Horticultural Society's 50th Annual Show Has 284 Entries

Mrs. Walter Thompson was the winner of the Percy Bone Rose Bowl Trophy, awarded for the best floral arrangement for a luncheon table, at the annual summer show of the Thornhill Horticultural Society, after trying for 22 years to win it. This was the largest show of the year and was held on September 11 at Thornhill United.

Members had their best summer flowers and vegetables on display. There were 284 entries, 33 of these in the junior classes. The meeting was open to the public in the evening and many gardening enthusiasts attended to view the outstanding floral displays and succulent vegetables. There were 36 classes for specimen flowers and 29 classes for decorative arrangements and junior efforts.

The John Kings were awarded a $5.00 gift certificate from Superior Bulb Company for their large decorative dahlia, over four inches in size, when it was judged the best specimen in the show. Judge for the show was Charles Taylor, a wholesale florist of Drewry Avenue, Willowdale.

Winners in the professional and/or advanced amateur class, a new class, were: Percy Bone who won a midget duster from Plants Products; C. Williamson, a $5.00 gift certificate from C. Cruickshank; Mrs. J. Bridges, a $5.00 gift certificate from George Keith & Sons Ltd., the Jack Mannings, a $5.00 gift certificate from Wain Florist.

At the close of the show, flowers, vegetables and floral arrangements were auctioned off to interested bidders.

Thornhill Horticultural Society celebrates its 50th anniversary this year. An interesting feature of the September show was a bulletin board on which were displayed mementoes of the society's past, including a photograph of all its members in 1917 (mostly children and only three men); a copy of the program for the first annual show 50 years ago and a copy of a December 1917 issue of "The Liberal" which contained the annual report of the Society. Receipts included a $49 legislative grant. (Someone should see how that dropped by the wayside). The largest expenditure for the year was $161 for "parcels for Thornhill boys", those overseas in World War I.

The next meeting will be on October 19.

Section Four was a new class introduced this year for professional and/or advanced amateur members and the winners were: a basket of flowers, Percy Bone, C. Williamson, the Mannings; "Welcome Visitors", a line arrangement using any material, Mrs. J. Bridges, the Mannings, the Kings; "Mellow Fruitfulness", an arrangement

Thornhill Couple Wed Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Eman Miller of 12 Elmbank Road, Thornhill, celebrated their golden wedding September 2 with friends and relatives at their home.

Miss Marie Rowe came to Canada with her mother from Bournemouth, England, in 1910. Marie met Eman at Redfern's where they were both employed and they were married at St. Paul's Church on Bloor Street, Toronto, in 1915 by Dr. Canon Cody.

Mr. Miller, "Dusty", was a manager with the Robert Simpson Company and served during World War I as a sergeant in the signalling corps of the 48th Highlanders' 15th and 92nd battalions.

When Mr. Miller retired 15 years ago they moved from Toronto to Thornhill, where they are members of Holy Trinity Anglican Church. Mr. Miller is also a member of King Solomon Masonic Lodge.

The summer months were spent as usual at their summer home in Caesarea, on Lake Scugog.

They have two sons, Bill and Fred, and a daughter, Mrs. James (Barbara) Martin, and six grandchildren.

Teacher Absent On Opening Day

When Ross Doan School opened September 7 one classroom was without a teacher. On investigation it was discovered that the young male teacher hired in the spring was unable to fill the position to which he was assigned because he failed to secure the necessary qualifications. He failed to notify Vaughan Township School Board of this fact.

Fortunately, the board had had an unassigned teacher on its staff, and Miss Carol Vango was immediately assigned to the staff of the Doan School to take over the class.

BELL LINES
by W. R. McDonald
your telephone manager

Thousands of dollars were spent by the Bell Telephone Company of Canada producing telephone directories last year, but this week they advocated residents throw them out.

That is, when you receive your copy of the 1965 Aurora-Newmarket area directory currently being distributed.

W. R. McDonald, Bell manager for the area reports there are 7,260 copies of the directory being sent to Richmond Hill residents this year, compared to 1964's figure of 6,954. In all 61,865 copies of the directory are slated for delivery, 9,347 more than last year.

Hundreds of hours are put in by Bell employees, adding, deleting and bringing the lists of names and numbers up to date. This makes the book one of the world's best reference texts.

"It's always a good idea to double check your personal list of frequently called numbers against the new directory," said Mr. McDonald. "This makes good sense when you think of the number of wrong numbers a person gets."

The Bell has Blue Books, ideal for personal lists of numbers, that the company will send out on request.

"Residents should not only record the numbers for fire, police and doctor on the inside front cover of their new directory but should also check the information pages," said the manager. "A few minutes spent now might mean the difference between effective action and hopeless fumbling in an emergency."

A sketch of St. George's Church at Sibbald's Point is featured on this year's cover, which, like the other 61 directories to be printed by the Bell Telephone this year will be a robin's egg blue.

THE DIRECTORY AND THE TELEPHONE
Early day telephone directories were usually just lists of people in town who had telephone service, with an explanation of how to crank the phone to get the operator's attention. But not anymore! The pink pages in today's phone books are filled with lots of useful information: numbers to call in emergencies, for telephone repair service, for assistance on calls, and to order new services or changes. They give instructions for speeding your Long Distance calls, and a list of Area Codes. These "how-to" pages are there to help you get top value from your telephone service. And that's a pretty good reason for using them!

TYCOON-TO-BE
Here's a little story that should warm the heart of any businessman:
A small-town boy went into the neighbourhood drugstore to use the pay phone. The drugstore did not help overhearing the lad's side of the conversation, and it was a model of smooth salesmanship.
"Dr. Jones? Doctor, do you need a hardworking boy to take care of your lawn? Oh, you already have a boy. Is he good... I mean does he really know his job? Are you satisfied with his work? You are? OK then... thanks anyway."

OUT WITH THE OLD — IN WITH THE NEW!
I'm referring of course to the brand new telephone directory you receive this time of year. The outside looks the freshest and newest, but remember it's there mainly to hold the insides in! — it's the new and changed listings that are most important. So, to save yourself time and avoid wrong numbers, be sure to look the number up and jot it down before you call. Handy Little Blue Books — ideal for recording your personal list of telephone numbers — are still available free of charge (just call our Business Office and we'll send you one).
