T&C Juveniles North York Champs

After a slump earlier in the season the Town & Country Juveniles are really getting going. Last week they clinched the North York Championship by defeating Bolton in the two-game total-goals final series 7-6. They also won their first game in the Milton Tournament.

Wednesday night at Richmond Hill, the T&C lads tied the Bolton boys 1-1 in the first game of the North York playoffs. Jack Dubkowski took a pass from Bruce Sim to sink the locals' one and only goal.

Friday night at Bolton, the juveniles played really good hockey to score six goals and edge their hosts by one goal in the game and the series.

T&C's counters were netted by Dennis Connor, George Shepherd (2), Ken Crook, Clay Chapman and Howie Martin. Assists went to Frank Pirri, Doug Carter, Bob Booth and Chapman.

and the Milton Tournament. Bobbie Safruk has replaced Bob Ritchie in goal and has played terrific games so far. His team mates are certain he will continue to turn back the attackers as the tournament progresses.

Wednesday night at 9 p.m. they will meet the winners of the Mt. Hamilton-Tillsonburg round which was played Monday, in the Milton Arena.

Then on Friday at 7 p.m. if they are successful they will meet the survivor of Orillia, Fort Erie, Bowmanville, Weston.

The juveniles would be happy to have their fans in attendance at these games. Information may be secured from Bill Points at 884-1944 or Marsh Amos at 884-4545.

Minor Ball Parade June 16 This Year

More than 750 boys and girls will be enjoying organized ball this season under the aegis of the Richmond Hill Minor Ball Association.

As in former years, highlight of the season will be the annual minor ball parade on June 16. The committee in charge are seeking floats from interested local business people and industrialists to participate in the parade and make it one long to be remembered. If you are interested, contact Stan Ransom at his barbershop, Merv. Mereteski at Kent Clothes, Vern Dynes at Dynes Jewellers or Bing Lew at the Town Inn for more information on just what is wanted. Russ Cripps is chairman of the parade committee this year.

This committee will be meeting April 21 to further plans for the best parade ever.

Atom All Stars Win Three Games

Joe Ranieri's Atom All Stars from the Richmond Hill Hockey Association's house league won three games last week.

The team defeated Lou's Transport 3-2 in the local arena. The All Stars' goals were scored by Ron McBride from Gurney, Bob Gilpin from John Stokes and John Ranieri unassisted.

The boys also took two games in the Tam O'Shanter Tournament.

On April 3 they defeated Wexford 2-0 with McBride getting both tallies. He was assisted on one by Sackfield and on the other by Barnett.

Last Saturday they defeated Toronto Township, rated as one of the best teams in the THL 1-0. Stokes got the lone counter in this game with an assist from McBride. Goalie David Addley played a terrific game as he shut out the strong THL team.

CURLING

The Kingfield, final ladies' open bonspiel was held April 7 at Richmond Hill Curling Club. Two draws with two 10-end games were played. High for the day was a rink skipped by Mrs. Mary Mills of the Granite Club, with a high of 24 points.

This rink won the very beautiful Kingfield Trophy, originally presented by Janet Burns of Kingfield Farms. The trophy was presented by Vice-President "Marnie" Moore, assisted by Bonspiel Chairman Blanche Reid.

Other winners of the 'spiel were:

9 o'clock draw: first, two game high, Mrs. Shannon Brockville; second, Mrs. Mildred Brown, Unionville; third, Mrs. Peg Charlton, Thornhill; fourth, one game high, Mrs. Ruth Mabbett, Richmond Hill, with Nona Bedwell vice, Jessie Wainwright second and Jean King lead.

11:30 a.m. draw: first, two game high (trophy winner), Mrs. Mary Mills, Granite Club; second, Mrs. Dorothy Wilson, Thornhill; third, Mrs. Blanche Reid, Richmond Hill, with Pat Thomson, Audrey Doherty and Connie Stephenson; fourth, Mrs. Snider, St. George.

The visiting rinks were entertained at the members' homes during the luncheon period between games. Hostesses were Maisie Gibson, "Babe" Bennett, Anna Little, Janet Burns, "Billy" Rogers, Ger Robertson and Marie Fields. They were assisted by members not participating in the 'spiel.

Convening social arrangements was Doris Vance with her committee Keitha Matheson, Wyn Simpson and Edna McLeod.

Springlike flower arrangements in the lounge were the responsibility of Olive Harrower and her committee, Effie Acomb and Mary McIlveen. They were designed by Marg Runney, Prize chairman was Eileen Peck, assisted by Janet Burns. Bonspiel chairman was Blanche Reid and her committee of Pat Thomson, Audrey Doherty and Connie Stephenson.

At the closing business meeting held April 8, committee, chairman summarized the year's work.

Maisie Gibson will be the District 13 representative replacing Peg Austin who is unable to continue due to a business transfer. President Lorraine Waters introduced Keitha Matheson, Edna Barker, Norma Lavender and Gina Morlock, who will be the new executive members.

"Marnie" Moore, the new club president, was then introduced, and she introduced Blanche Reid, vice-president and house convener; Joyce Davey, secretary; Jessie Wainwright, treasurer; Keitha Matheson, social chairman; Gina Morlock, games chairman; Marie Field, bonspiel chairman; Joan Taylor, membership, rating and training chairman; Edna Barker, members' bonspiels chairman; Lorraine Waters, bonspiel secretary; Norma Lavender, publicity chairman; and Olive Harrower, prize chairman.

The new president presented the outgoing president with her past president's pin. Lovely carnation corsage "thank you's" were presented by the past president to each member of her executive.

Schedule and Games Chairman Marie Fields, assisted by the past president and prize chairman Eileen Peck, presented the Brokenshire Trophy and the Barth Trophy to the two schedule winners.

The Brokenshire Trophy was
