It Was A Big Splash

Thirty-one Langstaff Secondary School students enjoyed a chance to get acquainted at a recent "splash" party held at the Heritage Farms home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rice, Dufferin Street. Hostesses were Kathryn and Dyanne Rice.

Left to right above, Kathryn's bikini contrasts with the old-fashioned bathing suits worn by John Weir, Wayne Sherman and Rick Pedder, while sister Dyanne joins in the fun. Dyanne was also celebrating the fact that she was able to put her foot to the ground for the first time since her leg was broken several months ago. The Rices moved to their new home in Vaughan Township in mid-July from Willowdale.

Eleanor Wells, George Douglas Wed In Woodgreen United Church

A pretty fall wedding took place September 25 in Woodgreen United Church in Toronto, when Eleanor Edith Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wells of Woodbine Ave., Toronto, became the bride of George Edward Douglas, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Douglas of Weller Cres., Maple.

The service was conducted by Rev. William Smith of Toronto. G. Goeghan of Toronto played the organ and soloist was Mrs. Earl Halford who sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love".

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white floor length gown of embroidered organza over a taffeta underskirt. The styling was A-line with a floor length train. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow sweetheart roses.

Miss Sandra Gregg, a close friend of the bride, was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Gail Taylor, Miss Donna McFarlane and Miss Nora Douglas. The attendants all wore green A-line style dresses with long back streamers and cummerbunds of dark green velvet. They wore head-dresses of green nylon veiling in a bouffant style and carried bouquets of yellow sweetheart roses and orange carnations. Best man was Ronald Hasan, of Toronto, a close friend of the groom. Ushers were Alan Wells, Brian Thurston and Robert Douglas. At the reception in the church auditorium following the ceremony, the bride's mother received the 115 guests wearing a sheath dress of deep wine colored silk with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of white orchids. Assisting her was the mother of the groom, who wore a sheath dress of light blue silk with a bodice of blue lace, matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

The bestman, Ronald Hasan, acted as the master of ceremonies at the reception and the toast to the bride was proposed by Elvin Cook. Mr. Hasan also made the speech on the groom's behalf and toasted the groom's parents. Robert Douglas, brother of the groom proposed the toast to the bridesmaids and maid of honor. The groom's father welcomed the bride to Douglas family. After the reception the guests returned to the Douglas home in Maple from which the bride and groom left for their honeymoon trip to the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania. For her going away outfit the bride chose a burgundy colored suit with matching accessories. Out of town guests at the wedding were from Maple, Toronto, Rexdale, Peterboro and London.

The groom is a graduate of Western Technical School and is a laboratory technician with Dow Chemical Co. The bride is a graduate of Ryerson Polytechnical Institute.

On their return from their wedding trip the couple will reside in Toronto.

Chance to Gobble Gobblers

Turkey should be on the menu for some local people at Thanksgiving and Christmas, notably members and friends of the Maple Lions Club.

Permission was given to the club to hold a turkey shoot at the Shur Gain Demonstration Farm at Maple on October 9 and again on December 11 at last week's meeting of Vaughan Township Council.

The appropriate by-law was given three readings. It stipulates that only shot guns be used at the shoot and contains the provision that proceedings may be brought to a halt any time the police department feels that proper supervision is not being maintained.

Concord News

Mr. and Mrs. Bev. Barrett, Vaughan Blvd., had a guest from Morden, Surrey, England, recently, Miss Joan Masom. Mrs. Barrett took Miss Masom on a tour of Quebec, including Quebec City and Montreal. They also visited Niagara Falls and went up in the newest tower "The Skyline". The last place they visited was Pioneer Village in Edgeley. Mr. and Mrs. Bright and the Barretts had a corn and wiener roast for Miss Masom, something quite new to her.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lacey and Mrs. Elizabeth Walsh, Lawrie Rd., spent last weekend in Baltimore, Maryland, at the wedding of Miss Ann Kearns.

Linda Gilbert, Vaughan Blvd., returned last Saturday from a week in York Central Hospital undergoing tests for a rheumatic condition. Linda's stay was made much more bearable by the daily visits from Langstaff Secondary School girls who helped her keep up with her grade 13 studies. The elderly patient sharing Linda's room also enjoyed the visits of the young people and said they did her more good than any other treatment she was getting.

Linda will be confined to her home for a time yet, depending on the results of the tests.

Mr. and Mrs. Brydon Lloyd of R.R. 1, Maple were honored September 1 when several neighbors and fellow members of Hope United Church held a farewell party for them at the Lloyd home. The Lloyd family is moving to Beaton in the near future. Mrs. Elmer Orr and Wilbert Hadwen made the presentation, on everyone's behalf, of a pole lamp, to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd. Then a social evening was enjoyed including euchre and a delicious lunch.

Mrs. Lloyd Palmer entertained at a miscellaneous shower October 1 in honor of Julie Welham Forsythe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kelly Welham of Richmond St. Approximately 27 friends and neighbours attended. Assisting Mrs. Palmer were Mrs. Blake Yake and Mrs. Derek Rolfe.

John Thurston, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Thurston of Richmond St. is a member of the cast of the current Curtain Club play in Richmond Hill. The Curtain Club is a very excellent dramatic group, that has been active in the Hill for 12 years. Their present production is an evening of two one-act plays, "A Resounding Tinkle" by N. F. Simpson and "The Browning Version" by Terrence Rattigan. John is playing the part of Taplow in "The Browning Version" and from all accounts does an excellent job in his portrayal of this English schoolboy. The two plays have been playing in the Curtain Club Theatre on Yonge St. N. last week and will be presented again this week on October 7, 8, and 9. Tickets for the performance can be obtained from Mrs. Joy Madden at 884-1280.

Another Maple resident who also has joined the group is Stephen Shore. Stephen did not try for a part in the current plays, but is part of the very important back-stage crew. Other announced productions of the club that will be presented during the year are November

17-27 "The Shop At Sly Corners" February 2-12 "Who'll Save The Ploughboy" May 4-14, "The Irregular Verb To Love."

The Boy Scout and Cub bottle drive held Saturday last was very successful, and the Scouts and Cubs wish to thank the residents of Maple for their co-operation and support in this fund-raising endeavour. They will be having more bottle drives in the months to come so do remember to save your redeemable bottles for the boys.

Mrs. Lorne Wells, returned home October 1 from a week's stay in York Central Hospital.

Maple WI will be holding its next meeting on October 13 at the home of Mrs. Milton Palmer. Toby Shore is to be the guest speaker and she will address the group on the topic of hospital volunteer work.

The 1st Maple Scout Mothers' Auxiliary held its first meeting of the fall September 29 in the Lions Den at the community hall, Beverley House, out-going president, conducted the meeting and then handed over the gavel to incoming president, Aileen Birch, after the new slate of officers was elected. Mrs. Pat Mills of Richmond Hill who is the district commissioner was present and installed the new officers.

The following are on the 1965-66 executive: President, Aileen Birch; Secretary, Betty Miller; Treasurer, Audrey Magee; Membership Convener, Eleanor James; Birthday Convener, Ann Parrott; Sunshine Convener, Sylvia Beecham; Sewing Convener, Marion McKay and Lee Hynd; Social Convener, Mary Cameron and Muriel Shaw.

The Scout Mothers' Auxiliary will show a children's movie on the evening of October 15. The movie is to be Walt Disney's "One Hundred and One Dalmatians" and will be shown in the community hall. The first show will be at 6:30 pm and the second show will be at 8:30 p.m. The tickets are 25c for children and 50c for adults. There will be pop and chocolate bars sold at intermission only. Tickets are available from any Cub or Scout mother or at the door.

The Maple Cubs and Scouts are in need of adult help. Due to the fact that some of the very excellent leaders of last year were forced to take a leave of absence from their duties with the Scouts, there are not enough leaders for the packs this year. Frank Robson, chairman of the group committee is making an appeal for any adult interested in seeing this very important youth work continued, to volunteer to help. It is not necessary that the adults have a past history of Scouting themselves. All that is really required is an interest in boys. The group committee would like to see enough adults taking part that there would be extra people to help out on a relief or part time basis.

This is a very serious problem, as the Cub and Scout activities in Maple are really enjoyed by the lads themselves and it seems a shame that lack of adult co-operation should in any way endanger these activities. So would any one who feels he could give a bit of his time to the Cubs and Scouts please contact Frank Robson at 832-2490. It will really be appreciated.

The Lions Club have announced the date for their annual auction sale. It will be held October 23, starting at 1:00 pm at the community hall. This is an important fund raising event for the Lions Club, and is also fun to attend. There are always good bargains available and the proceeds are used to support the various community projects that the Lions Club undertake. Auctioneer will be Gordon Orr.

The Lions are presently making an appeal to everyone to donate anything saleable to them for the auction. Something that one person is tired of, can be considered a real bargain by someone else, so almost anything that is in reasonable condition, is potentially useful to the Lion's Club for this sale. Some of the things that have sold well in the past are: furniture of all types, electrical appliances both large and small, tools, toys, bedding and linens, clothing, lamps, clocks, dishes, pots and pans, etc., etc.

The Lions are appealing to everyone to go through their household effects and anything that is in condition to be donated will be picked up by the Lions. Just call Ray at 832-1588, or Bruce at 832-2530 and they will make the arrangements. Don't forget the date, October 23 at 1:00 pm.

The other Lion's Club event that is coming up is their turkey shoot. This popular event will be held at the Shur-Gain Farm this Saturday. Tickets are available from any Lion's Club member. This event has been planned, to coincide with Thanksgiving, in order that the lucky ones can enjoy their prize for the holiday dinner. The Maple Girl Guides will be in charge of the refreshment booth.

On September 28 Maple United UCW held their autumn thank-offering meeting in the religious education wing. President Mrs. B. Davis presided. The thank-offering service was conducted by Mrs. Walt Murray, assisted by Mrs. Bruce Thurston and Mrs. E. A. Borrett. A film, "My Right and My Cause," secured from the United Church Publishing House was shown by Morley Kinnee. It told the story of the printing of the Korean Bible and the hardships suf-

"Canada's economy is on the move... keep it growing with a Liberal majority"

JOHN ADDISON

Since the Liberals formed the government in 1963, Canada's economic and financial health has been transformed. From chronic illness, during the Diefenbaker years of refusal to recognize problems, the Liberal government has created a new era of sound growth with a bright future ahead.

Liberal government policies have brought about a record 9% growth in Gross National Product (the value of all goods and services produced in Canada) in the first year of office. Predictions for the current fiscal year indicate another 9% growth—the best record of any country in the world.

Employment is up by 548,000 new jobs. Unemployment is still too high at 2.8% of the labour force (an 8 year low) but a great improvement over the Tory's 7.2% in '61/62.

Exports were up 19% in 1964 over 1963, and it wasn't all wheat. The national deficit was only $37 million in '63/64 compared to $791 million in '61/62. The Liberal government has repaid in full $750 million the Tories borrowed in 1962, from the International Monetary Fund and foreign countries, to bolster Canada's critically low foreign exchange reserves. Today, our reserves are the highest in six years. This year the Liberals intend to balance the budget.

Progress has been made in establishing new industries and in beneficial trade and development agreements. The Columbia River treaty, the free trade agreement on automobiles, massive export sales of wheat... these are only a few Liberal government actions which cannot help but benefit all Canadians now and for a long time to come.

The expanding economy permitted a 10% personal tax cut without jeopardizing social security bills enacted or planned for the future.

BIG DECISIONS AHEAD

But the big and important decisions still ahead demand a majority central government which can bargain and act from strength... a majority government which will exert all its energies for the national good, not for partisan political advantage. That is why an election is needed now.

There can be no healthy constituency anywhere in Canada unless the whole country is buoyant, prosperous and moving ahead with a strong national purpose. The Liberal Party has sensible policies to deliver this objective. The Liberal Party has proved it does what it promises.

John Addison has played an important role in developing Liberal policies for economic prosperity. Your vote for John Addison will ensure a prosperous and secure future for you and your family.
