the activities for the year, including the selling of tickets for "Spring Thaw" the auxiliaries major fund raising event.

Mrs. S. Symms, work convener, asked for volunteers for knitting and sewing.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess.

Everyone loves a comedy, especially if directed by Peter Boretzki, cast with the best of Curtain Club talent, and professionally costumed by Maria Kucharski (who was responsible for the magnificent gowns in "The Country Wife" and "Pygmalion").

Such is the case with "The Diary of a Scoundrel" the club's festive entry which is being presented on February 10, 11, 13, 17-20, 26, 27, at the theatre 25 Yonge Street North.

Before attending the Richmond Hill LODGE executive meeting to prepare reports for the annual meeting to be held at the Summit View Restaurant on February 1, several of the members assisted at the blood donor clinic, held last week at the Richmond Hill United Church.

W. K. CAIRNS

Guest Speaker At Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Richmond Hill branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses has been announced to take place in the council chambers at 8 p.m. February 3.

Guest speaker will be W. K. Cairns, who has had 18 years experience as a VON board member. His subject will be "Early History and Modern Trends in VON."

Mr. Cairns is vice-president of Greater Toronto branch VON, vice-president of Ontario branch, chairman of the national education and publicity committee and a member of the national board of management. Thus he has a wide knowledge of every facet of VON work.

Reports of 1964's business will be presented to the meeting and election of 1965 officers will be held.

The public is cordially invited to attend this annual meeting of the VON which provides a vital service for this community.

High school students who are finding difficulty in mastering wind instruments will be happy to learn that Mr. Minchella can be of great help to them in this matter. His own training has been of the highest degree of perfection and he will endeavor to pass on his knowledge and skill to his students. He will prepare students for Royal Conservatory of Music examinations.

Miss Garson takes pride and pleasure in having Mr. Minchella join her in musical instruction.

Mr. Myers is himself a paraplegic from injuries suffered in a car accident.

Cecilia Anderson, pianist, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Beresford Anderson, Centre Street West, will present a recital on CBL Concert Series Sunday morning at 11:30 a.m. from Ottawa.

Congratulations to the new executive members of the Friendship Circle at St. Gabriel's Anglican Church: President Mrs. A. J. Boyle, Secretary Mrs. P. S. Townsend, Assistant Secretary Mrs. R. Sandy, Treasurer Mrs. R. Barker, Membership Convener Mrs. B. Jackson, Program Convener Mrs. R. J. Facer, Chairman for Sunday school nursery Mrs. K. Clendenning.

The ladies of the 4th Richmond Hill Cub and Scout Mothers' Auxiliary met on January 19 at the home of Mrs. Aletha Smith, Tyneview Lane. Twelve members were present.

A special vote of thanks was extended to those who so generously contributed to the successful fall conference luncheon held November 26. Plans were made for the menu and table decorations for the annual father and son banquet to be held February 17 in Wrixon Hall, and members were asked once more to contribute their time and talent for this event.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. D. J. Boyle and Mrs. R. J. Facer at last week's meeting when the new executive was installed.

Just returned
HIGH HATS BAND
The Legion Court
YONGE STREET NORTH
EVERY SATURDAY NIGHT
8:30 TO MIDNIGHT
BAND LEADER, B. GREGG — 884-5944

DEIRDRE ANN HUNT IS BRIDE OF BLAKE NOON

Wed In Richmond United Church

At an afternoon wedding in a two flower girls, Betty Ransom and Karen Hunt. All wore floor length gowns of red peau de soie with full skirts and scoop necklines, and carried cascades of white roses.

Best man was Malcolm Jordan of Toronto. Ushers were Thomas Woodhouse of Toronto and Erik Campbell-Smith of Richmond Hill.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Summit View Gardens. The bride's mother received wearing a street-length sheath style dress of cream and gold brocade with a three-quarter length matching coat. Her hat was of brown red carnations.

Attending the bride were a maid of honor, Sharon Craigie, and gold flecked organza and she had cream-colored accessories.

The groom's mother wore a street length gown of emerald green peau de soie styled on empire lines with three-quarter length sleeves. Her accessories were of matching emerald green and gold.

For the honeymoon trip to Quebec City the bride wore an Irish tweed suit with dark brown accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were from Blind River, Sault Ste. Marie, Toronto and London, Ontario.

The young couple are now living on Winette Avenue in Toronto.

Miss Ruth Garson A.D.C.M. announces that Guiseppe Minchella will be accepting registrations for students of the trumpet SATURDAY, FEB. 6 from 1 to 5 p.m. at 428 SOUTH FERLEIGH CIRCLE (Bayview-Markham area)

Mrs. M. Savage Heads Ladies Fair Auxiliary

Mrs. Milton Savage will again head of ladies auxiliary of the Richmond Hill Agricultural Society for 1965. She was re-elected chairman at the annual meeting of the auxiliary held Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Graeme Bales.

Mrs. R. Kent will serve as vice-chairman of the auxiliary this year and Mrs. Arnold Mortonson as secretary-treasurer. Co-chairmen of committees appointed Monday evening are: lunch booth, Mrs. W. Diceman; baking competition, Mrs. E. Boyd; flower arrangements, Mrs. J. S. McCague; and school work competition, Mrs. M. Huitson.

Committee members are Mrs. Lloyd Beatty, Mrs. E. Clark and Mrs. M. Read.

All ladies interested in the auxiliary are asked to call Mrs. Mortonson at 884-3065 or Mrs. Savage at 884-4939.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be held February 22 at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Beatty, Concession 3 Markham Township, 887-5462.

The auxiliary was formed last year and had a very successful exhibit in several competitive classes in the Lions Hall in connection with the spring fair.

Mr. Bernard Hanger was the guest speaker for the occasion. He spoke and showed pictures of his work at the Hospital for Sick Children, where he has been giving voluntarily of his time for the past fifteen years, entertaining the children of the surgical wards.

Birthday cake and coffee were served.

The Kinette Club of Richmond Hill celebrated their 10th anniversary on January 11 at the Richmond Inn.

Guests included several of the Kinsmen, former Kinettes and Mr. and Mrs. Ian McClure, presidents of North York Kinsmen and Kinette Clubs respectively.

the piano teacher ESTELLE MARKHAM 884-3787

Stuart Says—
Valentine's day is Feb. 14th. This year, remember your friends and relatives with a "FRIENDSHIP PHOTO"—and here's a January special for Teenagers!

6-Wallet size Friendship Photos just $5.95
Offer good until Feb. 6th

Don't delay — make your appointment now — Call 884-6741 and ask for STUART!

STUART'S STUDIO
30A YONGE ST. S. RICHMOND HILL

GLOBE TRAVEL SERVICE
BOOKINGS FOR ALL STEAMSHIPS AND AIRLINES, TOURS AND CRUISES

85 YONGE STREET N. RICHMOND HILL. PHONE 285-5782

No service charge, no booking fee

JUST ARRIVED . . .
From Fort Franklin, Northwest Territories

SMALL SAMPLE SHIPMENT OF

NORTHERN CREE HANDCRAFTS

EXAMPLE:
Bone implements and home tanned and beaded Caribou Gloves & Crow Boots

THE "CANADIANA" GIFT SHOP

80 YONGE ST. S., RICHMOND HILL 884-5464

Good eating AT SAVINGS!

ROUND STEAK OR RUMP

ROASTS lb. 59¢

LEAN PLATE

BRISKET lb. 19¢

SLICED ENDS

Bacon lb. 39¢ - 3 lbs. $1.15

C. NELS GAGE
BAYVIEW PLAZA TU. 4-7691

FINAL CLEARANCE DRESSES

$10 - $15 - $20

SKI WEAR 1/4 OFF

Warwick House
"For Women Who Deserve The Best"

South Block Richmond Heights Centre

LIBERAL CLASSIFIEDS-Get Results-884-1105

NOW IS THE TIME

To have your remodelling, renovating or redecorating done

Local business and tradesmen are anxious to help you and your neighbours to build a prosperous community.

Special discounts may be offered during the winter.

REMEMBER
When everybody works Everybody benefits

For information write or call

NATIONAL EMPLOYMENT OFFICE
4955 YONGE ST., WILLOWDALE 225-1194

DO IT NOW