

ROM Speaker Parent-Education Meeting Thornhill Nursery School

Women's Institute
On February 18 the Thornhill WI met at the home of Mrs. L. Jamieson, 24 Centre St. President Mrs. H. Mizen presided.

The meeting opened with repeating of the creed and institute ode. The motto was "Keep your word with your children, the same as you do your banker." The roll call "Should November 11 be a school holiday?" was answered by the members, who all agreed that November 11 should be a holiday if it was observed with full meaning, and the children taught same. It was also felt that the children should attend a service commemorating Armistice Day.

It was agreed to send $10.00 to the WI scholarship fund to help bring it's total up to $50,000. Thornhill WI has previously donated generously to this fund. Mrs. C. Sinclair gave an interesting paper on agriculture and Canadian industries.

Birthday greetings were the order of the day as this was the 63rd birthday of the Thornhill WI. As two members had birthdays in February, the usual happy birthday was sung, including the wishes to the Thornhill WI.

The ladies were happy to have as their guest Mrs. H. Swabey former president. Mr. and Mrs. Swabey were formerly residents of Steeles Avenue, East. Another former president, Mrs. E. McKean of Orillia, sent greetings with a gift to be used as the members chose.

A delicious lunch was then served which included a beautifully iced birthday cake made by one of the members, Mrs. W. Thompson. Hostess for the meeting were Mrs. L. Jamieson, Mrs. C. Sinclair and Mrs. J. Fisher.

The next meeting will be held at the Presbyterian Church on Centre St. when Mrs. C. Hooper of Buttonville, district WI president will be the special guest. Members of the Unionville WI will also be guests at the meeting.

Guides and Brownies
January and February have been busy with meetings and pleasure 'do's' for Thornhill South Guides. The Third Thornhill Company had the King City guides as their guests for a skating party. Skating was enjoyed at Pioneer Village after which everyone returned to Henderson School for refreshments. Skits, dancing and a sing-song rounded off a very pleasant evening.

Badges earned during the past two months by Guides of third company were Second Class; Gwynne Leitch, Gwen Webster and Diane Steele. Skaters: Elizabeth Bick, Carolyn Connors, Marcia McCuaig and Diane Steele. Child Care: Carolyn Connors, Marcia McCuaig Elizabeth Bick. Minister: Elizabeth Bick. Hostess: Marcia McCuaig. Mrs. K. Ford is at present teaching these girls their first aid requirements.

On February 5, the Fifth Company had their second enrolment ceremony since being formed as a company. Five recruits were enrolled as Guides by District Guide E. Moore. After the ceremony Captain E. Turner showed some slides. Robin Crandall and Barbara Roones earned their hostess badge by serving refreshments to the Guides with the assistance of Mrs. S. Breithaupt.

The fifth company recently had a hike on the Robinson farm property. The girls had a chance to practise for a test during their half day hike.

The Third Thornhill Brownies with the Sixth Thornhill Pack had a joint skating party at the Thornhill Pond recently. After skating the Brownies went to the homes of Brown Owl M. Chambers and Brown Owl S. Stone for refreshments and songs.

Badges earned in these packs were skaters: Kathy Rice, Patrice Smythe, Cindy Jones, Debbie Bassett, Deanna Bennet, Vicki Waterfield, Debbie Marchiori, Marlene Ford, and Elizabeth Stone. Swimmers: Elizabeth Stone. Golden Bars: Carol Barron, Debbie Bassett and Cindy Jones.

Seventh Thornhill Pack have also been very busy. Badges earned were writers: Linda Davison, Golden Bars: Michelle Manchester, Mary Jane McAlpine, Barbara Lloyd and Sheila Chase.

Nursery School
The second parent-education meeting of the Thornhill Nursery School was held at the home of Mrs. J. Andrews, 26 Idleswift Dr. on February 16. Guest speakers were Miss Norma Heakes, supervisor of education at the Royal Ontario Museum, and Miss Eugene Berlin, supervisor of the Saturday morning club at the museum. Miss Heakes presented some very interesting and informative slides pertaining to various aspects of the museum. Miss Berlin showed the mothers some excellent work done by pupils of the Saturday morning club, including art work, weaving and clay models.

Mrs. M. Bainbridge thanked the speakers and presented them with flowers. Refreshments were served by the executive.

The next meeting will be held in May when a guest speaker from the Montessori School will speak to the parents.

St. Lukes CWL
The March 1 meeting of the Catholic Women's League will have Mrs. Dorothea Parks, chairman of the Theresians, as guest speaker. Her subject will be education.

On February 26 members of the CWL will attend a conference on communications, at the Rosary parish hall St. Clair Avenue West. This is a workshop for parish residents.

Those attending from St. Lukes CWL will be Mrs. Florence Martiniuk, 1st. vice-president Mrs. Helena Laughran, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Alice Kirby, T.V. and radio convenor; and Mrs. V. DeMarco, past president.

radio, television and film convenors, and all interested in communication.

Mrs. Daniel McCarthy will speak on "How to Plan a Program in Your Parish", and Miss Bonnie Brennan, recently returned from the Vatican, will speak on "The World of Communication Today". A documentary film on teenage life, entitled "The Age of Wonder", will be shown. This was filmed in Toronto and shown on "Horizon", a CBC presentation. Tom Koch will give the introductory comments. At the end of the film, Mrs. Daniel Donovan, president of the Toronto Archdiocese Council of CWL, will give comments and explain the importance of film evaluation. Father O'Neil S.J., of St. Regis College, will summarize the discussions. Chairman for the event is E. Chomistek, Archdiocese convenor for radio, television and films.

Those attending from St. Lukes CWL will be Mrs. Florence Martiniuk, 1st. vice-president Mrs. Helena Laughran, 2nd vice-president; Mrs. Alice Kirby, T.V. and radio convenor; and Mrs. V. DeMarco, past president.

Communion breakfast was held. Speaker was Rev. Mariano Rughl, an Anglican clergyman who ministers to the Italian community in Toronto.

The men's association Corporate Communion and breakfast will be held February 28 at 8 a.m. Speaker will be Rev. Canon Leslie Hunt, principal of Wycliffe College.

Attention everyone! The Trinity Teens and Twenties invite all members, adults and children, to attend the annual pancake supper on Shrove Tuesday March 2 from 5.30 to 7.30 p.m. Admission 50c per person.

Baptist Church
The February meeting of the Anna Buck Mission Circle was held at the home of Mrs. R. N. Colville, Westwood Lane February 18.

Mrs. Colville first entertained the ladies to a dessert luncheon, following which the meeting was held with the President, Mrs. T. C. Lawson in charge.

A special offering was taken for the work of Feller College in Quebec, where no student is turned away through lack of ability to pay.

A film feature "Christ in the Art of Africa" was shown by Mrs. M. C. Johnston. There were many examples in painting and sculpture, to show how the Africans interpret the Christ beliefs for themselves. These works are silent witnesses to the eternal truths of God.

The March meeting will be another session of working for the White Cross, and a discussion on Baptist work in Western Canada.

HOCKEY PERSONALITY
Jim and Robin Hood are Buttonville's contribution to the Stouffville Clipper hockey club. Jim who is 185 lbs of muscular defenseman discourages and frustrates more opposing forwards than any defenseman in the league. He is 6' 3" tall and 19 years old. He is playing his third season with the Clippers.

Jim's interests in sport are varied. He enjoys football, basketball and plays lacrosse. He is a grade 12 student at Thornhill Secondary School and has applied for a hockey scholarship at Northeastern University in Boston, Mass. If all goes according to plan, he will teach hockey while in the U.S. Upon graduation from school, Jim hopes to become a physical education and mathematics teacher.

Brother Robin plays forward on the team and is in his first year with the Clippers. Robin's main sport is hockey. He is employed by his father. Jim and Robin are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hood of Buttonville.
