Oak Ridges, Lake Wilcox News

Attending the party were Kathy, Rodney, Judy-Anne and Freddie Black; Cathy, Stanley, Ernie Enns; Dierck, Deana and Mark (Jo-Jo) King; Donna, Kim, Teddy, Phillip MacMillan; baby, and Darrrell's brother, Mark and sisters, Kathryn, Brenda and Lorelei.

Mark King celebrated his third birthday of August 27 with a party with his friends on September 4. Two birthdays we forgot in August were Dougie Penley who was one year old and Cheryl Penley, four years old.

The Oak Ridges Lake Wilcox branch of the Canadian Cancer Society will start their dressing meetings, September 20. They will be held on the third Monday of each month at the Ridge Inn, unless otherwise stated. Ladies are welcome to attend and help make dressings for patients in the area.

Only six girls and five adults attended the hair care demonstration held on Tuesday of last week and watched while three girls had their hair set and one little girl had a pixie cut. Gabriele Lotito, Park Crescent, off the South Road, was the demonstrator and did three different hair styles, ranging from ages of about ten to early twenties. All the girls looked lovely in their new hair styles. Gabriele then answered questions about hair care.

Sympathy is extended from the community to Andrew Johnstone and family, on the loss of his father, John Johnstone, who died very suddenly at the York Central Hospital September 7. Mr. Johnstone was in his ninetieth year. Funeral services were held at the Thompson Funeral Home, September 11 with interment at Aurora Cemetery.

Readers are invited to turn to Page 8 for a picture showing some of the fascinating "goings on" at the recent corn and wiener roast held by the Elmwood Park Cottagers' Association at Lake Wilcox.

Guides and Brownies

Companies from both Oak Ridges and Lake Wilcox have now resumed for the 65/66 terms.

The 1st Oak Ridges Guides held their first meeting September 13 at Oak Ridges Public School and will meet every Monday at 7:00 pm from now on, under the leadership of Guide Commissioner Mrs. Nora Broad, and Captain Lydia Findeon.

Some of the girls have just completed camping trips to Camp Adelaide in Haliburton. Swimming awards were won by Susan Towers, Sandra Spence, Pauline Lee and Anne Bursy. Also on the camping trip were Lieutenant Mrs. Vera McDowell, Sandra Broad, Susan Broad, Ann Bursy, Jo-Ann Hull, Sandra Spence, Marilyn Smith, Terry McDowell, Ruth McDowell, Carlene Porter, Pauline Lee and Diana Hall.

Where do Guides come from? Well a good many of them fly or walk up from Brownies, but when there are no Brownies it is hard to keep up a Guide company. A leader is desperately needed for a Brownie company in Oak Ridges, disbanded two years ago on the resignation of Mrs. Marg Hall. For any information please call the Guide commissioner or one of the Guide

Handicraft Classes

Handicraft classes for girls over six years of age will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the home of Mrs. Norman Martin, Willowbank Avenue. Daily sessions had to be suspended of course because of school starting, but the girls will be doing about the same crafts as they did during the summer meetings, with a few new ones added.

The boys have now started making items and their classes will be held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings at the home of Mrs. Ethel Good, Bayview Avenue, until other accommodation can be arranged.

There are also to be dress-making classes during the winter months, with Mrs. Marg Good, at the corner of Wildwood and the North Road, the teacher. Notices will be displayed as to time and days.

A tentative date has been set, October 9, for the bazaar and tea, to be held by the youth centre board and the recreation committee. Items that have been made at the handicraft classes will be sold. If anyone has materials of any kind they would like to donate, or any articles for a white elephant table, please contact Robert Acheson, 773-5479.

School Bus Service

South Road parents were dismayed to find that the school bus service to Lake Wilcox Public School was discontinued this year. They held a meeting at St. Paul's United Church on Saturday to see what could be done. Previously the bus company combined service to Lake Wilcox Public School with service to another school and Lake Wilcox parents paid for the service, the bus company having no contract with the school board.

This year however, the bus company is no longer serving the second school and as it is uneconomical to take children only to Lake Wilcox school, the service has been discontinued.

It appears possible under new Department of Education regulations that a partial subsidy could be obtained for the bus service. A delegation of parents will approach the school board and enquire if the service could be re-established with the parents making up the difference between the subsidy and the total cost of the bus service.

Award Contract Elmgrove Ave.

Subject to approval by the Department of Highways, King Township Council recently awarded the contract for the reconstruction of Elmgrove Avenue in Oak Ridges to Douglas Wellesley Construction Limited. Five tenders were received.

The work is to include excavation and application of a granular base, a gravel surface, ditching, culverts and re-sodding from Yonge Street to Park Avenue.

Michelle Harper Dances On Ice

Michelle Harper, 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. J. W. Harper, Yonge Street, Oak Ridges, recently obtained her gold medal in "ice dancing" following her sixth summer session at the Tam O'Shanter Country Club.

Michelle began skating with the Aurora Figure Skating Club at the age of eight. She will now work on her eighth and final figure, while keeping up with her grade 12 work at Dr. G. W. Williams' Secondary School in Aurora.

Michelle is the eldest of five sisters who are all very enthusiastic skaters. Her 12-year-old sister Wendy has just passed her sixth figure.

Scouts & Rover Crew Enjoy Week Camping At Haliburton Reserve

A busload of boys, members of the 1st Oak Ridges Scouts and 1st King Rover Crew returned just in time for school from a week-long camping trip in the 5,200 acre Scout Reserve in Haliburton.

Scoutmasters Ron Foerter and Bert Wallace had charge of 11 Oak Ridges area boys, Ricky Collins, Lorne Mayes, Art Sheridan, Andy McLean, David Milner, Tom Allwood, Richard Rickalika, Fred Lynn Jr., Doug Spence, Irvine Arlt and Don Little, ranging in age from 11 to 14.

As well as taking second place in the weekly regatta, the boys won the coveted sportsmanship award. Bass fishing was also enjoyed. This was also something of a contest as the boys had to cut their fishing poles from the bush and then barter for lines and hooks.

The skippers' rowing race was won by Assistant Scoutmaster Bert Wallace. The canteen was manned by the Rover crew and its leader Fred Lynn who did a fine job of feeding the hungry boys.

The 1st Oak Ridges Scout Troop would like to have more boys join their troop as they are in the process of making up their fall and winter schedule. They meet at the Legion Hall in Oak Ridges every Monday night at 7.30.

200 Onlookers See Fire Destroy 16 Cattle And 100 Year Old Barn

Only one Holstein remained of a herd of 14 cows and three calves after a fire leveled the 100-year-old barn of Henry Huybers on the Lake Wilcox Golf and Country Club property last week. Damage was estimated at $4,000 in livestock and $7,500 to the building.

Flames were so high they could be seen from Yonge Street, a mile and a half away but the Aurora Fire Department kept the blaze confined to the barn. Most of the farm equipment was removed before two, 50-gallon gasoline drums exploded and a nearby equipment shed was undamaged.

Aurora Fire Chief Harry Jones stated that the fire started by spontaneous combustion in the hay. First warning came when Mr. Huybers was in the barn milking and a clump of burning hay fell beside him.

There are 72 cottages also on the property and about 200 residents and other onlookers stood watching the blaze, the children very sad about the loss of the herd as they had made pets of them while vacationing at their cottages.

Constables Don Hillock and Darwin Paradis of Whitechurch Township Police were first on the scene and kept the crowds clear of the burning building.

The Canada Pension Plan and its benefits

Here is what the Canada Pension Plan will do for people like Joe Costello, a 52-year-old unmarried labourer who earns $50 a week.

If Joe continues to work full time until age 65 he can look forward to retiring with a monthly pension of $54.16 from the Canada Pension Plan and $75 from Old Age Security—a total of $129.16. That's almost 60% of what he was earning.

If he is ill or out of work for as long as two years, or if his earnings for a period of up to two years are below his regular wage, he will receive the same pension at age 65. This is because under the Plan a certain number of months of low or no earnings do not affect the amount of the pension.

If Joe wishes to continue working between 65 and 70 and earns higher wages than previously he can improve his pension. For example, if he works until age 69 and earns $3,600 a year, his pension will be $61.74 a month instead of $54.16.

If Joe becomes disabled after 1970, having contributed for at least 5 years, he will get a disability pension of $65.62 a month until he gets both his retirement and Old Age Security pensions at age 65.

All benefits under the Plan will maintain their value. The actual benefits payable will probably be higher than those given here since benefits will be adjusted to meet changes in living costs and in wage levels before they are paid and changes in living costs after they become payable.

What will the Plan cost you?

If you, like Joe Costello, are employed and have earnings of $2,600 spread evenly over the year, you will pay at the rate of 69¢ a week. Your employer will pay the same amount.

This advertisement is one of a series which relates some of the important benefits of the Canada Pension Plan to individual circumstances.

Issued by authority of the Minister of National Health and Welfare, Canada.
The Honourable Judy LaMarsh.
