

Life in the Hill

Editor Margot Crack

Rev. C. G. Higginson, minister of Richmond Hill United Church, and Mrs. Higginson, leave at the end of the week for a month's cottage holiday at Rideau Lakes, Kingston.

Mrs. M. Appleton leaves on Friday for Chelsea, London, England, following an extended holiday with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. Douglas-Crampton and family, Maple.

Deirdre Jackson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jackson, Altamira Road will leave next week for Jackson's Point where she will spend the summer months as an apprentice with the Harlequin Players at the Red Barn Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shields and sons Stuart and Duncan, Lynett Crescent, left by car on Monday for California where they will spend the summer months, with the possibility of taking up permanent residence.

Mrs. Ida Marsden, 259 Ruggles, left York Central Hospital on Sunday and is convalescing at the home of her daughter, Mrs. K. Ellsworth, London, Ont. Mrs. Marsden is an active member of the local senior citizens.

Slides of Canada, Alaska, Nassau and Hawaii were enjoyed by members of the Mary and Martha Guild of the Presbyterian Church at last Wednesday's meeting. The slides had been photographed by Miss Stella Mackie on her travels during the past few years. Plans for a doll bazaar in September were discussed at the meeting.

Miss Susan Pelletier was presented with a certificate for memorizing the junior catechism at the last session of the Presbyterian Sunday school before the summer holidays, last Sunday. Pins for perfect attendance, were also presented with recipients ranging from three year olds through the Bible class. A six year old girl, Tracy Francis, received her award for three years perfect attendance.

OS FRANK EMANUEL
Ordinary Seaman Frank Emanuel, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Emanuel, 464 Palmer Avenue, has won the "Best in Parade" award on graduation from a 15-week new entry training course at HMCS Cornwallis, Nova Scotia.

Not for long. We're easily reached by phone when you need your prescriptions refilled. Call-in orders are promptly attended to, just as when you come in person to our store. There's nothing more important to us than filling your prescription.

YOUR PHARMACY
Allencourt Pharmacy Ltd.
Wm. C. Lazenby, B.Sc. Pharm.
884-4461
Allencourt Shopping Centre
Markham Rd. & Bayview Avenue
Richmond Hill

Mrs. James Pollard, Church Street North, will be the guest speaker at the July 4 service at Temperanceville United Church.

Mrs. Pollard is vice-president of York Presbytery U.C.W.

Receiving the Sacrament of Baptism at St. Mary's Anglican Church on Sunday were Terrence David, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Bunker, Gail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nurse, and Darin Alfred, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ramsey.

Sports directors William Babcock and John Passmore of Richmond Hill High and Bayview Secondary Schools, attended the annual convention of the Canadian Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation which opened in Fredericton, New Brunswick, on Monday. Mrs. Babcock accompanied them on the trip.

The physical unfitness of most Canadians was the main problem under discussion by the 500 delegates.

Strawberries, cream and cake and real antiques in the white elephant booth will be features of the annual garden tea to be held this Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawson Mumberson, corner of 17th Avenue and Don Mills Road.

Sponsoring group is the Gormley-Headford-Victoria Square Branch of York Central Hospital Auxiliary. That little gift for your summer hostess and appealing gifts to welcome a small baby will also be available.

Celebrates 50th Wedding Anniversary
Mrs. Eric Hadwen, Maple, entertained at a dinner party on June 18 in honor of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Paterson, Wood Lane, who were celebrating their golden wedding anniversary.

Guests included their son George, daughter Marjorie and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, Mrs. A. Anderson and J. E. Hadwen.

Eight of their 16 grandchildren were present, Ricky, Kim, Mark and Shelley Anne Hadwen and Gail, Cheryl, Judy and Wendy Paxton.

Greetings were received from their daughter Elizabeth Stead from Ottawa, son Bill from Rockwood and son Alex from Miami.

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Cliff and children Debbie, Johnny and Andy, Windhurst Gate, leave next weekend to take up residence in Montreal, where Mr. Cliff has been transferred to the head office of the Royal Typewriter Company.

The boys and girls of A. McKim's Sunday school class at St. John's Baptist Church were honored with a hike Sunday afternoon, to see the oldest pine tree in Ontario.

Mr. McKim's class achieved the highest points in a recently held contest by the Sunday school.

Richmond Hill Presbyterian congregational picnic will be held at Boyd Conservation Area this Saturday. Those without transportation are asked to meet at the central town park at 1:15 pm to board the bus which will take them to the picnic.

Mrs. D. McIntyre, Arnold Street, entertained on Thursday at a miscellaneous shower for Elizabeth Acton, whose marriage to Kenneth Thrush will take place August 14 at St. Mary's Anglican Church.

Assisting the hostess were her two daughters, Jean and Andrea, the bride elect's sister Ruth, and Mary Turton.

The Business Women's Unit of the U.C.W. of the Richmond Hill United Church held a "cook-out" on Tuesday at the Lake Simcoe cottage of Mrs. A. R. W. Uren.

The Morning Unit held a pot luck supper on the same day at the home of Mrs. K. Loftus, Arnold Crescent. The general theme of the evening was Brazil and Trinidad.

Spectators outside St. Matthew's United Church on Sunday might have been a little perplexed at the unusual attire of the congregation. Most arrived in Bermuda shorts or slims and sun hats of various colors and shapes.

After the service of worship led by Rev. F. James Burn, the congregation proceeded to Valley View Farm for their annual picnic. Here under the capable direction of John MacZachern, assisted by Jack Lynden and Mal McPherson, a full schedule of picnic activities was carried out, with over 300 people in attendance.

The younger children participated in many different types of races, while the older children took advantage of the swimming facilities. Parents joined in the fun while teenagers dressed as clowns entertained the small fry. The clowns were Carol Munroe, Brian Buchanan, Linda Price, Ricky Madley, Donna Rayson, Eddie Rogers, Valerie Danver and Carolyn Dennis.

The organizing committee and their many assistants are to be commended for a most successful afternoon.

YWCA
A morning Tupperware party was held on June 17 at the home of Mrs. Phyl Miller, Gamble Road for members of the Pleasantville group and friends. Mrs. Irene Miller conducted the demonstration, and proceeds were donated to the local YWCA.

During the coffee break Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Joyce Atkinson shared with members the highlights of the National YWCA Convention in Saskatoon.

Later that evening Mrs. Miller entertained the local YWCA Advisory Committee, Mrs. Anne Soderberg and Mrs. Gail Limoges of Maple at a dessert and coffee party.

Mrs. Mary Watts and Mrs. Kay Higgs commented on their recent pre-convention workshop in Peterboro, and report on the national convention was given by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Atkinson.

A local YWCA summer course for mothers and daughters is being held at the Richmond Hill Centennial Pool on Wednesday mornings from 10 to 11 am starting June 30 to September 1. Further information may be obtained by calling 884-2667.

Install Richmond Lodge Officers Tonight - K. W. Robbins New WM
Kenneth W. Robbins of Laverock Crescent will be installed as the worshipful master of Richmond Masonic Lodge tonight (Thursday).

The ceremonies will be conducted by Very Worshipful Bro. Harry Savers of Starlight Crescent, past grand steward and secretary of Richmond Lodge. He will be assisted by past masters of Richmond and other lodges and by present and past grand lodge officers.

To be invested are: Immediate Past Master V. Bro. Douglas Moore, Senior Warden Bro. Bob Jordan, Chaplain Bro. Joe Egerton, Treasurer Bro. Norm Todd, Secretary V. W. Bro. Harry Savers, Director of Ceremonies W. Bro. Roy Taylor, Senior Deacon Bro. Jim Anderson, Junior Deacon Bro. Joe Carnell, Inner Guard Bro. Mark Stewart, Junior Steward Bro. Lloyd Murphy, Junior Steward Bro. Jim Downey, Assistant Secretary Bro. Fred Fifield, Tyler Bro. Roy Gemmill, Organist W. Bro. Harold Ince.

Richmond Lodge originated in 1824 and carried on under V. W. Bro. David Bridgeford, after whom Bridgeford Street is named, until 1831. From 1832 to 1845 records are missing but from 1846 to the present, Richmond Lodge has a continuous history. It is one of the oldest masonic lodges in the Toronto area.

It is hoped that among the visitors at the installation and in-restitute will be members of the order now residing in the Richmond Hill area who may not belong to either of the local lodges. To them a cordial invitation is extended to meet and become acquainted with members of Richmond Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardwick, Bridgeport Street, who recently celebrated their silver wedding anniversary were guests of honor on three different occasions.

On May 29 they were taken to dinner, and upon their return home, were surprised to find their home full of neighbors who helped them celebrate.

On June 1, a small open house was held in the evening. The happy couple were assisted in opening their gifts by their bridesmaid - of 25 years ago - Miss Rowena Elliott, and in pouring tea by Mrs. Hardwick's sister, Mrs. James Tutt.

On June 5, another open house was held in their honor. On this occasion they were assisted by Mrs. Robert Giles and Mrs. Florence Carruthers.

To conclude their celebrations, Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick are taking a trip to the West Coast this summer.

The June meeting of Richmond Rose Chapter IOOE was held at the home of Mrs. James Outred, Markham. The evening was spent planning the chapter's September fashion show, followed by a film.

On Saturday last members enjoyed their annual barbecue at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. Weir, Mono Mills. The highlight of the evening was a hayride. Mrs. J. Kremer was the conductor for this event.

Sheila Orr, a graduate of Richmond Hill High School, graduated from Toronto East General and Orthopaedic Hospital with second highest standing in general proficiency, winning the silver medal, and an award for proficiency in medical nursing.

Local Boys At St. Andrew's College
The 61st annual inspection of No. 142 St. Andrew's College Highland Cadet Corps was held last month on the college campus at Aurora. Inspecting officer was Lt. Col. J. M. Lowndes, CD, commanding officer of the 48th Highlanders of Canada.

Pictured above following the inspection are (left to right): Cadet Corporal Robert D. Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Stephens, Richmond Hill; Lynn E. Beaumont, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Donald Beaumont, Richmond Hill; David J. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Martin, Maple; and David S. Douglas-Crampton, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Douglas-Crampton, RR 2, Maple.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stewart, were hosts to 250 guests and patients at a garden party held on Saturday at the Villa Nursing Home and Hospital. A buffet supper was prepared by the nursing home's cook, Mrs. N. McEwan. Entertainment was provided by the Dorothy Elgin Dancers and the Craddock children of Thornhill, who will be appearing in the fall on the Ed Sullivan Show.

Guests from the Hill included Mrs. Percy Hill, H. West, Mrs. G. Sweeney, Mrs. J. Patterson, Mrs. M. Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Watson, Mrs. F. W. Morrow, Mrs. J. Wynne and Mrs. E. S. Osmond.

SELLING YOUR BOAT?
Find a buyer through a classified ad in "The Liberal" on sale every Thursday. It's easy to place your ad. Just call 884-1105 or 889-3316 FOR FAST results.

Lutheran Church Outdoor Service Picnic Sunday At Humber Trails
St. Paul's Lutheran Church will hold its annual outdoor worship service and picnic Sunday at 10:30 am.

The mission board was holding its quarterly meeting in Toronto. It is the church extension agency of the Lutheran Church and supervises about 1500 mission congregations in the United States and Canada.

Accompanying board members were Dr. Donald Houser of Chicago, executive secretary of the board, Dr. Albert Lotz of Kitchener, president of the Eastern Canada Lutheran Synod and many other church officials.

The local visit was part of an afternoon tour of Toronto area Lutheran mission churches built with the board's assistance. Pastor Myers spoke briefly to the visiting members concerning the history and life of the local Lutheran congregation.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardwick, Bridgeport Street, who recently celebrated their silver wedding anniversary were guests of honor on three different occasions.

On May 29 they were taken to dinner, and upon their return home, were surprised to find their home full of neighbors who helped them celebrate.

On June 1, a small open house was held in the evening. The happy couple were assisted in opening their gifts by their bridesmaid - of 25 years ago - Miss Rowena Elliott, and in pouring tea by Mrs. Hardwick's sister, Mrs. James Tutt.

On June 5, another open house was held in their honor. On this occasion they were assisted by Mrs. Robert Giles and Mrs. Florence Carruthers.

To conclude their celebrations, Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick are taking a trip to the West Coast this summer.

YWCA
A morning Tupperware party was held on June 17 at the home of Mrs. Phyl Miller, Gamble Road for members of the Pleasantville group and friends. Mrs. Irene Miller conducted the demonstration, and proceeds were donated to the local YWCA.

During the coffee break Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Joyce Atkinson shared with members the highlights of the National YWCA Convention in Saskatoon.

Later that evening Mrs. Miller entertained the local YWCA Advisory Committee, Mrs. Anne Soderberg and Mrs. Gail Limoges of Maple at a dessert and coffee party.

Mrs. Mary Watts and Mrs. Kay Higgs commented on their recent pre-convention workshop in Peterboro, and report on the national convention was given by Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Atkinson.

A local YWCA summer course for mothers and daughters is being held at the Richmond Hill Centennial Pool on Wednesday mornings from 10 to 11 am starting June 30 to September 1. Further information may be obtained by calling 884-2667.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardwick, Bridgeport Street, who recently celebrated their silver wedding anniversary were guests of honor on three different occasions.

On May 29 they were taken to dinner, and upon their return home, were surprised to find their home full of neighbors who helped them celebrate.

On June 1, a small open house was held in the evening. The happy couple were assisted in opening their gifts by their bridesmaid - of 25 years ago - Miss Rowena Elliott, and in pouring tea by Mrs. Hardwick's sister, Mrs. James Tutt.

On June 5, another open house was held in their honor. On this occasion they were assisted by Mrs. Robert Giles and Mrs. Florence Carruthers.

To conclude their celebrations, Mr. and Mrs. Hardwick are taking a trip to the West Coast this summer.

YWCA
A morning Tupperware party was held on June 17 at the home of Mrs. Phyl Miller, Gamble Road for members of the Pleasantville group and friends. Mrs. Irene Miller conducted the demonstration, and proceeds were donated to the local YWCA.

During the coffee break Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Joyce Atkinson shared with members the highlights of the National YWCA Convention in Saskatoon.

Later that evening Mrs. Miller entertained the local YWCA Advisory Committee, Mrs. Anne Soderberg and Mrs. Gail Limoges of Maple at a dessert and coffee party.

PHILCO
RENT LEASE BUY
$2 Week
HERRIDGE
Electric-TV-Appliances
Sales, Repairs, Parts
884-3211
42 LEVENDALE ROAD

WEDDINGS
Photographed in Color
TELEPHONE TODAY FOR
Complimentary Color Brochure
"TIPS FOR BRIDES TO BE"
884-6741
Stuart's Studio
30A YONGE ST. S.
RICHMOND HILL

MODEL SB507
Seabreeze Compatible
Deluxe Automatic
Choice of grey silver or walnut grained cabinet. Exclusive new deluxe record changer plays all speeds. Heavy-duty 4" speaker. "Compatible" stereo caulk to play stereo or standard records. Improved wide range tone control and front mounted volume and tone controls. Plays all records including 12" with lid closed.

Estelle Markham
ARCT RMT
Piano Theory
Summer lessons begin June 29th
125 Laverock Ave.
884-3787

Public Transportation Meeting
The transportation committee of the town council of Richmond Hill will hold a public meeting in the council chambers of the municipal offices at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, June 30. Discussion will take place concerning transportation in Richmond Hill, prior to submission of a brief to the Metro Toronto and Region Transportation Study Board. All interested citizens invited.
Councillor Eric Handbury
Chairman, Transportation Committee

ASSISTANT TO LIBRARIANS
An interesting position for a woman who enjoys working with books. A car is required as the assistant will divide her time between Richmond Hill, Thornhill, Woodbridge, Bayview and Langstaff Secondary Schools. Library experience valuable but not essential. Duties will include typing cards, requisitions for books, and assembling lists of books.
CLERK-STENOGRAPHERS
For Bayview and Langstaff Secondary Schools. Competent typists. School office experience preferred but not essential.
Apply stating full particulars including age, education, previous employment and references to The Business Administrator, York Central District High School Board, 25 Yonge Street North, Richmond Hill.

GLOBE TRAVEL SERVICE
BOOKINGS FOR ALL STEAMSHIPS AND AIRLINES, TOURS AND CRUISES
85 YONGE STREET N.
RICHMOND HILL
PHONE 889-5782
No service charge, no booking fee