

Jim Day To Miss Trials

With Oak Ridges' riding star Jim Day it hasn't been strictly a case of what a difference a year can make. In 1964 the 18-year-old youth, considered one of the brightest riding prospects developed here in recent years, missed a chance to ride with Canada's international equestrian team due to a car accident.

And he'll likely miss a chance again in 1965 only this time for a different reason. Day is seriously considering turning professional.

Canada's international equestrian team will be selected this Saturday at Elderbury Hill Farm, Aurora. The team will then go on a North American tour which will take it to Harrisburg, Washington and New York before culminating in Toronto for the Royal Winter Fair, November 12-20.

Day is presently riding Nanticoke for Fairfield Farms of Florida on the U.S. outdoor circuit and doesn't plan to return to Canada until later this month.

Lost Ambassadors

When Andy Murphy moved his BA junior team off town soil and took up residence in Thornhill, Richmond Hill lost its most active ambassadors.

I was lucky enough to witness one of BA's OASA playoff games against Cooke Lumber, a team from Smithville, just south of Hamilton, at the Thornhill Park last Saturday. Both teams were evenly matched and played excellent softball.

Murphy boasts of all players being from the Hill except two which live just outside the boundaries. There is hope of returning to a local diamond next season, but as it now stands we might not be fortunate enough to gain these boys' return.

The two players which stand out in my memory are Roger Ball and Dave Day. Ball is credited with a triple on a nicely placed ball in the pocket between second and centre field. Day picked up a spinner at second for the force and then hurled to first for a double play. Not being satisfied he then slammed a double to bring in two runs and give BA a 4-1 lead.

The scores ran one-one, two-one, four-one, and ended five-one in favor of BA. After seeing a game such as this I only hope there is enough sense displayed to invite these boys to return and play on their own home ground next season — RICHMOND HILL.

Tabloid Sports Day

Minor Ball Tabloid Sports Day is scheduled for September 25 with October 2 being the alternate date.

Marty D'Alessandro, equipment manager, has again this year, along with numerous assistants, prepared a schedule of excitement for the hundreds of boys and girls participating in the day's activities.

A sample agenda is as follows: 9 am pee wee and squirt teams with eight events lasting two hours. The six girls' teams commence at 11 am for six events. 1 pm the tykes and mites with eight events or approximately two hour time limit.

The bantam boys are to hold a tournament with the time and location to be decided later.

There will be refreshments as usual after each round and if last year's tabloid is any indication of what is planned, the sports day is guaranteed to be a huge success. Parents and players are asked to watch "The Liberal" for further details.

SPECIAL NOTE:
The Mic Macs defeated Oak Ridges last week 17-2. Nice playing girls! THIS game was well worth watching!

STOFFVILLE: Over 200 descendants of the Grove family held a family reunion at Park-side Youth Centre west of here last week. The gathering was promoted by Wm. Grove of Dickson's Hill. The original Grove homestead is on the present Ezra Grove property, Lot 33, Concession 7, Markham Township. The 200 are all descendants of Abraham Grove (Grove) who came to Markham Twp. from Lancaster, Pennsylvania in 1808.

KBM Eliminate Reynolds Nine

Reynolds Shoe House Pee Wees were defeated by KBM of Willowdale in the OASA Zone Championships. The Willowdale team took the first game of a best two out of three series 10-3 at Kinsmen Park and the second game in Richmond Hill September 7 by the score of 12-1.

The local boys are now awaiting the outcome of a series between Mount Albert and East Gwillimbury to advance in the North York League Playdowns. It is hoped that the championship round will get underway this weekend, with Reynolds taking on either East Gwillimbury, Mt. Albert or Aurora.

SEEK THE SHADE

Where can you catch fish when the summer sun turns the water so hot you can practically brew a cup of instant coffee right out of your favorite fishing hole? When the solar rays send you scurrying for shade, you can bet your lag head sinks slow and are doing the same. And that's the tip-off to start looking for their cool and comfortable sanctuaries.

According to the old timers, you could predict with uncanny accuracy exactly where fish will be lying during the heat of the day.

If you're a big lake man, just lower your minnow or crawdad right down to the bottom where it's cool and agreeable.

Throttle your Mercury down to a whisper, work 'em slow and easy-like, and you'll catch fish.

Even shallow waters have their comfortable havens. And they're usually easy to spot: overhanging trees or bushes, undercut banks and big floating fields of lily pads or other forms of aquatic vegetation.

The secret is to make your offering both tantalizing and easy to capture. In hot weather no one wants too much exertion. Fish are no exception. Float or drift your surface plug across the water slowly.

Work over every patch of weeds or pads methodically, moving each cast over about a yard until you've thoroughly explored virtually every nook and cranny. Remember that lure must literally dangle in front of their noses.

Cast in the shade where it's cool. That's where the fishin's hot.

Announcement . . .

I wish to announce to the people of Richmond Hill and district that as of today I am retiring from the automobile business. I have leased my garage property on North Yonge Street and the Chrysler Corporation will shortly make an announcement of their new dealership here.

As I retire from active business I want to express my sincere thanks and the thanks of my wife and family to all the people of the area for their generous patronage and good will during the past thirty-seven years. It has been a real pleasure to be in business here for all these years and I look forward with anticipation to enjoying the many warm associations and friendships which it has been my privilege to make here and throughout York County.

I trust my many friends will extend to my successor the same measure of good will and patronage which has been extended to me and my family.

With sincere thanks and every good wish.

Win Series 2 To 1

Pettenuzzo Pitches Hughes To Playoff Win Over Oshawa

In one of the most exciting series played in this area in a long time, our local Hughes Shell eliminated Oshawa Tony's from further OASA Senior "A" competition.

Each game featured sharp defensive ball and the breaks were the deciding issue every time.

Reno Pettenuzzo, on the mound for the first time in two weeks, pitched both victories for Hughes and proved once again what a great young pitcher the Sault barber really is. All the Hughes players played well in this series but special mention should go to Dick Moulton, Charlie Reid, Doug Watt and Al Mugford.

Moulton, always a tremendous playoff performer had six hits over the three games. Reid, an extremely fast runner, made a great catch to preserve the second game victory and scored from first base on Watt's double to tie the third game. Mugford's fine defensive play at a strange position and his hustle to score the winning run in the second game, plus Watt's two big plays in the deciding game were all key performances.

HUGHES 3 - OSHAWA 2

The deciding game in this series was played on neutral ground at Kew Gardens Monday evening. A large crowd was treated to a very exciting ball game with a spectacular finish.

Pettenuzzo and Reg Martin, two exceptional young pitchers hooked up in a real battle, each surrendering six hits.

Oshawa took the lead in the third inning when a piece of strategy by the Hughes coach backfired. Tom O'Connor singled to start the inning and was sacrificed to second by Oldfield. After Pettenuzzo struck out Martin, Bob Young was ordered intentionally walked to set up a play at any base. Dave Kelly then walked, loading the bases, and Jack Armstrong sliced a single, scoring two runs.

In the fifth inning Tony's almost added to their lead but a real heads-up play by Watt prevented any further damage. With a runner on third and two out, McMahon hit a long fly to left field, close to the line. Big Doug played it just right as he stood on the line and watched it drop six inches foul. If he had caught the ball, the runner on third would have scored easily, putting Hughes behind 3-0.

Hughes started their comeback in the sixth when Conacher reached first on an error and was sacrificed to second by Moulton. Mugford grounded out, advancing Conacher to third. Martin's first pitch to DeGeer got away from the catcher and Conacher slid home under the throw.

With two out in the eighth things looked pretty black for Hughes when Moulton singled. Reid replaced him as runner, then Watt hit a ball over first base. Reid, showing great speed scored all the way from first and a throw to the plate Watt went to third. The Oshawa catcher hurried his throw trying to nip Watt and the ball bounced into left field with Watt scoring.

Pettenuzzo put Tony's down in order in the ninth to preserve the slender margin of victory.

HUGHES 3 - OSHAWA 2

FUTURE GAMES

Hughes now advance to the Southern Ontario finals but the starting date has not yet been settled.

Randall Roy will be at town park this Saturday night for a scheduled league game. A Hughes' victory would clinch first place in the Beaches League for them.

Rookie Oshawa Pitcher Reg Martin allowed eight runs and walked two as the statistics showed, but was extremely tough with men on base.

This game was played before the largest crowd in Oshawa in many years as it was billed as a grudge match and a chance for local fans to see Pettenuzzo in action. The Tony team, playing superb ball, did not send their fans home disappointed. They were opportunists for the first run and hit homers for the other two.

DICK MOULTON
Six Hits

Tony's scored the only run they needed in the second when Catcher Bob Booth walked to start the inning. With two out, another Oshawa rookie, Bob Young, ripped a line drive over first to score Booth.

Jack Sneddon and Bob Booth hit home runs in the sixth to put the game on ice. Moulton had three hits for the losers and Staughton added two more.
