table tennis enthusiasts to aspiring runners and even a spot for a quiet and studious game of chess.

Yes, a structure of this size would cost a bob or two. It might even add as much as a mill to the tax structure and bounce everyone's taxes up a dollar or two. The results achieved might offset the financial burden a hundredfold!

Contrary to popular belief the YMCA and YWCA are not wealthy organizations. They exist mostly on donations from public-spirited groups and can only move into an area when the demand is made by the residents of said area and WHEN FACILITIES ARE PROVIDED FOR THEM.

We suggest that the Crosby Park area be considered as the natural site for a COMPLETE recreational centre and that the YMCA-YWCA groups be invited to participate in the recreational program. The pool was to be our centennial project and a good one it is. But let's maybe get a bit more ambitious and add to the concept of the whole deal. Maybe not in time for the centennial year but just as soon as we can.

There are enough people living in the immediate area to support an undertaking of this size as a municipal project. We need roads and sewage disposal plants, water treatment plants and many other things but we need other things just as much. We humbly suggest that the recreation centre is one of these crying, pressing needs!

THORNHILL SECONDARY

The girls played two basketball games at Richmond Hill last week and both games turned out to be cliff-hangers. The senior girls came up with a 19-18 victory while the juniors lost to the Hill squad 18-17.

On Friday the junior boys lost 29-27 to Langstaff as the Langstaff basketballers hung on grimly for the win. Thornhill seniors romped to a 77-38 win over Langstaff while the intermediates won going away 69-24.

THORNHILL SKIERS

Thornhill skiers finished seventh overall at the Georgian Bay Ski Championships held at Horseshoe Valley recently. Wendy Williston finished third in the downhill and slalom while Gib Wishart placed seventh in the downhill and fourth in the slalom event.

CROTHERS WINS THREE

Markham Village druggist, Bill Crothers, made a clean sweep in three competitions in three days: 880 yards in the Milrose Games, New York; 600 yards in Toronto and 600 yards in Boston.

On February 13 he will compete in the Los Angeles Times meet in the 800 metres against other Olympic runners.

HIGH SCHOOL SPORTS

BAYVIEW SECONDARY

The junior basketball team pulled an upset victory by defeating Markham juniors 16-12 last week. For the high-flying Markham squad it was the first loss this year. The Bayview basketballers achieved the victory by sticking strictly to basketball fundamentals and sticking to their checks like burrs. Markham, not used to such close checking, never did get organized as Bayview dropped in the four points that gave them the win.

Bayview's strong wrestling team is pointing toward the Georgian Bay South Wrestling Championships to be held at Markham this coming Saturday. The following week the team will take part in the Georgian Bay Championships slated for Port Perry.

This is probably the strongest team that has been put together at the Bayview Avenue school and they have high hopes of finishing well up near the top in both meets.

CURLING

A ladies club members' bonspiel was held February 3 at Richmond Hill Curling Club. Arrangements for this 'spiel were made by Jessie Wainwright, chairman, and Nona Bedwell, Marg Beresford and Maisie Gibson of the membership committee.

A good turnout of curlers enjoyed two games in each of the two draws.

Competition for first place in the nine o'clock draw was very close and provided excitement for the day's curling, when three rinks won two games by 21 points. Winners then had to be determined (by the plus system) and results were:

9 O'Clock Draw

First two game high: Skip Nona Bedwell, Vice Rena White, Second Mildred Rois. Lead Ruth Hunt; two game high: Clara McRoberts, Shirley Hicks, Phyl Minor, June Moore; two game high: Mae Ashkanase, Wyn Simpson, Marg Hayes, Rheta Ellis; one game high:

RICHMOND HILL HIGH

Friday night was "Grad Night" at Richmond Hill High School and the "Wonder Five" came out of virtual retirement to hang a 47-18 defeat on the boys intermediate basketball team. Gary Murray scored 14 points for the "Five", Jerry Diakij 13, Cliff Nuttall 11 and Don Fleming 8.

The senior team proved to be too sprightly for the grads and won an easy 79-36 victory. Rick Bradshaw paced the seniors with 22 points as Robin Brock dropped in 17. Dave Smith scored 14 for the grads as Tony Crack hooped 8.

Purpose of these special nights is to raise money for the scholarship fund operated by the girls and boys athletic associations. To be eligible for a scholarship the recipient must be a Richmond Hill grad, either boy or girl and be enrolled in a physical education course at a recognized Canadian university.

Dawn Kingsley, now a first year student at Queen's was the recipient of the award made last year.

The junior boys lost a heart-breaker to Markham at Richmond Hill last week. With 30 seconds left on the clock the teams were tied 18-18. Each team was awarded three free throws in the time remaining. Markham dropped in all three to win 21-18. Needless to say all the Richmond Hill free throws were fat misses! Bill Sward was top scorer for Richmond Hill with an eight point total.

The intermediates lost 42-33 to Markham while the Richmond Hill seniors lost 34-27. Both Hill teams played give-away ball and passed handily and neatly into the waiting and eager hands of the Markham players.

FLORIE SMITH, HELEN PARR, PEG SYMINGTON, DIANE BARKER.

11 O'Clock Draw

First two game high: Jessie Wainwright, Pauline Anderson, Marg Toutloff, Jean King; one game high: Maisie Gibson, Gert Robertson, Keitha Matheson, Ruth Westwood.

Club members who assisted in making the bonspiel a success were Marie Field and Doris Vance who looked after scoring and umpiring. House Chairman Olive Harrower and her committee members, Effie Acomb and Mary McIlveen arranged lounge decorations which gave the 'spiel added enjoyment. Prize Chairman Eileen Peck selected the prizes distributed by Marie Field, Doris Vance and President Lorraine Waters.

Minor Ball Needs $5,500 For 1965

Registration for minor ball in Richmond Hill is less than three weeks away. The public is reminded to watch the mail and "The Liberal" for further notification of this important date.

The 1965 budget of the Richmond Hill Minor Ball Association in the amount of $5,500 was drawn up at an emergency meeting last week, chaired by Vice-president Lloyd Carter. It is hoped this year to pay umpires for the first time in the 10 year history of the association.

Carl Hall, John Davis, Ron McAndrews, Ed VanWert, Helen Carter, Ralph

Davis, Tommy Sanlon and Bev Hall, executive members, were present.

A committee reported that erecting washrooms in Bradstock Park, including the building, hydro, plumbing, brick construction, cement floor and steel roof would cost around $5,000. A joint meeting with the parks board discussed this project. The parks board reported they realized the necessity of facilities for the public at the park and promised assistance to the ball association in providing these.

Executive members will meet tonight (Thursday) at British Mortgage and Trust. Time of meeting is 8 p.m.

PICKERING TOWNSHIP: Pickering Township Police Chief Reginald Parker in his annual report last week noted a sharp rise in automobile accidents in the township in 1964. Five people were killed in automotive accidents, 94 were injured and $91,057 worth of damage was done to automobiles.

Keswick Heads Senior League Dynes, Rangers Tied For Second

Dynes 8 - Tildens 1

Dynes, Jewellers, aided by rookies, Bruce Sims and Jackie Dubkowski, scored a convincing 8-1 victory over Toronto Tildens February 2.

Charlie Mashinter, Matt Kinnari and Dubkowski picked up two goals each. Sims and Norm Roberts scored singles, with Roberts coming through with four assists to pace the local's offense.

Dean McKinnon scored the lone goal for Tildens as league-leading goalie, Doug Finney, played another stand-out game.

Dynes 3, Rangers 2

Sunday evening Richmond Hill Dynes eked out a 3-2 win over the adept Willowdale Rangers. Norm Roberts helped Dynes to the win when he scored two goals.

Wally Stothers got the opening goal for Willowdale and Roberts countered within a few minutes to tie the score. Jim Wells put Dynes in the lead just as the period was ending.

The second period was scoreless.

Willowdale tied up the score early in the third stanza when Jim Barfitt netted the puck. Halfway through this final period Roberts came through with his second goal to put Dynes in a 3-2 lead which was maintained until the game ended.

This win moved Richmond Hill ahead of Willowdale and clinched second spot in the standing for them, with the Rangers holding third place.

Semi-final playoffs will start Tuesday night in the Richmond Hill Senior Hockey League which is completing its tenth season. What teams will be opposing each other were not decided until Tuesday night's games, but good games are forecast for both 8:15 and 9:45 slots. Teams contesting the league championship will be Keswick, Richmond Hill, Willowdale, Downsview, Bradford and Thornhill. No great change in this order is expected, although Richmond Hill can tie Keswick for the league leadership, causing a play-off.

Up for grabs in this hard-playing hockey league are the Town and Country Trophy, for the league leaders at the end of the scheduled games; the Al White Trophy for the scoring leader, with Pete Goodfellow having a good hold on the cup with a total of 44 points; and the Tip Top Tailors Trophy for the league championship. Representatives of all teams will meet in Richmond Hill Arena at 2:15 p.m. Sunday when the most outstanding and gentlemanly player award will be decided. The Dynes Jewellers Trophy goes to this player.
