Jerry's Oust Stingrays From OASA Playdowns

Wilson-Niblett Stingrays were knocked out of OASA competition by a more experienced Jerry's Budget Centre team in a best two out of three play-down round last week.

rays to the tune of 5 to 2. They pushed all five runs across the plate in the first two innings but Doug Webster, on the mound for the local boys, shut them out for the remaining five innings.

In the second game played Thursday of last week in the town park Jerry's came up with 11 big runs while Stingrays managed to score only four times.

Stingrays' bunts proved effective in both games against Jerry's, but the bunters died on base when following batters failed to drive them home.

The Stingrays are now awaiting word of East Gwillimbury's OASA Round so that North York League Playoffs can be arranged.

For the season Mabley leads the batting averages with .514, followed by Brinkley with .460, Webster .441, Steffan .443, Cronkright .415.

Ten years or even five years ago, if someone had said that there would be a four-lane highway right through the heart of our little community of Carrville, we would have thought that they were talking through their hats, so to speak.

Crack U. S. Team

Rochester Kodaks To Play Hughes Here This Weekend

Hughes Shell endeavoring to bring local fans the best fast-ball attraction available, have grabbed a big one for this weekend.

In the past two years, Niagara Falls Simon Pures and Buffalo Pat Dillons have visited the town park to give fans a taste of international fastball.

Kodak, a long-time sponsor of great fastball teams, has appeared in 10 world tournaments since 1935, winning twice and being runner-up on one other occasion.

The team Hughes will face has quite a remarkable record; so far this year they have a 24-4 win-loss record.

In 1964 they were finalists in the Middle Atlantic Regional Tournament, losing out to Levittown in New Jersey.

Doubleheaders will be played both Saturday night, starting at 7 and 9 pm and Sunday with games at 2 and 4 pm.

Hughes, who already have a busy schedule in the next few weeks, with play scheduled for the Beaches League, CNE Tournament, and OASA, will try to bring in additional pitching to aid Pettenuzzo and Deasley.

Thomas' Dick Haymes and Niagara Falls George Wenz may be two of the pitchers to see action.
