Rebuke Reeve's Stand On Vandals

Councillor Scudds added that if Mr. Plaxton's statements represented the thinking of the legal profession he was "very worried" about the effect of the profession on the community.

Reeve Plaxton said his statements were not directed against the vast majority of teenagers who are law-abiding citizens, but against those who have no respect for the law or private and public property. He again are already facing serious charges in the courts.

In the matter of greater co-operation by businessmen in laying charges with the police, Councillor William Lazenby, who operates Allencourt Pharmacy, said they are hesitant because of the very slow way in which the courts function. Citing a personal experience, he said he attended court regarding a minor theft case in his own store and although he was told to be in court at 10.00 am the case wasn't heard until 2.00 pm. He said most businessmen can't afford to lose this amount of time.

Broadhurst of being "grossly unfair to the reeve". He said they were making it appear he was against the police department when he was only doing his duty as an elected representative of the people. However, Mr. Handbury suggested that Reeve Plaxton and Councillor Scudds disagreed as to the outcome of one teenage fight in the town park. Reeve Plaxton said an unnamed youth "had been beaten within an inch of his life and had to be taken to hospital". Councillor Scudds called it a "slight scrap" and claimed the youth had become ill after the fight.

Mr. Plaxton also questioned why Markham Township Police had to be called in to make the arrests. Chief Robbins had told him the town police were away in Vaughan at the time investigating the case of a woman who had disappeared.

Deputy-Clerk Mack Clement who was in the park at the time of the incident called it a "nasty business" but he felt there had been some provocation.

repeated the complaints he had received from Yonge Street businessmen about damage done to their buildings, obscene remarks, loitering and blocking sidewalks making pedestrians walk around them. He said he still feels firmer police action is the only real way to curb the problem.

Mr. Scudds was highly critical of the failure of businessmen to aid the police in catching the culprits. "No wonder—they're afraid of getting a rock through a plate glass window", snapped Reeve Plaxton.

The reeve, who in private life is a lawyer, maintained the police have sufficient authority under the criminal code to take action against the troublemakers. "A night in jail and a kindness to some of these young people and would keep them out of serious trouble in the future." Mr. Plaxton said some Richmond Hill young people

Throughout the evening Councillor Scudds continued to maintain that rowdiness in the town is "fairly static." He said the public simply becomes more aware of it from time to time. Calling on the public for assistance, Mr. Scudds said, "Our citizens have a responsibility in the matter and must take part in protecting the town." He contended the municipality can't afford to hire enough police to be everywhere at once.

As an example of an evident lack of co-operation from the public, Mr. Scudds stated that parks officials had failed to report a recent act of vandalism where someone ruined a flower bed by driving a Honda right through the middle of it.

Another aspect of the vandalism has been the painting of obscene remarks on the walls of buildings and on sidewalks. The painters, have singled out one town constable who, Mr. Scudds said, has been investigating the rowdy problem. He added that enforcement officers hope to catch the painters in action.

Councillor Eric Handbury, who with Councillor Lazenby serves on the police committee with Mr. Scudds, came to Mr. Plaxton's defence and accused Messrs. Scudds and

In addition to Councillor Scudds, the other members of this year's police committee are Councillors William Lazenby and Eric Handbury. Once the long-awaited three member police commission is officially established, the administration of the police department will pass from a committee of council to this appointed body.

Under provincial legislation passed this spring, Richmond Hill is one of nine Ontario communities to have their police affairs turned over to a commission. The commission will be composed of a judge, a magistrate and the mayor. The judge and magistrate will be named by the Attorney-General's Department.

in future police matters should be discussed behind closed doors.

Mayor Broadhurst recommended that any criticism of the town administration should first be discussed with the department head concerned before it comes before council. Councillor Handbury said that such an arrangement could seriously restrict public debate in council.

The only motion to come out of the meeting was one by Deputy-reeve Floyd Perkins asking the parks board to investigate the need for better lighting in the parks. Mr. Perkins felt increased lighting would make rowdiness after dark more difficult.

Vaughan Police Report

Fences and bridges proved obstacles to motorists in Vaughan Township over the weekend, with two accidents involving them to accidents by police.

The first occurred about 5.30 pm, August 7 at Steeles Avenue, one-quarter of a mile east of Dufferin when a car driven by Robert Beaulieu, 18, of 24 Madawaska Avenue, Willowdale, allegedly swerved to avoid an oncoming car and rammed a nearby bridge.

Total damage to the bridge and the car was estimated at $900.

That same evening, about 10 pm, Jose Bettencourt, 31, of Toronto, drove into a fence while coming out of Dufferin Fairways, Dufferin Street.

No explanation for the accident, which caused minor damage, was given.

In another accident August 6, about $500 damage was done to two cars driven by John B. Fortune, 30, of Vaughan Township, and Donald R. Kautel, 20, of 48 Tromwell Crescent, Willowdale.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Steeles Avenue and Bathurst Street.

A rear-end collision at Maple Sideroad and Keele Street, August 6 about 5.20 pm, resulted in damage estimated at $200 to two vehicles.

According to police, Steve Sanders, 20, of 237 Altamira Road, Richmond Hill, had stopped his vehicle at a stop sign on Maple Sideroad when he was struck from behind by a car driven by Lloyd Brubacher, Grey County.

Lunney Stars As Newmarket Takes Dynes In First Game Of Playoffs

Eighteen year old Richard Lunney was the shining star of Newmarket Plaza's 8-1 defeat of Dynes Jewellers Tuesday at Newmarket. The young pitcher not only held Dynes to five hits and one run but hit two homers and a double to ensure victory for his team in this first game of a best two out of three playoff series.

Andy Watson scored Dynes' only run in the first inning, when first man up, he touched Lunney for his three hits. He came home on an error.

In the bottom of the second, Lunney hit his first homer to score Dunlop, who had walked ahead of him. In the third Billy Forhan tripled, crossed walked and McKnight flied out with Forhan scoring from third.

After Newmarket had scored four runs on two errors and two hits in the fourth, Brent Selva replaced Jack Rainbow on the Dynes mound and allowed only one more run, when Lunney collected his second home run of the game in the eighth inning. Selva struck out seven.

Coach Casey Cripps watched this game from the stands due to his suspension. The second game of this series will be played in the town park Thursday evening.

NEWMARKET: Council voted against a resolution supporting the building of a $100,000 community centre as its centennial project. $12,000 was set aside in this year's budget toward a centennial project and it was planned to raise a large portion of the remainder from the winterworks program. The mayor, Reeve, and two members of council voted against the proposal and thus the town lost its last hope of a centennial project.

memo to advertisers

"Guestimating"
an audience for your advertising?

Not if your ad is in "The Liberal"

Guesswork just isn't good enough when your advertising must build sales. Whether yours is a budget in hundreds or thousands of dollars, it's important to you and it should be thoughtfully and efficiently spent.

No one would think of taking just anybody's word for the condition of a bank's books. No sir! Special examiners must audit the books and detail the condition to a mathematical certainty.

It's the same with "The Liberal's" audience of readers. The advertiser-controlled A.B.C. audits our books every year so that advertisers may know exactly the size of the audience, where it is, and a lot more.

If you agree that facts about your advertising medium should be exchanged for your dollars, then ask for a copy of our latest A.B.C. report.

It'll be an eye-opener.
