A floor length mauve brocade gown and the bridesmaids floor length mauve peau de soie gowns. All attendants carried nosegays of small pink roses and white chrysanthemums.

Birthdays

Special birthday wishes to E. P. Leno of Richmond Hill, who will be celebrating his ninety-first birthday on April 19.

Belated greetings to John Nielson who was ten years old on April 13. Many happy returns of April 21 to Doug Browne.

Homescoming Delayed

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Robertson, David and John, were looking forward to Mabel Louise returning from the west last week but instead received news that she was in Assiniboia Hospital, Sask. Mabel Louise, who is Guide captain of the First Assiniboia Company, was taking her patrol leaders on a hike when she fell and broke both bones in her leg. Two days after setting the leg the doctors decided they would have to operate and insert steel plates. Mabel Louise contacted her parents last weekend and informed them that X-rays show the operation to be successful, and the family now expects her home about the middle of May. Her many friends are pleased to hear the result of the operation and wish her a speedy recovery.

Neighborhood Notes

Welcome home to Mrs. Giles Kerswell who returned to her Jefferson residence last weekend. Mrs. Kerswell spent the winter in Falconbridge, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Holmes.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Clubine of Victoria Square were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. Gamble, Yonge St., on Tuesday of last week.

Parents of Vaughan kindergarten pupils in this district who attended the spring fair at Roselawn School last Saturday enjoyed an afternoon of great variety. The entrance to the fair, a lattice decorated with artificial flowers, was especially noteworthy and both parents and children found something of interest in the movies, game room, fish pond, rummage sale and other attractions.

Information is that Mr. and Mrs. Jack Passmore and Margi, of Zueibrucken, Germany, are planning a tour of Italy during the Easter vacation.

Leaving on Friday and returning Sunday, Michael Terry accompanied Mrs. L. McGlashan to Ithaca, New York State, to attend the wedding on Saturday morning of Terry McGlashan to Miss Betsy Franz. The wedding and reception took place at Cornell University.

Several boys from this district play on various teams in the Richmond Hill Hockey Association which completed the 1964-65 season last week. Brian Rushlow and Denis Gamble are members of the Surf Marine championship team of the bantam league - Brian having the distinction of being the top goal-getter. In the atom league, Ian Corkin contributed to the success of the Shepherd and Gill team who were the atom champions. Good work boys and congratulations.

On Sunday, dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Robertson were Mrs. J. E. Robertson, Hall's mother, and Mrs. Mabel Alexander, his sister, both of Toronto.

St. John's Church News

Your Legion Reports

Branch 375, Royal Canadian Legion
By Eric Chapman - 884-0045

Pictures from the Orillia newspaper, showing the color guard on parade, are at present on display in the club room at Legion Court. One shows the much photographed mascot "Baron" with his handler, Comrade Ernest Pineau. Ernie left Orillia in the afternoon after the parade and was greeted on his return to Richmond Hill with the news that he had become a grandfather. His daughter, Marie Day, was responsible for honoring him this honor and his grandson, Michael, weighed in at 8 lbs., 1 oz. Michael's weight on arrival is promising and if he keeps it up for a few years will have all the requirements for entry into the color guard.

It was disappointing that delegate Jack Sanders was unable to attend because of chicken pox.

Jack Hackett of Alliston has stepped down as district commander. Bob Jeffries, Bracebridge, was elected to fill his place for the next two years. Ivan Crowe of Barrie defeated Gus Balderer, Orillia and Ernie Roberts, Creemore, for the office of deputy commander. Comrade Orrie Truman, Woodbridge was re-elected for an unprecedented tenth term as district sports officer. Other district officers will be chosen by the zone commanders.

Gloria Sanford reports the ladies' auxiliary will be host to all branches from Zone E2 on May 31 for the zone rally. This rally will include ceremonies under the direction of Sgt. at Arms Rose Donally. Guest speaker will be Provincial Hon. Treasurer Jean Dumouchelle of Windsor.

The Orillia ladies may have heard of the exploits of the 375 ladies because at the district ball the Orillia group put on a show, "The Bedbugs". The show was good and it is surprising that nobody has suggested a district competition for such entertaining productions. If there had been such a contest we are sure the ladies from Richmond Hill would have added another award to those we have managed to secure.

The branch welcomed a tall and young new comrade from Yorkshire, England, last week. His name is Ken Smiley, and the first thing he did on becoming a member was to join the color guard.

The hockey season ended for the Legion Midgets on a not too sour note. Although eliminated from OMHA and North York Playdowns they played in Bowmanville recently and took the consolation championship in that tournament. During the season they won 27 games, tied five and lost 19.

A gathering of Richmond Hill hobo and hayseed types attended Legion Court last Saturday evening to celebrate "Hard Times". Celebrities from the shabby social set mingled with the poor and penniless, displaying the latest threadbare fashions that only the talent of Christian Dior himself could improve.

Gatecrashing the crowd of yokels and tramps were the prominent celebrities Lord and Lady Swell. Lord Swell, alias 'Rick', alias Arthur Rickard, who is reported to own a chain of gasoline outlets was dressed in white tie and tails. His exceptionally shabby top hat covered a mop of curly white hair similar to that of the late Harpo Marx. One white glove, with holes where there should have been fingers, held an umbrella. He said the cigar he was smoking in a long holder had been donated by a business associate, Comrade White Owl. When Lord Swell was awarded the prize for the worst dressed man he announced he had lost a glove with the thumb missing and was offering a $500 reward.

Lady Lucy Swell was elegantly attired in a black evening dress, Charleston style, and the plumage she wore in her hair kept bobbing up and down in the same manner that Lucy does when she sings "Sons of the Sea".

Frances Beaulieu who said she represented the 'grandmother of the hill-billies', hailing from Arkansas, Richmond Hill, was also awarded a prize. Hayseed Betty Kernohan, capably carried out the function of MC and a good time was had by all.
