Is money any object to a man interested in features, styling, performance and dependability?

You bet it is!

Even though you want a car that's built to last, goes like a hungry cheetah and looks like Miss Universe, you've still got your budget to consider.

That's why Rambler American is the car for you. There are 8 models to choose from, including the lowest-priced Canadian-built sedan, the lowest-priced Canadian-built wagon, the lowest-priced Canadian-built hardtop and the lowest-priced Canadian-built convertible. (We think we should consider your budget, too.) One of them has everything you want—except a big fat price tag.

Looks? Take a look. You'll find styling you wouldn't mind paying extra for (if you had to).

Performance? Our all-new 155 h.p. Torque Command Six is one engine that deserves some healthy consideration from you (and some healthy respect from any other engine). Its 7 Main Bearing Crankshaft with eight counterweights gives you one of the sweetest rides going—and coming back. Then there are a pair of snappy sixes at 90 and 125 h.p. that just can't seem to slow down for gas stations.

Dependability? Rambler pioneered it. And built a reputation around it—the best in the business. Rambler American gives you sound, honest quality that lasts through thousands of miles of trouble-free driving. Dependability—that's Rambler talk. (Sometimes we think nobody else speaks that language. Not fluently, anyway.)

And how about features? Count 'em: safe, strong, rattle-free Single Unit Construction, Uniside, Deep-Dip Rustproofing, Double Safety Brakes, Ceramic-Armoured Muffler, Curved-Glass Side Windows and Options—dozens of them, from automatic transmission to reclining seats to headrests.

Now that we've told you something about all you get in a Rambler American, can we still say that it's the lowest-priced Canadian-built car? You bet we can! Prove it to yourself.

The lowest-priced Canadian-built car.

DIANNE FIERHELLER IS BRIDE OF DAVID IVERSON

Pretty Spring Wedding

Decorated with pink and white spring flowers, Thornhill United Church was the scene of the wedding on May 15 of Phyllis Dianne Fierheller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Fierheller, RR 1, Maple, to David Michael Iverson, son of Mrs. Beryl Iverson, Thornhill.

Rev. A. I. Higgins officiated and Miss Jacqueline Duncan sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white Swiss lace over pink organza and taffeta with short sleeves and a scoop neckline. The moulded bodice was trimmed with a matching bow and sash. The skirt was fashioned with controlled fullness in front and an accented A-line in back. A fingertip veil fell from a French silk bow. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white roses, carnation petals and stephanotis.

Miss Jane Fierheller was maid of honor for her sister and wore a floor-length dress of carnation pink shantung with a scoop neckline and short sleeves. A matching tailored bow decorated the bodice front. Her matching pink bow head-dress held a puff veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and gladioli.

Groomsman was Sandy Kelson and the bride's brother Douglas Fierheller was the usher. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Summit View Gardens, Richmond Hill.

The bride's mother received wearing a taupe silk crepe dress, matching hat and accessories. The groom's mother wore pink with navy accessories. For the honeymoon trip to Western Ontario, the bride wore a beige linen suit with matching accessories and a pink flowered hat.

Mr. and Mrs. Iverson will live at Lyndock, Ontario where the groom commences his duties as a student minister July 1.

Mrs. Iverson was York County Dairy Princesses for three years and is at present a teacher at Sheppard Avenue Public School. Mr. Iverson attended Waterloo University and both are graduates of Thornhill Secondary School.

Among those who entertained for the bride prior to the wedding were Mrs. Cecil Smith, Mrs. M. Nichols and the teachers of Sheppard Avenue School who gave a miscellaneous shower; Miss Jacqueline Duncan, a linen shower and Mrs. B. Iverson, a pantry shower.

Presentations were made by the choir of Thornhill United Church of which both bride and groom are members; by the pupils of Mrs. Iverson's grade 2 class and from the Kelson family.
