February 5
Bolton 3
Black Hawks 3
 John Gillies scored one from Bob Morris, Doug Trucey scored another from Bruce Shilton, Steve Andrews scored the third goal. Penalties went to Andrew, Loughheed and Kelson.

February 6
Richvale Sunoco Black Hawks 7
South Shore 2
 Bruce Shilton scored three goals, assisted twice by Dave MacDonald and once unassisted. Angelo Di Vincenzo scored two goals with no assists. John Gillies scored a single unassisted and Bob Morris scored again on assist from Di Vincenzo.

Quite exciting this last period. A hot little skirmish at one end of the rink starring John Gillies and a South Shore laddie. Both boys exhibited very aggressive feelings. The ref. had to pull them apart. Such slides earned each of them five minute penalties plus ten extra minutes each for good measure. Dennis Loughheed not to be outdone also earned a couple in the penalty box.

THORNHILL CHURCH HOCKEY LEAGUE HOLY TRINITY ANNUAL HOCKEY NIGHT
 By all accounts, the February hockey night was a huge success. It had just about everything, parents out rooting for their favorite team, good clean hockey, and even a chance of getting a star rating.

TIKES
Holy Trinity 2
Thornhill Presbyterian 0
 Bill Ackehurst scored a pair for Holy Trinity.

ATOMS
Holy Trinity 5

TSA No. 1 Markham will hold the finals in its public speaking competition on February 13 at the 16th Avenue School.

The three top contestants in this competition will compete against TSA No. 2 and the township's separate schools on March 1 at the Markham Township Offices at Buttonville.

Marriages
 Former Doncaster resident, Miss Joan Angel, recently of Newtonbrook, was married to Kenneth Anderson of Shelbourne on January 23.

Paul Mitchell, formerly of 55 Clarke Avenue, now of Newmarket, was married February 6 to Miss Lynn Gain, Toronto.

Home and School
 Woodland Public School's Home and School Association is holding a bake sale at the school Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m. Grade 8 pupils will be selling candy, proceeds of which go towards the grade's annual trip. Free tea and coffee will be served.

Hospital Auxiliary
 Richvale Branch of York Central Hospital met at the home of Mrs. D. Spears on Roosevelt Drive January 28. Mrs. Ruth Miller, director of volunteers conducted installation of the new executive and thanked Mrs. Dorothy Spears for her leadership during more than two years of organizing. A "Chinese Auction" was the highlight of the evening.

Tickets for "Spring Thaw" are on sale through Mrs. Spears. An open general meeting will be held at the hospital tonight at 8. The next area meeting will be on February 24. Mrs. Peter Salna, Weldrick Road, was given a life membership.

Home and School
 Ross Doan Home and School met February 1. Work for the spring fair was started. A very interesting panel on the new approach to mathematics was given by E. Totten, master teacher of mathematics for York

Hi Neighbors!
 Everybody is interested in news. Many folk in and beyond this neighborhood have been asking why this column has been missing. The reason was — no news. At least not until it was old news — so please call me. I would appreciate it very much.

Central District High Schools: Matt Kinnari, grade 7 and 8 teacher in Richmond Hill; and Mrs. Joan Rutledge, grade 1 teacher of that town.

Now the parents understand better why their children seem confused but find mathematics a real challenge.

Principal R. McWhirter left hospital last Saturday but is still convalescing, it was reported. Frank Callahan has been doing a fine job of substituting for Mr. McWhirter.

Hay Ride
 Weldrick Road Baptist Church held a "hay ride" for the Sunday school children on Friday evening. Scores of youngsters had a "hale" of fun, then returned to the church for refreshments. February 14 marks the fifth anniversary for the church and Mr. Woodhouse and Miss Chloe Chamberlain will be guest speakers. There will be a "birthday party" for the children in the afternoon and each child's name will be put in the guest book.

Sympathy
 Deep sympathy to the family of the late Myrtle Middleton. Miss Middleton was well known in this area and had lived on Carrville Road for many years. Until recently she had been in the employ of D. H. Storms for 16 years.

1964 Annual Report records another outstanding year for The Mutual Life of Canada

Continuing expansion of all areas of service is the keynote of The Mutual Life of Canada's 1964 Annual Report. New ordinary life insurance sales of $366 Million, which topped all previous records, and group life insurance sales of $90 Million, brought total sales for the year to $456 Million. Business in force now exceeds $4.3 Billion. More money than ever was paid out last year to living policyholders. Increased dividends will be paid to policyholders in 1965, the 10th increase in 12 years. The Mutual Life of Canada continues a course of steady, sound growth.
