CARRVILLE NEWS

CORRESPONDENT: MRS. GORDON READ
Telephone 889-4001

Church News
The Carrville UCW held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. Jack Bushell September 8, with 13 members present. It was the first meeting after the summer months and there was much to discuss and plan for the coming fall bazaar and fall dinners. The October meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Baker October 6. Taking the devotional service will be Mrs. Bushell, leader and Mrs. J. Barton, reader, and providing the refreshments will be Mrs. A. Read, and Mrs. D. Reid.

The 110th anniversary of Carrville United will be observed September 26. Dr. Beacroft will be the speaker. Services will begin at 9:45 am. Jim Bushell and his friend, Gordon Crossfield, spent a brief weekend with Jim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bushell. Jim and Gordon were on their way back to university in Kingston to continue their studies for the ministry. Jim and Gordon spent the summer in mission fields in Alberta and Saskatchewan. During the morning service at Carrville United on September 12 Jim read the responses and scripture and Gordon led the congregation in prayer.

Socials
Birthday wishes to David Wark on September 17 and to Ernie Bone on September 19. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Baker, Hawkstone, visited with the Reads on Sunday of this week.
