Floyd Perkins Rink Wins Trophy

Floyd Perkins, skip of the rink composed of Florrie Smith as vice, Marty Cormack as second and Ann Schwartz, as lead, to a story-book finish to win the McCann Trophy in the Shillelagh Bonspiel, at Richmond Hill Curling Club, one of the biggest 'spels in the Toronto area. Sixty-eight rinks were entered.

For the first time in the six years the tournament has been held, Richmond Hill rinks were among the prizewinners, with the Perkins rink being the big, big, winners.

In the final game the Perkins rink took on Vern Trunk from Unionville, and were leading 11-0 after seven ends for what looked like an easy win. The Unionville rink counted six in the eighth end, four in the ninth and one in the tenth to tie it up. An extra end was played and it was not until Floyd delivered his last rock of the game, a truly fantastic shot, that the outcome was assured. The local team, skipped by the town's deputy-reeve, received a vociferous ovation from the more than 350 persons present.

Another Richmond Hill rink, this one skipped by Don Richards, took the A. R. Davey Trophy for the second event. He was aided by his wife Phyl Richards as vice, Bob Copeland second, and Marie Field, lead. They defeated Bob Hall from Tam - Heather, who went through to the finals of the O'Keefe Trophy a few weeks ago.

The Wilson-Niblett Trophy (new this year) for the third event was won by Herm Chambers, Trenton, as skip; Connie Chambers, vice; Don Bell second; and Audrey Bell, lead. They defeated Len Gillies' rink of Leaside.

Another local rink, skipped by Clem Reeds, won the consolation of the first event. Flo Reeds was her husband's vice, Harold Louden was second and Audrey Louden lead. They ousted Harvey Acton of Uxbridge, one of curling's big names.

Ellerby Farr's rink, of Newmarket, carried off the consolation prize by defeating Bob and Peg Austin and Wally and Gwen Rose of Richmond Hill. Jack Grigg's rink of Orangeville beat out Pete Cooper of Avonlea to take the third event consolation.

All in all it was a very, very successful week, reports Bruce Butterworth, club professional, with entertainment provided around the clock.

A cup and saucer was held last Friday and the Lions Club held its annual 'spiel March 27. A mixed open 'spiel is scheduled for April 3 and is already filled.

James Dean Addresses York C'ty University Women's Club Members

James Dean, director and head of the department of mathematics at Central Technical School, Toronto, entertained members of the York County University Women's Club at their March meeting with anecdotes of his experiences with the Dominion Drama Festival, and produced plays for forty years and did more than anyone else to make authentic drama a reality in secondary schools.

The Dominion Drama Festival was established by Royal charter to encourage all forms of theatre in Canada through annual festivals. Canada is divided into eight zones and the winner of each zone presents a full length play at the finals. The charter does not limit membership to amateurs. There are 2,600 small producing groups in Ontario and Mr. Dean noted that the smaller, the centre, the larger the house they attracted.

He was optimistic about the future of the DDF with their policy of professional help for amateurs, their co-operation with professional theatre, and the forming of leagues and festivals in country areas.

Mr. Dean stressed the importance of developing Canadian playwrights to strengthen the national theatre. The playwrights need to have a market for their plays in order to see them produced and correct their mistakes.

The speaker was introduced by Miss Edna Izzard, Richmond Hill, and thanked by Mrs. Bruce Davis, King City.

Two new members were introduced to the group Mrs. Ben Wang, a graduate of Taiwan and Mrs. D. H. Stevens, a graduate of Western Ontario.

Golden Anniversary
The home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Acreman, Keswick was aglow with golden bells, yellow, gold and mauve 'mums and fifty Bing Crosby carnations on the occasion of their fiftieth wedding anniversary, March 7.

More than sixty guests called during the day to congratulate the couple. Friends and relatives from Peterboro, Omemece, Schomberg, Bolton, Scarboro, Leaside, Brooklin, Long Branch, Toronto and Keswick as well as friends and neighbors from Headford where Mr. and Mrs. Acreman had lived for thirty years before moving to Keswick.

The beautifully decorated table was centred with a three tier wedding cake made by their daughter-in-law, Lorraine Mrs. W. Clark and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. Cummer Lee, Gordon and Gloria; Mrs. W. Wellman, Mrs. N. Brodie and Miss Cora Brodie; Mr. and Mrs. George Barker and Charles, Mr. Freeman Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Acreman. The delicious refreshments were prepared by members of the Headford U.C.W. Mrs. Acreman had been an active and valuable member of that organization for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Acreman are both in good health and able to enjoy their pleasure in gardening. They enjoyed the many cards received from friends expressing good wishes.

Guests from Headford were: Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wellman, Brenda and Paul; Mr. and Mrs. W. Clark and Jean; Mr. and Mrs. Cummer Lee, Gordon and Gloria; Mrs. W. Wellman, Mrs. N. Brodie and Miss Cora Brodie; Mr. and Mrs. George Barker and Charles, Mr. Freeman Barker, Mr. and Mrs. Murray Acreman and wee Mary Elizabeth.

Baseball Injury
Gloria Lee suffered serious injury to her teeth when she was hit by a baseball bat while playing at school. To save her teeth she must not encounter any jarring motion that will disturb the nerve ends. This condition requires great care and she will be unable to return to school for some time. The concern and sympathy of the whole community is with you Gloria.

Sunday March 8 concluded the confirmation classes held in Victoria Square United. Patsy Searle, Michael Gosling and Michael Calder attended from Headford, three in a class of ten. Patsy was unable to take the final class due to an attack of mumps.

Mrs. L. Lecouve, Montreal is the guest of her daughter Mrs. Harry Burton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Marshall, Ottawa were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wellman. Mr. Marshall is a brother of Mrs. Wellman. He has been attending a mining convention in Toronto.

Tally Ho! We heard it on the radio but not one wolf did we see in the wilds of Headford. Spying helicopters hovered above us and groups of little boys carried on feverish arguments about the desperate marauders. It seems that they can attack people and do some pretty bad mangling — "even climb trees after what they want," and one knew
