Church News
Headford United Church recognized family day last Sunday with the Sunday school taking charge of the service. Superintendent Stewart Rumble gave the call to worship; Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it. The scripture lesson in four parts was read by Patsy Searle. Kathy Burton, Jean Clark and Rosemary Leek, Keith Burton told the children's story "God's Room." Dr. Binnington spoke on the theme for the day, Faith in God for today's families. A christening service of interest to the congregation was that of Timothy Peter van Tol, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin van Tol. Besides his parents the wee one had the loving support of his grandparents and one great grandparent and other relatives.

The congregation had the pleasure of meeting for the first time, Student Minister R. G. Hobbs, B. A. Taking Mr. Hobbs place for May 16 service will be John Oussoren, B.A. who is also entering third year at Emmanuel College.

In the evening the congregation met for a hymn sing with Mrs. Rumble at the organ and Mrs. G. Barker, president of the U.C.W. conducting the service. Mrs. L. Guild and Mrs. C. Lee assisted in the devotional period, the choir sang four selections and with the congregation sang familiar hymns. Dr. Binnington told the story of hymn 162 written by Miss Harriet Auber. Miss Auber, born in 1773 lived to be 89 years of age, she wrote a number of hymns and a book, The Spirit of the Psalms. The particular story in connection with Hymn 162 is that she wrote it, after her night retiring, on her window pane with a diamond ring. She was afraid that the inspiration that came to her suddenly late at night would evaporate if she took time to search for pencil and paper.

Family day was celebrated in Headford with family gatherings, phone calls from distant members and news exchanged from letters and cards.

Socials
Mrs. D. C. Calder is a patient in York Central Hospital for surgery and expects to be there for two weeks.

Kathy Burton attended the formal dance at Thornhill Secondary School May 7 - and had a wonderful time.

Our apricot tree is in full blossom and the precious birds are busily picking off insects. When the fruit is showing we will have another adjective for the wretched little birds that are destroying the fruit. Oh well!

Baseball is the topic of the day around this hamlet Harry Burton is coaching a senior team and Albert Leek will take over the juniors.

At this season school seems to be an expendable activity but listen my children to the words of a wise man of thousands of years ago, and echoed today by tireless adults. From Proverbs a father instructs his family saying:

"Listen my children, when I was little my father told me - get sense, get knowledge - never leave her and she will guard you, love her and she will take care of you and bring you honor, embrace her and she will adorn you with charm and crown you with glory. Listen my children, attend to wisdom, bend your ear to knowledge."

Mark Terry celebrated his 12th birthday Saturday and entertained 15 guests. Fifteen young lads can find a lot to do to have fun. Becky Stator also celebrated a Tuesday birthday on Saturday, and entertained her friends to supper. Congratulations to both young people. Becky is 11 years old.

Janet McQueen, Wayne Patterson Wed In Banfield Memorial Church

A wedding of local interest took place recently in Banfield Memorial Church, Toronto, when Janet Belle McQueen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander McQueen of Weston became the bride of Wayne Patterson, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Patterson, RR 2, Gormley.

The church was decorated with pink and white carnations for the ceremony, conducted by Rev. Ray Priddle. Miss Willa Cressman played the wedding music, and before the service and during the signing of the register Misses Margaret and Patricia Patterson, the groom's sisters, sang "O Perfect Love," and "A Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and wore a white brocaded satin sheath and matching three-quarter length "A" line coat which featured a stand-out collar. Her pouf veil fell from a rose crown, and she carried a small teardrop cascade of red and white rosebuds.

Miss Margaret Smith was her cousin's bridesmaid, and she chose a pink crepe sheath with matching head bow and veiling. Her accessories were white and she carried a cascade of pink and white rosebuds and carnation florets. Paul Jordan was best man, and the ushers were John McQueen, brother of the bride, and Gerald Osborne.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlours. The bride's mother received wearing a pink wool dressmaker suit with black hat and accessories and a corsage of white roses. Mrs. Patterson assisted wearing heliotrope lace with matching accessories and a corsage of pink and white rosebuds with carnations florets.

After a brief trip to Ottawa and points east, the bride and groom returned to their home at Gormley.
